Enoch Memorial Fund

In memory of Enoch Haworth, the youngest brother. The son of Cameron and Regina, whose laughter and light touched everyone around him.

Though his time here was short, his spirit lives on in love, joy, and faith. Your kindness helps us honor his life and ease the burden of funeral expenses. Thank you for giving, praying, and remembering our sweet Enoch.

An account has been set up at the Bank of Commerce if you wish to donate that way. Jars are also being placed in various businesses around town. God bless and thank you.

"Enoch walked faithfully with God; then he was no more, because God took him." – Genesis 5:24

Service Details for Enoch

The viewing will be held at the college on Monday from 12:00–1:00 p.m., with the funeral service following from 1:00–2:00 p.m. Afterward, we will escort him to his final resting place. A reception will follow. More details and updates will be shared soon.

Safety Fest & Crosswalk Painting Event Cancelled

The City of Dillon is deeply saddened by the tragic event that occurred last night. Out of respect for those affected and in recognition of our community's need to grieve and support one another, the Safety Fest and Crosswalk Painting Event scheduled for this Saturday, September 27th, has been cancelled.

"Our hearts go out to all those impacted by this tragedy," said Mayor John McGinley. "The well-being of our community is our highest priority, and we feel it is appropriate to postpone community celebrations at this time."

City officials will provide updates in the coming weeks regarding the possibility of rescheduling the event.

Six men sentenced in Musselshell County poaching case

Six men from Montana and Washington have pled guilty in Musselshell County Justice Court to unlawfully killing bull elk and mule deer bucks near Roundup. They have been sentenced to a combined total of $22,890 in fines, and license revocations totaling 28 years.

The investigation began with information provided to Fish, Wildlife & Parks (FWP) wardens by a confidential informant. After an extensive investigation, wardens found that the group of both residents and nonresidents killed several large bull elk in Hunting District 590 without the required elk permit and also killed several large mule deer without hunting licenses. The violations occurred between 2020 and 2024.

During the investigation, Montana wardens worked with wardens in Washington State who seized several mounts of unlawfully killed elk and deer. Montana wardens also seized multiple elk and deer mounts in Montana. In total, 11 mounts were seized as evidence in the investigation, and a total of 34 charges and 13 warnings were issued by FWP wardens.

"We would like to thank the Washington Department of Fish & Wildlife, the Billings Police Department, and the Musselshell County Attorney's Office for their assistance," said FWP game warden Jake Barzen, who was the lead investigator in the case. "But most of all, we thank the public, since like in so many other cases, it was their tips that initially sparked our investigation."

The sentences are:

- Ben Valadez - Tri Cities, WA, $8,050 in fines and restitution, and an 8-year license revocation
- Devon Rea - Roundup, MT, $4,275 in fines and restitution, and a 4-year license revocation
- Kyle Steiling - Tri Cities, WA, $3,640 in fines and restitution, and a 4-year license revocation
- Mitch Miller - Roundup, MT, $3,050 in fines and restitution, and an 8-year license revocation
- Noa Valadez - Tri Cities, WA, $2,070 in fines and restitution, and a 2-year license revocation
- Johnny Lopez - Tri Cities, WA, $1,805 in fines and restitution, and a 2-year license revocation

Anyone with information about wildlife crimes is encouraged to visit tipmont.mt.gov. Those who report information may be eligible for a cash reward of up to $1,000.

Bozeman Symphony Presents World Premiere October 11 & 12

The Bozeman Symphony will unveil the world premiere of Carnival of the Nearly Extinct Animals by composer Stephanie Ann Boyd during its upcoming concert, Nature's Wonders: Beethoven's Pastoral Symphony, October 11 & 12 at the Willson Auditorium.

Thirteen endangered species will come alive through the orchestra in this evocative new work, co-commissioned by the Bozeman Symphony. Boyd's score weaves together the voices and environments of animals on the brink of extinction, creating a vivid musical journey. At once celebratory and urgent, the piece highlights the threats of pollution, habitat loss, and climate change—inviting audiences to reflect on nature's fragility and resilience.

"We are honored to bring this powerful new work to life," said Music Director Norman Huynh. "Stephanie Ann Boyd's music reminds us of the extraordinary beauty of our natural world and challenges us to be its stewards. This premiere is not just a concert event—it's a call to action."

"It is both deeply symbolic and delightfully serendipitous that this piece will be premiered in a part of the world that cares so deeply about the caretaking and protecting of its land and its animals," said Composer Stephanie Ann Boyd. "I am thrilled and honored to be working with Norman Huynh and the Bozeman Symphony on bringing this piece to life. I am incredibly grateful for how the Bozeman community is already leaping up to support and take part in the exciting events taking place during the week of the premiere. This work is incredibly close to my heart, and it is a beautiful privilege to be able to work hand in hand with the Bozeman Symphony and community on the very first performance of this meaningful work."

The program continues with Beethoven's beloved Symphony No. 6, a heartfelt tribute to the countryside. Listeners will be transported to a serene landscape of flowing streams, birdsong, and rustic dances, punctuated by the drama of a sudden summer storm. A timeless masterpiece, the Pastoral Symphony has long inspired audiences, famously featured in Disney's Fantasia.

Performances take place Saturday, Oct. 11, at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday, Oct. 12, at 2:30 p.m. at the Willson Auditorium, 404 West Main Street in downtown Bozeman.

Maclain Burckley Named Frontier Conference Special Teams Player of the Week

Montana Western football player Maclain Burckley was named Erck Hotels/ Frontier Conference Football Special Teams Player of the week after a solid performance at Rocky Mountain Sept. 20. This marks the first Player of the Week honor of his career.

"Maclain has become a huge part of the success of our team early in his career," Head Coach Ryan Nourse said. "He works tirelessly at being his best and the positive results are speaking for themselves."

Burckley had a perfect day kicking against Rocky, going 3-of-3 on PAT kicks and 2-of-2 in field goals. He drilled a season-best 47-yard attempt just before halftime to put Bulldogs up 13-7. He also recorded four punts for 45.0 yards per punt, including a 51-yard effort. All of his four punts landed inside the opponent's 20-yard line.

His 47-yard field goal is the longest by any kicker in the Frontier Conference this season. Burckley's three made field goals on the year have all been over 30 yards.

The redshirt-freshman has drained all 13 PAT attempts this season and is 3-of-4 on field goal attempts. He has tallied 11 punts for 466 yards (42.36 yards per punt). His 16 kickoffs have gone for 1,035 yards (64.7 yards per kick).

LOOKING AHEAD: Montana Western is back in Bulldog Stadium this week as they welcome Dickinson State Saturday. Kickoff is set for 1 p.m. MT.

Veteran News Updates:
 By Mike Lawson
 I picked up a Veteran at our local Rescue Mission, last week. He didn't know about the VA Homeless Veteran programs that were available to him. I really feel for these veterans who have, seemingly, hit rock bottom. I did tell him how to connect and hope that he will. If any of you veterans are homeless or you know a Veteran who is homeless, please contact : Homeless Veteran Resources: 1-877-424-3838 or CHAT. The Department of Veterans Affairs announced more than $818 million in grants to 235 organizations across the country to help Veterans who are homeless or at risk of becoming homeless. The grants are being made available through VA's "Supportive Services for Veterans Families" program. These programs are well worth checking out if you are homeless or about to become homeless. Call the VA and get help.

Agent Orange is again in the news. It has caused a number recognized illnesses that have been a death knell for many Vietnam Veterans. The latest report is that the Veterans Affairs Department is contemplating adding several more medical illnesses to the list of health conditions presumed to be caused by exposure to Agent Orange. A report has come out by the Institute of Medicine, about illnesses that may be more strongly linked than previously thought. These are bladder cancer, hypothyroidism and Parkinson's-like symptoms. Its suggested that any Vietnam Veteran linked strongly to this Agent Orange exposure, should automatically be eligible for VA disability benefits and health care. I truly hope and pray that this will be the case, as these Veterans deserve this care for whatever time they have left to live.

I'm not sure how many of you who are Veterans receiving disability pay, realize that your compensation was increased by 2.5% in 2025. This was made based on the latest cost-of-living adjustment (COLA). Every little bit helps.

I want to give a shout out to all the volunteers in our DAV Van Transportation program. You volunteers perform one of the most noble and service oriented tasks for our thousands of Veterans across America, who need rides to their VA Medical appointments. You literally, provide a life-line for many Veterans who would be unable to get to their healthcare appointments. I hand salute each of you for your sacrifice.

UMW Volleyball Clipped 3-0 by #5 Bellevue

The Montana Western volleyball team (6-8, 4-3 FC) was defeated by #5 Bellevue (10-2, 6-1 FC) 3-0 Saturday afternoon.

"We played two really good teams this weekend and we learned a lot about what we need to improve," Head Coach Katie Lovett said. "We will get back in the gym and back to work on Monday."

MATCH SUMMARY: Bellevue opened the match with a 10-1 scoring run and eventually took set one 25-13. The second frame saw the Bruins once again gain an early lead, taking the second 25-10. The Bulldogs came alive in the final set, trading points with the hosts for the majority of the set. Bellevue managed to pull away right at the end and completed the sweep 25-21.

LEADERBOARD: Jaiden Perez paced UMW in both kills (five) and blocks (two). Savana Warburton and Taylor Ketchum shared the team lead in digs with six apiece. Megan Hardman and Taylor Petersen each tallied eight assists. Madisyn Frazier landed a team-best two aces.

SPLIT BOX: Bellevue held the statistical advantage in kills (43-25), digs (44-31), assists (41-20), blocks (5-4), and aces (15-3).

LOOKING AHEAD: The Bulldogs continue their four-game away trip next weekend when they take on Rocky Mountain (9/25) and (RV) Carroll College (9/26).
