Notice of Passing Mary Clark

Obituary to follow.

Sara Dunham

Sara Nell Hyatt, was born in 1933 in Madrid, Alabama, to Eldridge Lewis Hyatt and Amanda Hinson, and she passed away June 27, 2025, in Dillon, Montana.

Sara grew up in the Dothan, Alabama area, moving to Colorado at age 19. She met the love of her life, Harry Sherman Dunham, and they eloped and were married in November 1953, in New Mexico. They lived in Denver, Colorado when their twin daughters, Jean and Janet, were born, and after moving to Golden, Colorado, their daughter, Susan, was born 5 years later.

Harry and Sara lived in Golden for 29 years and during this time, they built a cabin in the mountains near Granby, Colorado that was enjoyed by family and friends. Sara was an avid fisherwoman, always up for the challenge of who could catch the biggest fish during the family's numerous camping trips. Sara became an avid football fan and Harry's hunting partner for many years. She enjoyed quilting, knitting, and crocheting, making many beautiful afghans, quilts, and her famous "scrubbies"

In 1984, Harry and Sara moved to Sheridan, Montana, to begin their retirement. Their life in Montana was busy, enjoying camping, ice fishing, hunting, and square dancing, and they soon started heading to Arizona for warmer winters. Harry and Sara enjoyed exploring new country not only in Montana, but in all the states they visited. Their greatest joy, however, was spending time with family and their numerous friends.

Sara was preceded in death by her parents; husband Harry; sisters Jeanette, Bennie Frank, and Mandy Louise; brothers James and Dixon; and great-grandsons Paden and Coleman.

She is survived by daughters Jean Orr, Janet (Johnny) Thompson, Susan (Dennis) Nelson; grandchildren Candace (Mike) Smith, Kaycee (Charlie) Gilman, and Brynn (Josh) Illig; and step-grandchildren Rich and Rob Thompson; and great-grandchildren Evan, Ella, Emmett, and Everett Smith; Molly, Quinn, and Max Gilman; and Maddy and Leddy Illig. The Dunham family extends their heartfelt thanks to BeeHive Homes for their loving care of Sara for the last two years, as well as to Honeybee Hospice, both in Dillon, Montana.

A celebration of life is planned for Sara's lifelong friends and family later this summer. All who knew Sara are welcome to attend.

Dillon Police Department Explosive Ordinance

On June 30, 2025, at approximately 11:24 AM, the Dillon Police Department was notified of possible explosives discovered during the cleanup of a local shop. It was initially unclear whether the items were live ordnance. The Dillon Police secured the devices in a safe location and notified Tom Wagenknecht with Beaverhead County Disaster and Emergency Services (DES).

We were promptly connected with the Montana State DES Coordinator, who facilitated contact with the Explosive Ordinance Disposal (EOD) team from Malmstrom Air Force Base, in accordance with the State Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) for emergency services.

The EOD team responded to Dillon and, with the support of the Dillon Volunteer Fire Department, Beaverhead EMS, Dillon Police Department, and the Beaverhead County DES Coordinator, safely detonated the devices as a precaution.

Public Safety Notice:

If you encounter any suspected explosives—such as dynamite, blasting caps, grenades, or other explosive ordnance—do not touch or transport them. Leave them where they are and immediately contact your local law enforcement agency for assistance.

Remember the three safety steps:

1. Recognize – Identify that the object may be hazardous.
2. Retreat – Move to a safe distance.
3. Report – Contact local authorities immediately.

There is no current threat to the Dillon community or its residents.

Thank you,

Jeremy Alvarez

Chief of Police, Dillon Police Department

Post 56 Knights Legion AA Edges Out Dillon Cubs, 7-6

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

The Dillon Cubs fought hard but fell 7-6 to the Post 56 Knights Legion AA on Thursday in a game marked by offensive battles and key pitching performances.

Post 56 Knights Legion AA opened the scoring in the third inning when Mason Reichelt doubled to center field, driving in one run. Dillon responded in the bottom of the third, taking the lead with Jase Alvarez singling to score two runs, and Marcus Lagunas grounded out to bring in another, making it 3-1.

In the top of the fourth, the Knights took the lead back after Reichelt and Oaklen Lawrence each hit singles, contributing to a 5-3 advantage. However, Dillon tied the game in the bottom of the inning when Andrew Bartlome doubled on a full count, bringing in two runs, and Lagunas's sacrifice fly scored another.

The game stayed tight until the top of the fifth, when an error allowed Post 56 to retake the lead at 6-5. Dillon responded quickly in the bottom of the fifth as Jase
