Teen Dies from Self-Inflicted Gunshot Wound in Trapper Creek

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

– On August 25, 2025, at approximately 5:59 p.m., the Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office responded to reports of a shooting incident in the Trapper Creek area near Melrose. The call came from the Forest Service Fire Desk regarding an individual with a gunshot wound.

A fire crew patrolling the Trapper Creek/Canyon Creek area came across three individuals from Butte, one person who had sustained a gunshot wound to the head. At this time, details about the victim remain limited.

Multiple agencies responded to the scene, including the Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office, Butte Police Department, Forest Service Law Enforcement, Bureau of Land Management Law Enforcement, Montana Highway Patrol, A1 Ambulance, and Life Flight.

Upon arrival, law enforcement confirmed that the 18-year-old victim had died from his injuries. An extensive investigation led to the conclusion that the gunshot was self-inflicted.

The victim was transported to Brundage Funeral Home in Dillon. Other involved individuals, an 18-year-old and a 17-year-old, were transported back to Butte by Montana Highway Patrol.

Authorities have confirmed that alcohol and marijuana were factors in the incident. The case remains active, and names are not being released at this time.

This devastating event is the worst news any family could receive about their child.

□ Tuesday, September 16, 2025

□ Showtimes: 4:00 PM & 7:00 PM

This film has inspired audiences across the country—and now Dillon joins the national conversation on regenerative agriculture.

The evening will feature:

- Film Screening of Common Ground
- Local organizations/nonprofit/student tabling on food, land, and community health
- Community panel & audience Q&A with local leaders

• Opportunities to connect, volunteer, and take action
"This is more than a screening—it's a call to action," said organizers. "By coming together, we can learn, share, and be part of building healthier soil, healthier food, and healthier communities right here in Beaverhead County."

Admission is free and open to the public. All are welcome—students, families, farmers, ranchers, and community members.

Montana Western and Premier Plumbing & Heating Launch The Bulldog Way: Honoring #18

The University of Montana Western, in partnership with Premier Plumbing & Heating, has launched The Bulldog Way: Honoring #18, a new community-wide initiative celebrating leadership, character and service throughout Dillon, Beaverhead County and the surrounding area.

The program is inspired by the legacy of MJ Simkins, who wore No. 18 as a tribute to his love for his hometown and community. In that spirit, The Bulldog Way: Honoring #18 invites people of all ages to reflect on what it means to be a leader and a positive member of their schools, teams, workplaces, neighborhoods and beyond.

Participants may: — Submit artwork or writing expressing what leadership and community mean to them. — Nominate individuals who exemplify the Bulldog Way through their actions, service and dedication to others.

Each selected honoree will be recognized as the Premier Plumbing Bulldog Way Honorary Team Captain at a Montana Western home athletic event for their spirit of leadership, community pride and Bulldog excellence.

"We are so fortunate to have such incredible support from our community, and this initiative is one way we can give back by honoring the very people who make Beaverhead County such a special place," said Michael Feuling, Montana Western Athletic Director. "MJ loved this community so much, and The Bulldog Way: Honoring #18 reflects the same pride, service and leadership that he stood for."

"We're thrilled to be the very first sponsor of The Bulldog Way: Honoring #18," said Kodi Laird, service coordinator at Premier Plumbing & Heating. "Partnering with Montana Western on this program means so much to us because it's about more than sports — it's about honoring leadership, character and the pride we all share in Dillon. For Premier Plumbing & Heating, it's about giving back to the place that built us and celebrating the same values this program stands for."

Montana Western Athletics invites community members of all ages to nominate individuals by completing this online form or by submitting creative artwork or letters in person at Premier Plumbing or the Montana Western Athletic Offices in the BARC. For more information visit the Bulldog Way page.
