In Loving Memory of Adrian Lynn Rawson

November 10, 1961 – May 28, 2025

Our beloved Father, Brother, and Friend Adrian Lynn Rawson of Dillon, Montana, sadly left our world unexpectedly on May 28th, 2025.
Born in Burns, Oregon, at nearly 110 mph on November 10th, 1961,
to Dorothy May Rawson (Simpson)
and Joseph Leo Rawson.

He will be terribly missed by all who were lucky enough to know and love him, especially his children,

Kyle Rawson and Sarah Rawson. His children touched his heart and soul more deeply than words can ever express. He was also a devoted brother, sharing a fierce and unshakable bond with his older brother, Gayle Rawson. They were in contact daily, and they were best friends. His sister Grayce Rawson would lovingly make him breakfast every workday, whether he needed it or not. His youngest sister, Karla Rawson, always held a very special place in his heart. Adrian is predeceased by and now reunites with both Karla and their beloved mother, Dorothy. His father, Leo, is and forever will be his hero. He loved all of his family. He shared his days with his loyal red heeler, Reba, who was his little companion.
He made unforgettable memories with one of his best friends, Blaine Torgerson. He held very special relationships with Lorri Fitzwater Tappero and Deb Hursh, among others. He loved his close friends and treated them like family.

Adrian is described by many as the strong, silent type,
but a thoughtful listener who brought comfort and strength to those around him. He is the kind of man who would pull anyone out of a snowbank, bring them firewood, and offer the shirt off his back, never wanting anything in return. Those who were lucky enough to truly know him loved and respected him, holding him in the highest regard. A gifted concrete pump mechanic, Adrian was widely respected in his industry and known for his unmatched work ethic – a legacy inherited from his parents, whom he always looked up to. He moved back to his childhood stomping grounds – Dillon, Montana in 2014, where he worked at LS Ready Mix. They were lucky to have him, and he enjoyed his team there.

He loved the great outdoors: ice fishing, camping, hiking into alpine lakes, off-roading in his Jeep, snowmobiling, and hunting (especially duck hunting with his brother and their single-action shotguns). But most of all, He loved being a Dad and proudly raising his kids with their mother, Sherri Pence Milbank. He would take any opportunity to spend quality time with his son Kyle, whether it was teaching him how to fix a mechanical issue, instilling values, enjoying the great outdoors hunting and fishing, giving advice, or sitting to watch a western movie. He always cherished his bond with his little girl, Sarah, who showed him how precious life could be. He taught her how to be strong, along with other valuable lessons she will never forget.

He loved a good steak and a campfire with friends and family. The Fourth of July was his favorite holiday – he enjoyed putting on a huge fireworks display for anyone who wanted to watch. He never missed a chance to passionately defend John Wayne or cheer on his Minnesota Vikings, always holding out hope for that long-awaited Super Bowl win. He loved to watch people smile, laugh, and enjoy good food. He gave generously to causes that supported children, quietly helping where he could. His life was built on loyalty, quiet kindness, and doing right by others — values that will remain a guiding light for those he leaves behind.

Adrian will be missed more than we can express. Per his wishes, no formal services will be held. His family will quietly say their goodbyes until we all see each other again in faith.

We are deeply grateful for the outpouring of love, support, and prayers.

We love you, Adie. Forever and always.

The family would like to ask that instead of sending flowers to the family, that if people want to do anything, they just donate to any organization that helps children in his name?

Jennie Elida Kamps

Celebration of Life in honor of Jennie Elida Kamps will be July 17th at 2:00 pm at Clark Canyon Hap Hawkins Campground.

We would love for you to join us and share your favorite stories and memories of Jennie.

Montana Western Announces 2025-26 Bank of Commerce Performing Arts Series

The Fine Arts Department of the University of Montana Western is pleased to announce the 2025-26 Performing Arts Series, sponsored by the Bank of Commerce. This year's season features a dynamic Mainstage lineup beginning November 4 and a Youth Season starting September 27.

The Bank of Commerce Performing Arts Series brings bold, inspiring, and entertaining theater to the University of Montana Western and the Dillon community. With a mission rooted in creativity and connection, the series offers students and young people a professional stage to express themselves, explore the power of live performance, and spark joy through storytelling. We invite you to be part of the experience. Join us for a season of unforgettable performances. Thank you for supporting the vibrant spirit of local theater.

New hoot-owl restrictions go into effect on some rivers in southwest, central Montana Hoot-owl restrictions took effect Thursday at 2 p.m. on sections of the Ruby, Jefferson, Big Hole, Beaverhead and Smith rivers. Hoot-owl restrictions prohibit fishing from 2 p.m. to midnight each day. These restrictions will stay in effect until conditions improve.
These new restrictions are as follows:
 Ruby River – lower stretch, from the confluence with the Beaverhead River to Duncan District Road
 Jefferson River – entire river, from the confluence of the Big Hole and Beaverhead rivers to the Missouri River Big Hole River –
 • from Saginaw Bridge on Skinner Meadows Road to the confluence with the North Fork of the Big Hole River (Section 1)
 • from Tony Schoonen FAS to the confluence with the Beaverhead River (Section 5)
 Beaverhead River – lower stretch, from Highway 41 near East Bench Road and Beaverhead Rock to its confluence with the Big Hole River
 Smith River – from the confluence of the North and South forks of the Smith River to Eden Bridge Beaverhead River Cowboy Church will have their annual Rodeo Bible Camp in Jaycee Park on July 21st between the hours of 1pm and 4pm. Kiddos of all ages are welcome. Trail To Christ will be coming to provide the outdoor activities which includes: a small mechanical bull, bouncy ball ponies, crafts, and of course scriptural teachings.

The theme is "Better Together", based on 1 Thessalonians 5:11. Don't miss this fun-filled opportunity! Last year was a real treasure and we look forward to offering this event for our community once again. Blessings to you all!

Join us for an evening inspired by the breathtaking beauty of Montana — a celebration of community, connection, and the landscapes that bring us together.
