'I think we can have all of those things': Secretary Christi Jacobsen supports public access, private property and mineral rights

As an avid user of public lands, Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen voted to increase and protect public access opportunities during the October Land Board meeting at the Montana State Capitol.

Secretary Jacobsen joined her all-Republican colleagues on the Land Board in approving 14 habitat conservation leases (HCLs) covering more than 35,000 acres in central and eastern Montana. Each of the 14 private properties will be enrolled in an HCL, protecting habitats while keeping agricultural land in production and providing increased public access for Montana hunters.

Secretary Jacobsen also strongly advocated for all Montana recreationists, from hunters and anglers to hikers and runners, when considering public access opportunities in Phase II of the Montana Great Outdoors Conservation Easement. In voting yes to the 53,000-acre acquisition by Montana Fish, Wildlife, and Parks, Secretary Jacobsen also made it clear that Montana's legacy industries like mining and timber should be supported and protected.

"I did not take this decision lightly. I've lost sleep over it, and I've been thinking about it for six months. I appreciate and am a champion for the Montana Mining Association and the mining industry, along with public access—the hunters, fishermen, and everyone who recreates on public land," said Secretary Jacobsen. "I believe in public access, I believe in private property rights, and I also believe in mineral development and mineral dominance in our state. I think we can have all of those things."

The Land Board ultimately approved Phase II of the Montana Great Outdoors Conservation Easement with a 4-1 vote.

During last year's passage of the first phase of the Montana Great Outdoors Conservation Easement, Secretary Jacobsen championed language to protect both the surface and mineral rights to continue responsible natural resource development.

In addition to protecting Montana's public access opportunities with nearly 88,000 combined acres between the Habitat Conservation Leases and the Conservation Easement, Secretary Jacobsen and her colleagues also supported three timber sales in western Montana estimated to generate nearly $700,000 for Montana schools. The Land Board also approved several easements, including a public pedestrian bridge in Whitefish.

Secretary Jacobsen's support for these projects reflects her commitment to public access, recreation opportunities, and the stewardship of Montana's public lands.

Montana Western Football Routs Simpson 65-0 Saturday

The #20 Montana Western football team (5-3, 2-2 FC West) dismantled Simpson (0-8, 0-4 FC West) 65-0 Saturday afternoon in Redding.

"It was awesome to see the guys respond positively to the adversity that hit them during travel and with the rainstorm in the first quarter of the game," head coach Ryan Nourse said. "It shows growth and strong competitive character. Guys really came to win this weekend, and it showed in the outcome."

Western tallied 423 total yards (231 passing, 192 rushing), scored eight touchdowns, made three field goals, and earned 21 first downs in the contest while holding Simpson under 100 yards of total offense (94 yards). They scored on six-of-seven red zone chances and converted on four third down tries.

Three Bulldog quarterbacks saw action in the contest, led by Michael Palandri with a game-high 143 yards and two passing touchdowns. Kaden LaPlaunt passed for 88 yards, including a long of 39, and Jordan Jones registered 21 rush yards and ran in a touchdown as well.

Defensively, UMW forced five turnovers from Simpson and quickly shutdown any attempt to get the Red Hawk offense going.

As a team, the Bulldogs had their best return-game of the season, racking up 100 yards on three punt returns. Shook posted one return for 44 yards while Cornwell had two attempts for 56 yards and a long of 42.

After a slower start to the game, in part due to the downpour in Redding, Western got on the board thanks to an eight-yard run from Humphrey to lead 7-0 after the first quarter.

The Bulldog offense exploded in the second frame, posting 27 points after TDs from Lammers, Shook, and Nourse, and two field goals from Burckley. They led 34-0 at the half.

Walker kept the fire going with a fumble recovery for a touchdown to start the third period, with Lammer and Humphrey adding to the onslaught with one more touchdown apiece to take the 55-0 lead into the fourth.

In the final quarter Burckley sunk his final field goal and Jordan Jones earned the final touchdown on a quarterback keeper.

Montana Western is back at Bulldog stadium for its final two games of the 2025 regular season, hosting Eastern Oregon (11/1) and Arizona Christian (11/8).

UMW Men's Basketball Defeats Evergreen

The UMW men's basketball program (1-0) opened the 2025-26 season with a comfortable 76-61 win over Evergreen (0-1) Sunday. It marks the sixth straight year that the Bulldogs have won their season opener, going back to The 2020-21 season.

"Proud of our guys for finding a way to win on the road when we didn't shoot the ball very well," head coach Patrick Jensen said. Western shot 36.2 percent (25-69) from the field, 35.1 percent (13-37) from beyond the arc, and 68.4 percent (13-19) from the foul line in the contest.

The Bulldogs held the statistical advantage in rebounds (41-31), assists (10-8), steals (8-3), and blocks (3-2). They also forced 17 turnovers from the Geoducks while committing 13 themselves.

The two sides each scored 18 points in the paint, but UMW outscored Evergreen in points off turnovers (23-18), second-chance points (12-5), fast break points (4-2), and bench points (31-19).

The Geoducks never got closer than 10 in the second half. Western increased their lead to as many as 18 late in the frame and cruised to the 15-point victory. Seven Bulldogs scored in the half, including 13 from Gruhler.

LOOKING AHEAD - Western returns to Straugh Gymnasium Oct. 30-31 when they host the Montana Western Tournament.

Bulldog Volleyball Takes Down Dakota State in Five-Set Thriller

The Montana Western volleyball team (11-14, 9-9 FC) defeated #24 Dakota State (14-9, 10-8 FC) in an electrifying five-set match (21-25, 30-28, 25-14, 18-25, 15-11) Thursday evening.

It was the Bulldogs first win over a ranked or receiving-votes opponent since Sept. 5 when they beat then (RV) Valley City State 3-1.

"Tonight was a great and gritty team win," Head Coach Katie Lovett said. "We had a lot of people contribute in different ways which really made a difference when it came down to the wire."

NOTABLES - Three Bulldogs hit at least .300 in the match; Kennedy Lingenfelter (.367), Olivia Rosborough (.304), Antonia Duncan (.300).

Four players reached double figures in both kills and digs. Duncan earned career highs in both kills (nine) and hitting percentage (.300).

Megan Hardman recorded her seventh double-double in her last eight appearances.

As a team, UMW hit a blistering .435 clip in the final set.

MATCH SUMMARY - The match was a nail-biter from the first set, with the two sides trading the lead until the Trojans managed to pull away 25-21 to take the 1-0 lead. The Bulldogs bounced back in the second and leveled things 1-1 with a marathon 30-28 win. The momentum was fully with UMW in the third frame, as the team cruised into the 2-1 lead with a 25-14 win. Dakota State proved their resilience in the fourth, forcing a fifth set 25-18. In the decider, Western took an early lead and held off the visitors, securing the win 15-11.

My dog Jake has been diagnosed with allergies to everything except VENISON, BEEF LIVER and RICE. Beef liver can cause copper poisoning in dogs. Rice is ok as a supplement but it can contribute to inflammation for dogs with allergies. With this very unusual diagnosis I am struggling. If you have any venison, elk or moose in your freezer that you don't want, I sure could use it. I will pick it up.

Call me - Catherine Cain 406-498-6198 Jake thanks you!
