Judy Luann Anderson

Judy Luann Anderson passed away on November 27nd, 2025, at the age of 86, she faded gracefully from this life as life had lost it's meaning for her. Born on September 24, 1939, in Butte, Montana, to Alfred Hunt Jr. and Amber Curnutt Hunt, she was one of three siblings, Ronald, Judy and Dale. Judy grew up on the family ranch in Waterloo, Montana; and attended schools in Whitehall, graduating in 1957; after which she attended the Butte Business College. After finishing her schooling, she married her high school sweetheart, William Anderson, on July 17, 1960. They enjoyed sixty-four years of marriage, working and raising their children in Dillon; a daughter, Jill and a son, Todd.

Miracles

God took the pureness of the lily,
Softness of the clouds above,
The strength of the mighty oak tree,
And He formed a mother's love.
He took calmness from the gentle brook
And patience for a start,
He added faith and gratitude
And made a mother's heart.
...Lois Ann Williams

During the first few years of their marriage, Judy, Bill and kids spent weekends working for her brother and sister-in-law in Waterloo, Montana; many hours were spent with family, enjoying the ranch work, playing cards, fishing, camping, riding in the Wiley's jeep and having fun. Spending time with both Judy's family and Bill's family were some of Judy's most cherished memories. She looked forward to every family get-together.

Many of you may remember her through her time spent working at Dr. R.J. English's optometry business, bookkeeping at Montana Motor Supply, and VIC travel counselor for the Beaverhead Chamber of Commerce. So many special friendships were formed along the way, co-workers and new acquaintances alike. Judy was also a Senior Companion, which was one of her most favorite occupations, serving 10 years with compassion and caring for elderly friends.... that their light may always shine. Judy was a natural born caregiver, beginning at the age of 14, when her father had a debilitating stroke. Throughout her life, she was also a caregiver to her mother, her husband, her two brothers, and her mother-in-law.

Dillon, MT Since 1991

Judy was a proud member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows / Diana Rebekah Assembly – and she tried to live her life by the Rebekah Creed:

"I believe in the Fatherhood of God, and the Brotherhood of Man, and the Sisterhood of woman. I believe in the watch-words of our Order – Friendship, Love and Truth. Friendship – is like a golden chain that ties our hearts together. Love – is one of our most precious gifts, the more you give, the more you receive. Truth – is the standard by which we value people. It is the foundation of our society. I believe that my main concern should be by my God, my family and my friends. Then I should reach out to my community and the World, for in God's eyes we are all brothers and sisters. I am a Rebekah!"

She will be dearly missed. Judy is survived by her daughter Jill (Ken Walker), grandson Clifton (Sydney) Walters; grandchildren Carter and Charlotte Walters; brother Ronald Hunt, sister-in-law, Phyllis Heinz; brother-in-law, Dick Jorgenson; sister-in-law, Jeri Hunt; special cousin, Lois Boka, and several nieces and nephews.

PRECEDED in death by her husband, William Anderson; son, Todd Anderson; her parents, Alfred and Amber Hunt; brother, Dale Hunt; great grandson, Harrison Walters; sister-in-law, Sandra Hunt, father-in-law and mother-in-law, Hans and Marie Anderson; brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Fred and La Dawn Anderson; sister-in-law, Alice "Sally" Jorgenson; and brother-in-law Robert Heinz.

There will be no services at this time, in her memory, please donate to a charity of your choice. The family would like to thank the staff at Barrett Hospital and Healthcare; special friends, Machiko Smith, Cindy Pettit, Lyndee Fogel, and Jamie Harrison for all the care, visits, and compassion shown to Judy, so that she could remain at home during her final days.

By: MJ

Thanks to the Catholic Church and many, many volunteers for making a delicious community Thanksgiving dinner available to entire community. The choice was yours. Enjoy and savor the dinner in the hall or take it home to gather around table with your family and enjoy.

Unfortunately, family dinners for some, are being perceived as burdens rather than blessings. The life styles today have deleted the dinners due to the necessary work. Many have chosen to watch T.V. as a substitute for a dinner where everyone is communicating face to face and reconnecting. A heartfelt dinner where the young and old share their laughter, their love, their stories...

There have been studies done that have proven that when families ate at least (5) sit down dinners together a week it helped children to be able to walk down roads that become successes for them. It appears that family dinners may have become another dividing line in our lives, along with internet, social media, commitment, love, understanding, joy...

We are elders in the community and we also took advantage of the delicious meal. As the cook in the family, I am appreciative and thankful to have the dinner prepared. Thanks to all who made the meal available.

Kyle Grahler Picks Up Third Offensive Player of the Week Honor

Montana Western men's basketball player Kyle Grahler picked up his third Erck Hotels/ Frontier Conference Men's Basketball Offensive Player of the Week award of the season after leading the Bulldogs to a 2-0 start in league play. It is his fourth career player of the week award.

Grahler had another high-scoring weekend, guiding No. 24 ranked Western to road wins over Valley City State and Mayville State. He led all players in scoring in both contests.

The senior dropped 26 points on 72.7 percent field goal shooting (8-of-11) in UMW's narrow 107-104 victory at VCSU. He drilled four three-pointers (66.7 percent) and sunk 6-of-6 at the line.

He followed that up with a career-high matching 32 points on 52.2 percent (12-of-23) shooting in the 85-72 win at MSU. Once again, Grahler made four threes while going 4-of-5 from the charity stripe.

The Vancouver, Wash., native averaged 29.0 points, 5.0 rebounds, and 1.5 assists per game. He was 20-of-34 from the field (58.8 percent), 53.3 percent (8-of-15) from downtown, and hit 10-of-11 free-throws (90.9 percent).

Bulldog WBB Suffers 68-54 Setback at #25 Montana Tech

The Montana Western women's basketball program (4-3, 2-1 FC) was clipped by #25 Montana Tech (6-1, 2-1 FC) 68-54 Friday evening.

Isabella Lund dropped a career-high 24 points.

Ava Bellach earned a career-high three blocks.

UMW swatted a season-best eight blocks as a team.

Lund led the game in scoring while. Sayler was also in double digits with 12 points, all coming from beyond the arc.

Keke Davis pulled down a team-high seven rebounds while Kyle Pancost handed out a game-high tying three assists.

Ava Bellach tied for the game-lead with three blocks.

Sayler, Davis, Lund, and Gio Horner each earned two steals

GAME SUMMARY: It was a defensive battle to start the contest, with the hosts holding a slight 15-9 lead going into the second period. The Orediggers stretched their lead to nine, 37-28, by the halftime whistle.

Lund paced the team with eight points while Davis and Sayler pulled down four rebounds apiece. Pancost led Western with two assists.

The Bulldogs shot 33.3 percent (10-30) from the floor, 46.7 percent (7 -15) from distance, and 25.0 percent (1-4) from the foul line in the first half. They rallied 17 rebounds, seven assists, six blocks, and five steals.

Montana Tech maintained its nine-point lead through the third, leading 49-40 at the end of the period.

Despite a strong defensive fourth by the Bulldogs, they couldn't get closer than seven, and the Orediggers took the 14-point win.

LOOKING AHEAD

The Bulldogs are back in action next Friday, Nov. 28, when they travel to Butte, Mont., to take on rival Montana Tech. Tipoff is set for 5 p.m. MT.

Western Men's Basketball Defeats Montana Tech 82-80 in OT Thriller

The #23 Montana Western men's basketball program (8-1, 3-0 FC) hung on for an 82-80 overtime victory against #4 Montana Tech Friday evening. Western snapped a 19-game home win streak for the Orediggers, which had dated back to the beginning of the 2024-25 season.

It marks the Bulldogs' second win over a top-five opponent this season, coming after they upset then no. 1 College of Idaho (11/3/25).

Emanuel Steward posted his first double-double of the season, dropping game highs in both points (22) and assists (10).

Jacob Ankeny shot 100.0 percent (6-6) from the floor.

UMW tallied its seventh game with 10 or more assists.

LEADERBOARD: Steward tied for the game high in scoring while Kolter Merritt (13), Ankeny (12), and Kyle Gruhler (11) also posted double-digit scoring efforts.

David Young pulled down a team-best seven rebounds and snatched a game-high four steals.

Ankeny, Merritt, and Joshua Whiteside each registered a block in the game.

GAME SUMMARY: Both teams were fired up to start the game. After trading buckets over the first few minutes of action, the Bulldogs pulled ahead by seven five minutes into the half.

The Orediggers fought back to tie the game multiple times over the ensuing 15 minutes, and UMW held a tight 36-34 lead going into the locker rooms.

Western shot 44.8 percent (13-29) from the field, 40.0 percent (4-10) from three, and 46.2 percent (6-13) from the charity stripe in the first period. The Bulldogs registered 17 rebounds, six assists, three steals, and one block.

After the break, UMW opened up a 10-point gap, 47-37, for its biggest lead of the game. The hosts proved persistent, though, and once again clawed their way back into the game.

A late three by Montana Tech knotted the game at 69, and neither side could get a game-winner to fall in the last seconds of regulation.

In the overtime period, the Bulldogs made 6-of-7 shots on the way to a two-point advantage with two seconds left. MT managed a last-ditch full-court toss off a missed free throw from UMW, but it missed the target and Western walked away with the rivalry win.

LOOKING AHEAD

Western returns to Straugh Gymnasium next week to host #16 Carroll (12/5) and #15 Rocky Mountain (12/6).
