Thomas Robert Scott

September 21, 1950 ~ July 03, 2025

We bid farewell to Thomas Robert Scott, who departed peacefully from this world on Thursday, July 3rd at the age of 74 surrounded by his loving family.

Tom was born on September 21, 1950, in Dillon to Thomas "Bud" Robert Scott and Faye Burrell Scott. The Scott family lived in Dillon and Anaconda before settling in Deer

Lodge where Tom and his two brothers and one sister attended high school. After graduation, Tom entered the Marines and proudly served his country for four years, stationed mostly on the Japanese island of Okinawa.

Upon his exit from the armed forces, Tom attended college and then law school at University of Montana in Missoula, where he met the love of his life, Mardel Mehmke. Tom and Mardel were married in April 1981, after which they returned to Dillon to set up their life together. Tom and Mardel swiftly became integral parts of their community, volunteering and joining clubs such as the American Legion, Dillon Jaycees, Masons, Shriners, and United Way. Tom first worked for the law offices of W.G. Gilbert Jr. and W. G. Gilbert III before serving as the Beaverhead County Attorney for over a decade and then eventually opening his own private practice. Their daughters Kathleen joined the family in 1987, followed by Sarah in 1991.

Tom was passionate about animals, taking his beloved dog Flo everywhere he went. Tom spent most of his spare time fly fishing, ice fishing, restoring antique cars, baking cookies and pies, and reading (sometimes as many as three books a week!)

Tom was preceded in death by his infant brother Daniel, his sister Lisa, and his parents Bud and Faye. Tom is survived by his wife Mardel Scott; his two daughters and two sons-in-law Sarah Podsiadlo (Daniel) and Kathleen Scott (Josh Wood); two brothers and one sister-in-law Michael Scott (Joyce) and Patrick Scott; nieces and nephews Travis Scott (Carrie), Shyra Scott (Ben Super), Heather Scott, and Suzie Roberts; and great nieces and nephews Cora Scott, Kellan Super, Dakota Farrar, Logan Schied, Phillip Schied, Evan Tayntor, Stevie Tayntor, and Addie Ring.

Tom's family will be holding a Celebration of Life at Brundage Chapel on Friday, July 11 at 11 a.m., followed by a lunch reception at the Lewis and Clark Room at UM Western at 12 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Dillon Jaycees, a community club that was dear to Tom's heart: Dillon Jaycees PO Box 334 (406)925-9420.

Exploring Montana's mining heritage:

Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen expressed her gratitude to officials and workers with the Stillwater Mine following a recent tour of the facilities in Stillwater County.

Secretary Jacobsen was given an extensive tour of the facility, gaining valuable insights into the underground mining operation near the Beartooth Mountains. Workers touted the mine's production of palladium and platinum and described the materials' vital impact on several industries.

Secretary Jacobsen visited with workers and learned about the day-to-day operations of the mine. The Secretary was also taken underground into the mine, where she had the opportunity to witness the impressive new equipment in action firsthand.

"Montana has a rich heritage of mining and natural resource development," Secretary Jacobsen said. "We must continue to support these industries, especially the workers and their families, as we make America energy dominant and independent."

"Thank you to the dedicated and hardworking team at the Stillwater Mine for the warm hospitality during my visit," Secretary Jacobsen added. "It was great to see a commitment to safety and responsibility, and your work remains vital for our economy and our communities."

Attorney General Knudsen leads coalition to protect parents' rights

Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen led a 23-state coalition in support of a parent who was stripped of his longstanding fundamental right to direct his daughter's upbringing when school officials in Delaware withheld information on his child's gender identity decision from him.

The amicus brief was filed Monday in the case of Heaps v. Delaware Valley Regional High School Board of Education, in support of Christian Heaps, a father who filed a lawsuit to overturn a school board policy that allows school officials to withhold a child's gender identity from their parents. The brief asks the Third Circuit Court of Appeals to reverse the U.S. District Court's decision and allow parents – not school boards – to direct the upbringing of their children.

"The district's policy upends centuries of natural and constitutional law. The policy gives ultimate decision-making authority to children and displaces parents of their longstanding, primary role in ensuring their child's safety and well-being," Attorney General Knudsen wrote in the brief. "In doing so, the district grants itself control over managing the child's gender confusion or dysphoria – a role it has neither the qualifications, rights, nor emotional interest in serving."

Heaps' daughter is diagnosed with Attention-Deficit/Hyperactivity disorder, high-functioning autism, and anxiety. She also saw a therapist to address her gender confusion. Heaps and her doctors put together a carefully tailored healthcare plan to address her "underlying trauma and psychiatric comorbidities." However, the school secretly promoted his daughters "social transitioning," as allowed by school board policy, actively undermining Heaps efforts at home to help her heal.

In the brief, Knudsen notes that the district court's decision violates parental rights protected by the due process clause. Time and time again, the U.S. Supreme Court has grounded the common-law right of parents to direct the care and custody of their minor children in the "liberty" protected the Fourteenth Amendment.

The law makes a correct and basic assumption about children; they do not have the capability to make life's complicated decisions like adults do and that is why they can't vote or enlist in the military without their parents' approval. Additionally, no medical organization recommends subjecting children to social transition without the knowledge of their parents because of the severe and often irreversible effects of such transition.

"The right of parents to direct the care and custody of their children is perhaps the oldest of the fundamental liberty interests recognized by the Supreme Court. But the right preexists the constitution itself and is an intrinsic human right," the brief states.

BLM announces September 2025 sale of oil and gas leases in Montana and North Dakota

The Bureau of Land Management Montana-Dakotas State Office announced an oil and gas lease sale scheduled for Sep. 10, 2025, to offer 26 oil and gas parcels totaling 8,355 acres in Montana and North Dakota.

The BLM completed scoping on these parcels in March 2025 and held a public comment period that closed in April 2025 on the parcels and the related environmental analysis. A 30-day public protest period to receive additional public input opened today and will close Aug. 8, 2025.

Leasing is the first step in the process to develop federal oil and gas resources. Before development operations can begin, an operator must submit an application for permit to drill detailing development plans.

All parcels that are included in a federal oil and gas lease sale include appropriate stipulations to protect important natural resources. Information on current and upcoming BLM leases is available through the National Fluid Lease Sale System. BLM lease sales are held online through EnergyNet.

The parcels BLM analyzed, as well as maps and instructions on how to submit a protest, are available on BLM's ePlanning website.

Grief & Loss: Navigating Life's Transitions

Reserve your spot for our 6-week series
Tuesday Nights July 29th - September 2nd
7:00 - 8:30 pm

A 6-week journey to honor grief, nurture resilience, and rediscover meaning through art, movement, and mindful connection.

Offered through Vibrant Lives of Montana, this six-week series invites you into a compassionate and creative space to process grief in its many forms—whether from death, separation, change, or the quiet losses that shape the human experience. Rooted in VLM's mission to foster vitality, healing, and conscious community, this group supports participants in moving through grief with intention, tenderness, and embodied presence.

Each week we will explore a core theme through:

- Gentle somatic practices
- Guided mindfulness
- Creative expression through art
- Reflective journaling and community sharing

Together, we weave a tapestry of remembrance, release, and renewal—guided by the principles of emotional integrity, sacred connection, and holistic well-being. This is not a space to "fix" grief, but to be in relationship with it—learning to carry it with grace, compassion, and authenticity.

Whether you are grieving a loved one, an identity, a dream, or a season of life, you are welcome here.

For more information, contact Elaine at (406) 925-3961 or at elaine@vibrantlivesmt.com or visit our website at www.vibrantlivesmt.com

Veteran's Corner Update #316
 By Mike Lawson

Veteran News Updates:

- Our Marine Corps League Detachment #724, here in Butte, has it's own building located across Garden Avenue from McGruff Park. The City of Butte allows Campers/RVs to camp there for the Folk Festival. For a number of years our Detachment has served breakfast for these campers, as a fund raiser. It has become very popular and we get requests to put it on, year after year. It's a fun event to visit people from different parts of Montana and from out of state. We also get local folks who come by to eat. Veterans in action!!
- This Independence Day brought to mind the price our Veterans have paid to keep our country independent and free. From the beginning of our country to now our Veterans have stood and fought in the trenches and other places to keep us free. Many gave their all in losing their lives and many of us were wounded both physically and mentally. Would we do it again, is often asked and the answer is an absolute yes. Our freedom for all of us is worth it. I heard a response from a fellow veteran, the other day, that really struck home. We often get thanked for serving and our response is often a "thank-you". His suggested response is "you're worth it". I agree.
- A positive note for Veterans who receive Veteran Benefits and Services. VA officials confirmed, in spite of the Federal Funding cuts, that veterans and support will continue without interruption. There were 44 VA financial assistance programs marked for review and they have been approved as compliant. The Acting VA Secretary Todd Hunter said the freeze would not affect VA healthcare, benefits or those who receive them. A big sigh of relief for any of us in the VA Health Care System.

It's time to bring this column to a close. There are a lot of causes out there that need volunteers to help people. Consider giving a bit of yourself and experience the joy knowing you made a difference. May these summer days be fun and eventful for each of you.

Bitterroot Bucs Hand Dillon Cubs a 14-3 Loss

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

The Dillon Cubs struggled to keep pace with the Bitterroot Bucs on Tuesday, falling 14-3 at Ray Lynch Memorial Park.

The Bucs jumped ahead early, scoring in the first inning after Caleb Katen hit a sacrifice fly, bringing in two runs, and Joey Wheeler doubled, scoring one. They continued their offensive attack in the third inning, with Chase Wagner singling and both Katen and Wheeler doubling to drive in runs, making it 5-0.

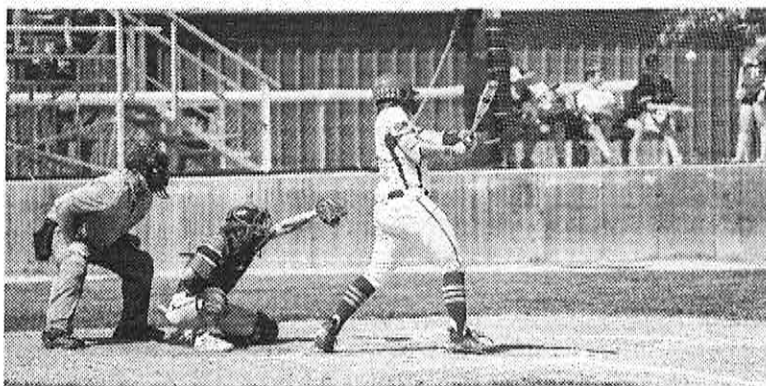

The highlights came in the fifth inning when the Bucs scored seven runs on just two hits. Key plays included a throwing error that scored a run, a double by Drew Wagner that scored two, another error allowing a run, a triple from Katen driving in two, and a sacrifice fly from Wheeler adding another.

Alden Crawford earned the win for Bitterroot, allowing zero runs on three hits over three innings, striking out four. Marcus Lagunas was the losing pitcher for Dillon, allowing six runs—five earned—in two innings on five hits, with one strikeout and one walk.

For the Cubs, Trenton Moreni led the team offensively, going 2-for-2 at the plate. Kanin Engelhardt and Jase Alvarez each drove in one run.

Caleb Katen led the Bucs with four RBIs and went 2-for-2, while Drew Wagner, Katen, and Joey Wheeler each contributed two hits. The Bucs demonstrated strong offensive discipline, with minimal errors and consistent execution.

The Dillon Cubs will next travel to face the Butte Miners on Thursday, hoping to bounce back from this setback.
