LETTER TO THE EDITOR

To Whom It May Concern,

It is sad the voters of Beaverhead County and City of Dillon voters aren't allowed to choose their own candidates! The McGinley gestopho and Mr. Wendland choose the mayor, the County Commissioners have all been appointed also by Mike McGinley then of course re-elected due to name recognition! The school elections are also at an odd time of year,candidates hand picked by the school board President to keep control. Then a few registered reporters get a mail ballot. It's almost like the elections here are run by the Obama's and Clinton's. It's time someone from the outside of Beaverhead County look at City-County corruption, or anyone else.

Can someone please explain why the Wendlend's think the City of Dillon should pay for their subdivision streets? Did the City pay for the streets behind Safeway in that new subdivision? Or the parking lot at Town and Country,etc, just wondering. Of course the city voters can vote for County Commissioners, but the County cannot vote for City Council, even tho we shop in town.

Secretary Christi Jacobsen announces historic month for new business registration in Montana

Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen announced that a record number of new business registrations were filed in July 2025. According to the Montana Business Economic Report, nearly 7,000 filings occurred last month, topping the previous monthly best of roughly 6,700 in April.

Nearly 45,000 new business registrations have been filed to date in 2025.

"Montana is open for business," said Secretary Jacobsen. "The record number of new businesses registering in July is more than a statistic; each represents the flourishing entrepreneurial spirit in Montana. Every new business registration is an exciting first step in a journey that can positively impact the communities across Montana."

Under Secretary Jacobsen's leadership, Montana has experienced record new business growth in each of the past four years. In 2024, nearly 64,000 registrations were filed with the Secretary of State's Office.

"As your Secretary of State, I work daily to make Montana the most business-friendly state in the nation. That's why I have cut and eliminated fees, saving Montana businesses millions of dollars and leading to record numbers of new businesses," said Secretary Jacobsen. "We're proud to support the Montana business community and facilitate a Montana where we celebrate business innovation.

"Thank you for doing business in Montana!"

JURY DUTY

By "Swede" Troedsson

Recently I received a notice that I had been selected as a candidate for jury duty.

I immediately presented myself and the notice to the Clerk of Court. I explained that this fall I would turn 92. I am hard of hearing, and most likely I would fall asleep in the Jury Box. Also, I was on a two-hour pee schedule!

(The Court might have to keep checking the obituaries to find out if I could live out my term.)

I filled out a form which permanently excluded me from jury duty. Age has its privileges!

School Supply Drive 2025

The 28th Annual KDBM-AM & KBEV-FM School Supply Drive is underway. We partner with Womack's Printing Place to get the supplies that are needed for the classroom.

Last year, we gave supplies for more than 1,000 students in Dillon, Twin Bridges, Sheridan, Lima, and six rural schools.

If you wish to donate, please make checks payable to "The School Supply Drive" or consider donating school supplies.

Checks may be delivered to either the Radio Station, 610 N. Montana Street or Womack's Printing Place, 126 N. Montana St. For information call the Radio Station at 406-683-2800

Fifteenth Annual Cemetery Walk

The fifteenth annual Cemetery Walk presented by the Beaver Head Hunters Genealogical Society will be Saturday, August 9th at 2:00 pm. This year the theme is restaurateurs. Come learn about four members of the community who used to have eating establishments: Fern Wheeler, Ned C. "Skeets" Murray, Luanna Lyons, and Harriet Estes. Whether you ate at their place or not, you will be "fed" with information! The presenters this year will be Darlene Hildreth, Ruth Little, Bette Hull, and Michele Stephen-Hassard.

You are encouraged to bring a chair, water, and shade of some sort (umbrella, hat, etc.). Watch for the little red flags to show you where to start. See you there!

Soroptimist Football Books

The Soroptimist of Dillon have their annual football books for sale again this year. The books are for Sunday, Monday or Thursday nights. The cost of the books are $10 donation and you have a chance to win $25 for each game listed those nights. You don't have to watch or even know football to win! The winner is determined by the final score of each game and will contact the winner each week. Books are available at Womack's Printing, 126 N. Montana Street.

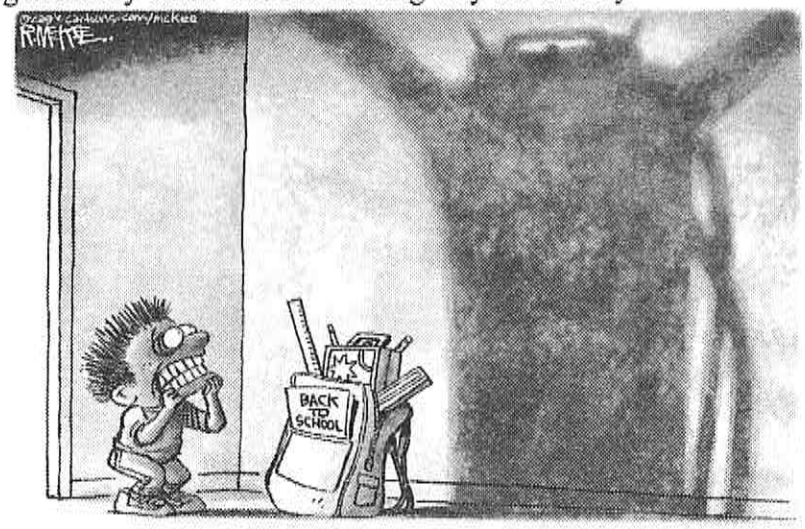
Promise not to blink this school year?

Tyrades! by Danny Tyree

Pay no attention to the seemingly frozen clock in sixth-period trigonometry class. Time is moving way too swiftly.



My son graduated from high school four years ago, and I have yet to sit down and fully appreciate the work he put into the yearbook. (Cut me some slack. The turkey picture that Gideon had traced around his hand mumble mumble years earlier called "Dibs!" on my spare time, after all.)

In light of such regrets,I call upon students, teachers, staff members, bus drivers, parents and grandparents to savor every fleeting moment of the 2025-2026 school year.

(Well, not the fleeting moment of the Dodgeball Ambush of the Century, you masochistic freaks. Or the time that Mikey became so enamored of "dead poets" that he decided to MAKE some more. The other moments.)

Trust me: in the blink of an eye, young scholars will transition from "What I Did On My Summer Vacation" essays to mid-term exams and on to caps and gowns and "always stay cool (especially when I bump into you in five years and can't remember your name)."

Romances, cliques, alliances and petty rivalries come and go; students should seize the chance to make new life-long friends, especially among the unpopular outcasts. That's good practice for the school fundraiser, powered by the catalog of Crap Nobody In Their Right Mind Would Ever Purchase Without Being Guilted Into It.

("Thank you for ordering two steam-powered shoehorns, Mr. Green. Coincidentally, I learned that your ancestors gave quite a lot of orders to my ancestors, if you know what I mean. Oh, five more steam-powered shoehorns? Thank you!")

Wallow in the time-honored civic-pride traditions of the homecoming game, by promising to smash, whip, pulverize, destroy, annihilate the team from Springfield. This, of course, is good preparation for when you eventually take a job in Springfield and have to tell everyone, "Have a nice day."

Make the most of the winter "holiday party," where the air is filled with festive remarks such as "No, your mother can't help decorate because she's a manager, and that sounds too much like 'manger,' you little religious bigot."

Educators, grin and bear it when slackers whine, "When will we ever use this information in the real world?" ("Oh, wait — dissecting frogs, dissecting congressional districts. Never mind.")

Family members should take it in stride when whippersnappers getting ready for "dress-up days" are disappointed not to find powdered wigs and knee breeches along with the platform shoes, bell bottoms and disco ball in the back of the closet.

Kids, keep on smiling through the sentence diagrams, footnote citations and pop quizzes. Someday you'll laugh about it (especially if you land a sweet job selling "mystery meat" contracts).

Students, never forget abruptly-departed geometry teacher Mrs. Veeblefester. Maybe she couldn't pound words like "hypotenuse" or "isosceles" into your noggins, but even the slow students learned the word "statutory."

Parents, don't balk at chaperoning a field trip (unless it's a lame-o tour of the Museum of Lost/Wadded/Snot-soaked Permission Slips). If worse comes to worst, maybe you can volunteer for the autumn festival dunking machine and fill it with poison ivy lotion.

I hope these words have inspired y'all to make the most of the coming year. I'm inspired to dig into the turkey drawing and the yearbook and…

Hey! Who made all these oddly spaced pencil marks on the door frame???

This annual fundraiser benefits the Lima Community Swimming Pool. We found ourselves in need of a new propane fired heater, and a new solar cover to keep the pool warm for the 2025 swim season. The pool is funded by love, fun and donations! Please mark your calendars and help us keep this 66 year old sparkling tribute to the founders of our community pool alive. It was no small feat in 1958-1959 to make it happen. Lima had the first outdoor heated swimming pool in Beaverhead County, it was state of the art in 1959 and a triumph for everyone involved. We are so thankful to the folks who worked hard to make our pool a reality and to the folks since who work so hard to keep it operational now. Without everyone's generosity we could not keep the pool open for our community to share and enjoy!

If you would like to donate a Live or Silent Auction Item please contact Jackie Sutton 406.925.2221. We will have a separate table to highlight all Local Businesses, and Artists, and are excited to welcome YUMMY home baked goods to the silent auction table!
