Secretary Christi Jacobsen: 'Land Board votes yield nearly $1.6 million for Montana'

Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen cast votes during Monday's Land Board meeting that will generate estimated revenue of nearly $1.6 million for Montana's trust beneficiaries. Roughly $1.5 million would benefit Montana Tech.

"Montana's state trust lands continue to be a significant asset to our state, and I'm proud to use my votes to generate substantial revenue for our schools," said Secretary Jacobsen. "It's important that we continue to manage state trust lands responsibly, while benefiting our schools and other state trust beneficiaries."

Secretary Jacobsen and her Montana Land Board colleagues approved several items, including the town of Jordan's request for an easement to expand its wastewater treatment facility.

So far this year, Secretary Jacobsen's votes have advocated for Montana recreationists and the snowmobile community, supported the logging and oil and gas industries, and generated millions of dollars for Montana schools and universities.

Bulldog Football Tops West Division in 2025
Frontier Conference Preseason Coaches' Poll

Montana Western Football earned the top spot in the 2025 Frontier Conference Preseason Coaches' Poll-West Division, the league announced Monday.

The Bulldogs received five first-place votes and totaled 35 points in the poll. Southern Oregon (one first-place vote, 30 points) and College of Idaho (26 points) finished second and third in the West, respectively. In the East Division, Montana Tech was tabbed first with four first-place votes and 34 points while Dickinson State (three first-place votes, 33 points) and Rocky Mountain (25 points) earned second and third.

"It's humbling to be picked by our peers at the top of a really good league and knowing you have the respect of your opponents," UMW Head Coach Ryan Nourse said. "However, the preseason picks are normally a recap of the previous season and not a great representation of what a team is or isn't at this point, so we will keep working really hard on getting the 2025 Bulldogs ready for an awesome season opener against Montana Tech."

Montana Western enters the season as back-to-back regular-season champion. The team will look to continue its success in the new-look Frontier conference in '25.

The Bulldogs brought back some key players from its 2024 title-winning squad, including quarterback Michael Palandri, who threw for nearly 3,700 yards and 34 touchdowns last season. Also returning on the offensive end of the ball are wide receiver Eli Nourse (1,205 yards, 12 touchdowns) and running back Jake Humphrey (948 yards, 12 touchdowns).

Defensively, linebackers Jace Fitzgerald (81 tackles, nine tackles-for-loss, 4.5 sacks) and Keegen Muffich (98 tackles, seven tackles-for-loss, 1.5 sacks) are both back for more. Additionally, defensive lineman Tyler Walker (45 tackles, 10 tackles-for-loss, 6.0 sacks) also returns to strengthen the Bulldog defense.

LOOKING AHEAD: Montana Western opens the season at rival Montana Tech Aug. 28. Kickoff is slated for 6 p.m.

Montana Western Volleyball (1-3) went 1-1 on day two of the Palm Beach Juniors Classic, defeating Saint Francis 3-0 in match three before being upended 0-3 by Keiser in the final match.

MATCH SUMMARY

Saint Francis

UMW got its first win of 2025 after a 3-0 victory over Saint Francis. The Bulldogs led by as many as 13 and never let up they took the first set 25-16. The second frame began in a similar fashion, with UMW winning the first seven points. The Cougars clawed their way back within one point on several occasions, but the Bulldogs earned the 25-21 win. The final set was much tighter between the two, with Saint Francis briefly taking the lead late at 23-22. Montana Western persevered, however, and completed the sweep 26-24.

Keiser

The Bulldogs led 9-4 early in the first set against Keiser, but a 10-1 rally from the Seahawks put them ahead. UMW got back within one, but never regained the lead and the opener went to Keiser, 25-22. Another big run by the Seahawks cost the team again in set two, and the hosts took a 2-0 lead. In the final frame, Montana Western again struggled offensively, and Keiser earned the sweep 25-16.

LEADERBOARD

- Jordan Olson paced the team with 13 kills across both contests.
- Jaiden Perez tallied a team-best 11 blocks, followed by Olson with 10.
- Taylor Petersen helped control the offense with 26 assists.
- Madisyn Frazier got it done defensively with 22 digs on the day.

LOOKING AHEAD

The Bulldogs compete again Aug. 29-30 when they take part in the Hells Canyon Grand Invitational. They will face off against Walla Walla (8/29), Arizona Christian (8/30), and tournament host LC State (8/30).
