Dillon Public Forum

The Dillon Local Government Review Commission will hold a public forum on May 20, 2025 at the Elks Lodge from 6 to 8 pm. This intent is to listen to the public, facilitate discussion, and to answer questions about options the residents of Dillon have in the form and power of our Municipal Government.

Montana's Constitution is unique in the US in that it provides the opportunity for local government evaluation to occur every 10 years, if the voters so desire.

There will also be at least one public hearing later in the summer. If the commission concludes from the survey, interviews, and public hearing that the public wants a change in local government, they will write a report that explains the rationale of the change they have decided upon. That change of government will appear on the general ballot in November of 2026 for the voters to make the final decision.

State's New Brand in Miles City, Friday, May 16

The event will kick off a statewide tour to promote the new brand.

Montana Department of Justice warns of increased presence of carfentanil in Billings

The Montana Department of Justice (MTDOJ) and Billings Police Department (BPD) are warning citizens of an increased presence of the synthetic opioid carfentanil in Billings.

The Eastern Montana High Intensity Drug Trafficking Area recently seized a large amount of dangerous drugs trafficked into Montana from out of state and that originated from the Mexican drug cartels. The State Crime Lab tested the drugs and found that a 4,900 pill seizure tested positive for carfentanil. Seizures involving carfentanil typically result in one or two seized pills. The carfentanil was in the form of blue M30 pills and powder. Additionally, a 5,000 pill seizure tested positive for fentanyl.

Carfentanil is a synthetic opioid, used to tranquilize elephants, and is approximately 100 times more potent than fentanyl and 10,000 times more potent than morphine. These substances can come in several forms, including powder, blotter paper, tablets, patch, and spray. Some forms can be absorbed through the skin or accidentally inhaled.

"We are urging Montanans to be on alert following this large drug seizure. These drugs are extremely dangerous: one pill can kill. Never take a pill that was not prescribed by your doctor," Attorney General Austin Knudsen said. "I'm grateful for law enforcement's commitment to keeping drugs off the streets. They are saving countless lives." Do not use any pill or prescription drug you have not been prescribed. If you find pills or substances that you are unsure of do not touch them without the appropriate personal protective equipment. If you believe you have ingested this drug or are suffering from an overdose, contact 9-1-1 immediately.

Some signs that may indicate an overdose:

- Small constricted "pinpoint pupils"
- Falling asleep or loss of consciousness
- Slow, shallow breathing
- Choking or gurgling sounds
- Limp body
- Pale, blue, or cold skin

Please be aware of the risks, and share this information to prevent an overdose:

- It is important to have naloxone available. Visit <https://dphhs.mt.gov/amdd/naloxone/>
- Do not use alone and avoid taking pills from the street, online, or

Bulldog Track & Field Tabs Three on All-Conference Team, Two Named Champions of Character Award Winners

With the completion of the 2025 Frontier Conference Track & Field Championship on Monday, the conference has announced the 2025 Frontier Men's and Women's Track & Field All-Conference Teams. Three Bulldogs earned all-conference honors in various events.

To be selected to an all-conference team, a student-athlete must place in the top three of an event at the conference championship meet.

Olivia Steadman was crowned the Frontier Conference champion in the 10,000m race after she earned a person record in the event, earning her spot on the all-conference team.

In addition, Gracie Yakos earned a personal record in the 400m hurdles after she placed third in the event.

Brody Henry led the Bulldog men after he claimed third in the men's 800m race, earning an all-conference nod for the second year in a row.

Two Bulldogs were also honored at the Frontier Conference Championships as Montana Western Track and Field Champions of Character Award nominees, presented by WinWon Technologies.

The Champions of Character award is given to a student-athlete who best exemplifies the NAIA's core values: integrity, respect, responsibility, sportsmanship, and servant leadership.

UMW's nominees included freshman Braden Kopp (Missoula, Mont. / Hellgate HS), and freshman Bridger Wheeler (Cheyenne, Wyo. / Cheyenne Central HS).

Shannon Maness Legislative Report

The 69th legislative session has concluded, and I am back home and ready to work. I enjoyed almost every minute of it and learned a great deal. Overall, I would say we made some progress this session, though many opportunities were left untapped. The guiding principle we heard throughout the session was "51, 26, 1," which signifies the votes needed for any legislation to become law: 51 votes in the House, 26 votes in the Senate, and then the governor's signature. Achieving this can be quite challenging. Every bill must be voted on a minimum of six times before it reaches the governor, and that's only if there are no amendments during the process.

Some of our wins this session will be beneficial for years to come. A few examples include lowering the income tax rate, protecting women in women's sports and spaces, implementing environmental laws that strengthen the state's ability to advance resource development, increasing starting teacher pay, and enacting laws to address the state's housing shortage. Additionally, we passed a groundbreaking law known as the "Right to Compute Act," which affirms the right to own and use computational technology, significantly enhancing personal privacy and data rights.

Regarding property tax relief, it's still unclear whether this will be considered a win or a loss for the state. This year, nearly everyone will receive a one-time rebate of $400. However, it's important to note that local governments and school systems will not receive less money for operations; it simply shifts the burden of payment.

On the flip side, there were some avoidable losses. We experienced a substantial increase in the state budget for the next two years, with nearly 18% growth in one year. The budget surplus we had was nearly exhausted by new trust funds and spending programs, which will increase government size and dependency. For instance, $250 million was allocated to a new trust to fund pensions using our income tax dollars, but no provisions were made for individuals' retirement accounts. As it stands now, government expenditures are projected to exceed tax revenue by the end of the decade unless we make significant changes. These are critical issues that will require bold solutions; it's better to address them now while the state is enjoying a surplus rather than waiting for a budget crisis.

Overall, it was a great experience with wonderful people. I enjoyed the spirited debates and the effort to find solutions. Even though the session is over, we still have much to do with interim committees beginning in a couple of months. I will serve on the Environmental Quality Committee, which works with the Department of Environmental Quality, the Department of Fish, Wildlife and Parks, and the Department of Natural Resources and Conservation to work on any improvements and future legislation needed.

Thank you for all your support over the past four months. If I can help you with any issues, please don't hesitate to reach out.

Beaverhead County Beavers Narrowly Edge Out East Helena, 4-3

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

The Beaverhead County Varsity Beavers edged past the East Helena Vigilantes 4-3 on Saturday, securing the victory with a late-game surge. The game was tied at three in the bottom of the sixth when Trenton Moreni singled, driving in the winning run.

The Beavers opened the scoring in the bottom of the fourth inning. Logan Fox drew a walk and scored on Sawyer Tackett's single, giving Dillon a 2-1 lead. The Vigilantes responded in the top of the sixth, tying the game with a single from Jack Taylor, a wild pitch, and a passed ball that allowed a run.

In the bottom of the sixth, Moreni's clutch single scored the go-ahead run, which proved to be the game-winner.

Cohen Hartman earned the win for Dillon, pitching one and two-thirds innings of scoreless relief, striking out two and walking two. Logan Fox started for the Beavers, allowing four hits and three runs (two earned) over five and one-third innings, with four strikeouts and two walks.

Liam Priebe took the loss for East Helena, pitching six innings and surrendering four runs on seven hits, with eight strikeouts and two walks.

Offensively, Hartman led Dillon with two hits in four at-bats. Moreni and Sawyer Tackett each drove in one run. The Beavers were aggressive on the base paths, stealing five bases in the game and turning one double play defensively.

For East Helena, Jack Taylor, Killian Snarr, Kai Richey, and Boston Adams each had one hit. Taylor also led the team with one RBI and went 1-for-3 at the plate.

Where: Parkview Elementary School

We will be completing Kindergarten registration at this time for students who will be five years old on or before September 10th, 2025. If you plan to register your child for Kindergarten, please bring a state issued birth certificate and a current immunization record.

Programs:

Kindergarten for Success: Parkview Elementary offers a Transitional Kindergarten program where the students will stay in Kindergarten for two consecutive years, working on Kindergarten Curriculum. It is available only for students who will be 5 on or before September 10, 2025. Eligibility is based on a point system. Students receive the most points for spring/summer birthdays. This program is not intended for students with developmental delays, but is geared towards giving our younger students additional time for social, emotional, and academic growth.

Traditional Kindergarten: We also offer a traditional one-year Kindergarten program.
