Stick Horse Stampede Takes Over Jaycee Park

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

Jaycee Park has quickly become Dillon's gathering place throughout summer, hosting family-friendly events with the splash pad drawing visitors from all over. Throughout July, live music, great food, and community events have created a lively atmosphere, offering everyone a chance to relax and enjoy the summer.

This past Friday, Jaycee Park hosted the first annual Stick Horse Stampede, a fun-filled rodeo event for kids and families.

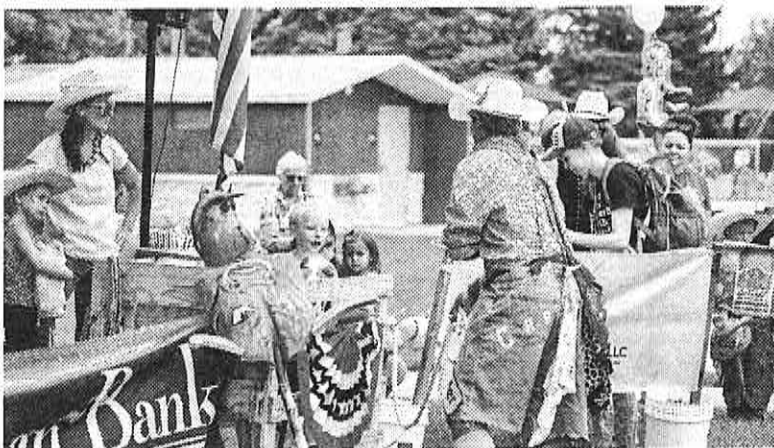

The day kicked off at 3 p.m. with cowboy stories read aloud to children by Dillon's own Debbie Sporich. After storytime, participants tested their appetites in the pie-eating contest, racing against the clock to devour as much of a pie as possible in two minutes.

The main event, the Stick Horse Stampede, then got underway. Contestants trotted their stick horses around the arena, showing off their trusty steeds. After a prayer and the national anthem, competitors entered the chute to showcase their bucking skills, followed by barrel racing and rescue races.

Miss Dillon Jaycees Rodeo Queen Sophia Wyatt also participated, assisting with the rodeo queen competition and the 50/50 raffle.

The event drew a wide range of participants, including a young contestant from Australia—highlighting how the event brought the community together.

The Stick Horse Stampede was made possible through generous sponsorship from the Tweedy Mountain Fun Club, the Early Childhood Coalition of Beaverhead County, Sky Jones, and many other community supporters who dedicated their time and money to bring this event to life in Dillon.

No Kings Protest Held At Kiwanis Park

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

Approximately 180 people gathered Saturday afternoon at Kiwanis Park for a nationwide protest dubbed "No Kings." The demonstration coincided with the Army's 250th anniversary and took place on Flag Day.

Many protesters expressed the view that the military parade held earlier that day was intended to honor President Trump, and the event has received disapproval from members of both political parties. A small group of counter-protesters also arrived to show support for recent government actions, including the deportation of illegal immigrants.

Law enforcement officers were on hand to ensure the demonstration remained peaceful. Instead of immediate confrontations, police focused on education and communication, advising those who wished to further express their opinions to do so respectfully. Officers also maintained order by keeping protesters out of traffic and ensuring passing vehicles obeyed all traffic laws.

Dillon Cubs Split Series with the Bandits:
Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News
Game 1
 The Dillon Cubs faced a tough challenge Sunday, falling to the American Legion Post 30 Bandits 20-0 in a game marked by strong offense and solid pitching from the visitors. The Bandits opened the scoring in the top of the first inning when Brayton VanDyken singled, driving in the first run. They quickly extended their lead in the second inning with two more runs thanks to RBI walks by Chance Stephens and Cade Thomas. The offensive onslaught continued in the third inning, with the Bandits scoring five runs on three hits. Highlights included Chance Stephens driving in two runs with a single, Cade Thomas tripling to score one, and Brayton VanDyken adding another RBI single. In the fourth inning, the Bandits scored seven runs on five hits, including a home run by VanDyken that cleared the left field fence and scored three RBIs. Sawyer Olson, Chance Stephens, and Cade Thomas also contributed multiple hits during this rally, and local pitcher Will Hansen struggled with control, surrendering three hits and four runs over two innings. The Bandits kept their offensive momentum in the fifth inning, scoring five runs on three hits. Key moments included a fielder's choice that scored one run, a hit-by-pitch that drove in another, and several RBIs from Mason Zimmer and Fay Wells-Minthorn. Josh Arrants started for the Bandits, allowing just one hit and no runs over five innings, striking out two and walking two. Will Hansen opened for Dillon, giving up three hits and four runs in two innings. Trenton Moreni led the Cubs offensively with a 1-for-2 day at the plate. The Bandits amassed a total of 14 hits, with Brayton VanDyken leading the way with five RBIs on a 3-for-3 performance. Olson, Stephens, and Thomas each collected multiple hits as well. The team displayed excellent patience at the plate, drawing nine walks in the game.

Game 2
 The Dillon Cubs 2025 secured a close victory over the American Legion Post 30 Bandits, winning 6-4 on Sunday. The Bandits got on the board first in the top of the first inning when Brayton VanDyken singled to score a run. However, the Cubs answered back in the bottom of the first, taking the lead at 4-1. This rally included a single from Jase Alvarez, followed by hits from Ben Peacock and Will Hansen, as well as a hit-by-pitch from Tristan Alvarez, each driving in a run. The Cubs added another run in the second inning when Kanin Engelhardt singled to center field.
