Secretary Christi Jacobsen launches fifth annual Constitution Contest

Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen announced the opening of the fifth annual Constitution Contest for Montana's students, focusing on the theme "What does the Declaration of Independence mean to me?"

"In celebrating Constitution Day, we invite participants to reflect on the Declaration of Independence and how it laid the foundation of the U.S. Constitution by its timeless principles of liberty and equality for all," said Secretary Jacobsen. "This contest is an opportunity for Montana's students to honor America's founding ideals and how they have shaped our great nation."

On July 4, 2026, Secretary Jacobsen will join Montanans and Americans in commemorating and celebrating the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Entries for this year's contest will help launch the celebrations.

To enter the contest, students in grades K-12 are invited to submit an essay, artwork, poem, photography, or any creative expression they would like. Essays should have a maximum length of 500 words. The contest is open to all Montana grade school and high school students, including those in homeschool and private school settings.

Winners will receive prizes and may be invited to share their entries in next year's Constitution Day celebration in the Rotunda of the State Capitol Building.

The contest begins on Wednesday, September 17, and the entry deadline is Friday, October 17. To learn more and enter the Constitution Contest, please visit https://sosmt.gov/civics-youthvote/#contest.

"Thank you, Montana students, teachers, and parents! I'm excited to celebrate our Declaration of Independence with you, and I look forward to seeing the incredible submissions in this year's contest," said Secretary Jacobsen.

BLACK JEANS

By "Swede" Troedsson

In September, 1963 I was transferred from the Colville National Forest in NE Washington to the Madison Ranger District, headquartered in Ennis, Montana. The Madison Ranger District was a portion of the Beaverhead National Forest.

The Beaverhead National Forest was essentially a range forest. The typical dress of forest officers was cowboy boots, green jeans, a Forest Service shirt with a U.S. Forest Service badge pinned on it, and a cowboy hat.

Now here comes a strangely dressed 140 pound timber beast whose field clothes included caulked boots, black Can't Bust-em jeans, a heavy Filson cotton shirt, suspenders, and a hard hat!

I was tasked with preparing a 20 million board foot timber sale in the West Fork of the Madison River drainage. In order for the Soap-Bogus timber sale to be awarded by the end of the fiscal year (June 30, 1964), field work had to be completed before snow shut me out of the area.

Working 10-12 hour days, I completed the sale layout in November in ankle deep snow.

Logging on the sale began in the fall of 1964. The efficient sale layout and the busy logging operation caught the attention, and subsequent visit, of the Forest Supervisor Vic Stokes, and Regional Forest Timber Staff.

During his visit Vic chided me for not wearing green jeans. I explained to Vic that the green uniform jeans were not loose enough so as to allow easy climbing over the deadfall while bushwacking through the timber. I informed Vic that when Can't Bust-em went green I'd go green (which eventually Can't Bust-em did).

The day of Vic's visit the mosquitoes were fierce. Vic was wearing a short-sleeve Forest Service shirt. The mosquitoes were giving Vic plenty of grief.

I suggested to Vic that there were two things that would keep the mosquitoes from drilling him. When he inquired as to what those two things were, I responded by offering him a squeeze bottle of bug repellent, and suggesting he wear black jeans!

Vic smiled and stated, "Swede, you might win the battle, but you won't win the War!"

Hoot-owl restrictions lifted on sections of the lower Madison and Big Hole rivers

Spawning closures take effect October 1

Due to cooler temperatures, hoot-owl fishing restrictions are lifted on the Lower Madison River as well as angling closures on Sections 3 and 4 of the Big Hole River, from Dickie Bridge to Tony Schoonen Fishing Access Site (aka Notch Bottom), effective immediately. The existing closures upstream of Dickie Bridge and downstream of Tony Schoonen remain in place.

The restriction and closures had been in effect for the rivers due to warm water temperatures on both rivers and low flows on the Big Hole River. Hoot-owl restrictions prohibit fishing from 2 p.m. to midnight each day. They are designed to protect fish that become more susceptible to disease and mortality when low flows and high water temperatures combine with other stressors, including catch-and-release fishing.

Anglers can reduce stress on fish at all times of the year by getting fish to the net or in hand quickly, keeping them in the water, and reviving them prior to releasing them back into the river.

Starting Oct. 1, annual fishing closures begin for sections of the Big Hole, Ruby and Beaverhead rivers to protect trout during spawning seasons.

Join the Adventure with Scouting America!

Scouting America
Montana Council

Scouting America, Montana Council invites families to learn more about Cub Scout Pack 4618 and a brand-new Scouts BSA Troop forming right here in our community.

Date: Thursday, September 25th

Time: 5:30 – 6:30 p.m.

Location: Parkview Elementary School Cafeteria

Scouting is about building character, leadership, and life skills through fun, hands-on activities. From outdoor adventures and service projects to teamwork and problem-solving, Scouting helps youth grow into confident, capable young adults.

The benefits go far beyond the individual Scout:

- Youth gain confidence, new skills, and lifelong friendships.
- Families share meaningful experiences together, strengthening bonds.
- Communities benefit from service-minded young people who give back in big ways.

We encourage parents and community members to get involved as volunteers—whether as leaders, mentors, or simply by offering support. Scouting thrives when the whole community comes together to guide and inspire the next generation.

In addition, Montana Council is eager to connect with Eagle Scouts across our great state. If you are an Eagle Scout and would like to get involved or connect with other Eagles and Scouts in your area, please reach out to Genie Funk, Vigilante District Executive.

If you're curious about Scouting or ready to start your journey, join us at the recruitment night to meet local leaders, ask questions, and see how you can be part of the adventure.

Veteran News Updates:

By Mike Lawson

The annual Toys For Tot's Coordinator Training Conference happened in St Louis this past Thursday through Saturday. I was in attendance and it was amazing to hear the stories of our many campaigns across the country that brought happiness to nearly 13 million children in America, in 2024. 30 million toys, books, and games were distributed. We and our people who work in each of these campaigns for the children, are all volunteers and our pay is in knowing we're helping these underprivileged children have a Happy Christmas. Our program has expanded to help give backpacks with school supplies to needy kids. More will be expanded on, concerning our outreach, in a future column. It was a good conference that enabled each of us coordinators to bring good information back to share with our local TFT team. Our local TFT kickoff will be the 15th of October at which time we'll be putting toy boxes and donation containers out in the many businesses who so graciously allow us to do so. I'll follow up on our TFT Campaign in future columns.

Some good news relating to Flu shots . These shots are now available at all Montana VA Health Care System sites statewide. For my out-of-state readers, you might check your state VA as it could probably be the same. Its just another way to keep you and your loved ones safe durning the flu and cold season. The VA asked that if you got a flu shot at a pharmacy or clinic outside the VA, to send a Secure Message through the. VA: Health and Benefits app or MY HealthVet, or call your primary care team and provide: 1) Your full name, (2) Last 4 digits of your social, (3)The name of the vaccine,(4) The date that you got it, (5) Where you got it. This helps keep your health record up to date.

I have been in the VA Healthcare system for over 25 years and my treatment has been top-notch. I've also been driving the DAV Vans for 20 years and have brought countless Veterans to their appointments at a VA healthcare facility. I've seen the results of the excellent care we have all received. When I hear someone badmouth the VA, I'm quick to defend it. Fort Harrison is also one of only 41 hospitals nationwide to earn a five-star rating in both Overall and Patient Survey. Nationwide 77% of VA hospitals that received an overall Hospital Quality Star Rating received a four or five stars, and no VA hospitals received a one star rating. This is more than impressive and speaks volumes for our VA Healthcare System. If you are a veteran and haven't signed up for VA Healthcare, please consider doing so because it's the best that's out there.
