Nearly Six-Hour Standoff Ends Peacefully in Beaverhead County

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

On May 16, 2025, at approximately 5:59 PM, the Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office Dispatch Center received a 911 call reporting a mental health crisis involving an adult male.

The caller stated that the individual had made threats to harm others and himself. He reportedly threatened two people with a fire poker before retrieving a firearm as they left the residence for safety. After they departed, the man obtained additional firearms, barricaded himself inside a room, and cut phone lines, cutting off communication with law enforcement.

It was later revealed that the male had training in long-distance shooting and owned rifles capable of such use. Responding agencies included the Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office, Dillon Police Department, Montana Highway Patrol, Forest Service Law Enforcement, BLM Law Enforcement, and Fish and Game. The area was secured, neighboring residences evacuated, and an ambulance was on standby. Law enforcement utilized drones to maintain visual contact with the male through open windows.

Butte-Silver Bow County SWAT was called in and arrived quickly, deploying their armored vehicle to approach the residence. Using a loudspeaker, SWAT issued commands for the male to exit with his hands raised. He complied and was safely taken into custody before being transported to an emergency room for mental health treatment.

Upon clearing the residence, authorities discovered the male had access to four firearms, three of which were loaded and ready for use. The entire standoff lasted nearly six hours and concluded peacefully without injury to anyone involved.

The Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office extends its gratitude to all participating agencies and community members. Their cooperation was vital in ensuring a peaceful resolution and the safety of the community.

The Sheriff's Office emphasizes that mental health challenges are a serious issue, and anyone in need of help is encouraged to reach out to law enforcement or mental health professionals for support.

UMW Fine Arts Departments Hosts Summer Theatre Workshops and Film Acting Intensive

The University of Montana Western's Fine Arts Department is excited to offer two engaging summer programs for performers of all ages and experience levels, including a week of hands-on theatre workshops from July 21-25 and a new Film Acting Intensive from August 1-8.

Summer Theatre Workshops: July 21-25, 2025

Join us this summer for a fun, hands-on week of theater workshops filled with games, activities, and training for performers of all ages and experience levels.

Younger students will build confidence, ignite their imagination, and explore creative dramatics.

Older students will focus on character development, movement, diction, and memorization.

Adult participants will explore advanced acting techniques including emotional preparation, physicality, and instinctive response.

Whether you're new to the stage or a seasoned performer, these workshops offer a supportive and enriching space to grow as an artist.

For more information and to register, visit <https://www.umwestern.edu/bank-of-commerce-performing-arts-series/get-involved/>.

Summer Film Acting Intensive: August 1-8, 2025

Unlock the secrets of film acting in this immersive eight-day intensive at the University of Montana Western. Led by Scott Trost and Stephen Alan Seder, this series of experiential workshops takes you deep into the heart of the Meisner Technique while focusing on the art of filmmaking.

Participants will learn how to prepare for a film shoot and how to adjust to focal lengths, camera angles, and movement. The intensive culminates in rigorous scene work that is captured on film and analyzed in a critical response session where students discover how editing and stylistic choices can elevate their performance. Don't miss this chance to sharpen your skills and bring your on-screen presence to life.

For more information and to register, visit <https://www.umwestern.edu/summer-film-acting-intensive/>.

For additional details about UMW's summer theatre programs, please contact Assistant Professor of Theatre, Stephen Seder at stephen.seder@umwestern.edu or 406-683-7038.

Attorney General Knudsen announces 2025 Law Enforcement Appreciation Poster Contest winner

Attorney General Austin Knudsen announced Jordyn Muggli, of Miles City, as the winner of the fourth annual Law Enforcement Appreciation Poster Contest, during National Police Week. Jordyn is a fifth-grade student at Lincoln Grade School in Miles City.

In her artist statement Jordyn said she made the poster because, "we know that the highway patrol and police are always there to protect us [no] matter what :)." "Montana is a state that 'Backs the Blue' and this contest is a great way to instill that mentality in children at a young age," Attorney General Knudsen said. "I know that law enforcement officers appreciate the support they receive from the community, especially from Montana's youngest citizens. Thanks to everyone who participated in the contest, and I can't wait to visit Miles City and celebrate with this year's winner."

Jordyn's Poster was picked from more than 175 submissions representing 35 classrooms in Montana. Attorney General Knudsen and Montana Highway Patrol Colonel Kurt Sager will celebrate with Jordyn and her class later this month. Jordyn's class will also receive $750 courtesy of Stockman Bank. The winning poster will be displayed in Montana Department of Justice offices across the state and made available to law enforcement offices statewide. In addition to the statewide winner, six other regional winners were chosen who will receive $250 from Stockman Bank and an ice cream social delivered by local troopers.

The six regional winners were:

- District One: Harley Hausmann, of Corvallis
- District Two: Gabriel Oliver, of Great Falls
- District Three: Jaxson Richards, of Helena
- District Four: Jennessa Cantrell, of Billings
- District Six: Briggs Bollweg, of Whitefish
- District Seven: Lila Clawson, of Belgrade

Attorney General Knudsen announced the poster contest in February, encouraging elementary school students to show their appreciation for Montana's law enforcement officers who risk their lives every day to keep communities safe.
