Karen Jones Brown

1940-2025

On December 4, 2025, Karen Jones Brown peacefully passed after a lengthy illness, surrounded by family at the Beehive of Dillon. Karen was born October 6, 1940, in Rexburg, Idaho, to James Hyrum Jones, Jr. and Klea Christine (McKinlay) Jones. She grew up in various Idaho towns and in Armstead, Montana.

In 1957, she met the love of her life, and, after a whirlwind courtship, married Carl Chris Brown on November 9th, 1957, in Salmon, Idaho. Carl and Karen couldn't wait to start their family and were soon joined by Julie, Kathy and Kristy. After spending their early marriage years in Idaho, they moved to Dillon, Montana, in 1963, which has been Karen's home ever since.

A wonderful cook and creative seamstress, Karen was also much loved for her service and friendship. After her girls were grown and married, she went back to school, earning her GED and an associate degree at Montana Western, serving as an example of continual learning. She worked for many years as an aide in the Dillon Schools.

She found great joy in her 13 grandchildren. Karen spent hundreds of hours on the floor playing with them and attended every activity she was able to do. She always told them "Grandma's kids are the best!" She has also been blessed with 33 great-grandchildren.

Karen was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in the Dillon 2nd Ward for over 60 years, serving in many capacities, and always sang in the choir.

In her final years in the Beehive, Karen was an unofficial greeter for new residents and shared her cheerful sayings, love of music, and joyful perspective with all.

Karen was preceded in death by her loving husband Carl, her sister Kay, brother Jim, and parents James and Klea; she also lost a granddaughter, Kimmy, and great-grandson, Roman.

She is survived by daughters Julie (Rick) Carpenter, Kathy (Dennis) Jones, and Kristy (Don) Staley; grandchildren Ryan (Jenn) Carpenter, April Reints, Michael Carpenter, Jameson Carpenter, David Carpenter, Steven Carpenter, Kendall Carpenter, BreAnne (Jared) Hardin, Braden (Rickie) Jones, Brittny (Steven) Bird, Bryant (Kori) Jones, and Kevin (Chantyl) Staley; 32 great-grandchildren; sister Jan Boehm and brother

Western WBB Drops Hard-Fought Battle to Carroll, 59-56

The Montana Western women's basketball program (4-4, 2-2 FC) lost a nail biter to #16 Carroll (5-3, 3-1 FC) Friday evening.

The Bulldogs showcased grit and determination to fight back from eight down in the second quarter and keep themselves in the game.

STAT BREAKDOWN

UMW shot 47.8 percent (22-46) from the field, 9.1 percent (1-11) from three, and 61.1 percent (11-18) from the foul line in the contest.

The Red and Black recorded 34 rebounds, eight assists, and seven steals.

Western posted a whopping 40 points in the paint, 11 points off turnovers, two second-chance points, and 11 bench points.

LEADERBOARD

Isabella Lund led the team with 20 points, followed by Gio Horner (13) and Keke Davis (12).

Baylee Sayler pulled down a team-best seven rebounds.

Keke Davis led the Bulldogs in both assists (three) and steals (two).

NOTABLES

Three Bulldogs scored in double figures.

Lund shot a blistering 88.9 percent (8-9) from the floor for her second-straight 20-point game.

Davis matched her season high in points, rebounds, and assists.

GAME SUMMARY

The two sides were neck-and-neck through much of the opening quarter, with the Bulldogs leading by as many as five before a late three gave the Fighting Saints the one-point, 18-17, lead at the end of the period.

The visitors held onto their lead, stretching it to eight more than once in the second frame, and were up 38-31 at the half.

The Bulldogs shot 54.2 percent (13-24) from the field and 55.5 percent (5-9) from the line in the first half.

Western clawed its way back into the contest in the third, outscoring Carroll 17-8 in the period to take a two-point lead, 48-46, into the final 10 minutes.

The fourth was a defensive battle, and UMW was down three in the dwindling seconds. Horner got the final shot off in time, but it took an unlucky bounce and didn't fall.

Merry Christmas

As the year comes to an end, we're grateful to protect Montana families and businesses.
Here for you now and in 2026.

One drawing left for Blackfeet Tribal Bison Hunt

The last drawing for a guided bison hunt on the Blackfeet Reservation is Jan. 5. Chances are $10 each, and there is no limit on the number of chances each hunter can purchase.

The lottery is a way FWP partners with the Blackfeet Tribe to demonstrate a shared commitment to managing fish and wildlife across the state and to facilitate hunting, fishing and outdoor recreation opportunities.

The lottery is open to all hunters – tribal members, nonmembers, Montana residents and nonresidents. Hunters will be guided by one of the Blackfeet Fish and Game's buffalo program personnel and will have the ability to choose their own animal. Hunters have a three-week harvest window starting the following day of the drawing. Successful hunters can keep the bison's head, hide and meat.

To enter the drawing, go to fwp.mt.gov/buyandapply. Lottery opportunities can also be purchased at a license provider or an FWP office. For more information, contact the Blackfeet Fish and Game office at 406-338-7207 or the FWP tribal liaison at 406-750-3574.

Bicentennial Incorporated Hosts Annual Senior Dinner, Awards 33 Community Grants

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

On Friday afternoon, Bicentennial Incorporated hosted its fourth annual senior dinner and grant awards presentation at the Frontier Event Center, celebrating both community support and the season of giving.

Bicentennial Incorporated's mission is to provide support for services that enhance and improve the lives of senior citizens in Beaverhead County, the Ruby Valley, and Madison County. This year, the organization awarded 33 grants to nonprofit groups serving these communities.

Attendees enjoyed a free holiday meal along with entertainment by the BCHS Teen Tones and harp music performed by Kelly Weinacht. Throughout the afternoon, gift cards were drawn as door prizes, and speakers shared the history of Bicentennial Incorporated and how its grant program began.

How the Grants Will Be Used

Grant funds will support a wide range of local projects.

- Dillon Public Library plans to apply its award toward Phase Three of its improvement project, including the installation of a wheelchair-accessible ramp.

- Beaverhead Senior Center received funding for its food program, and Bicentennial Incorporated will also sponsor the center's final meal of each month, providing seniors with a free community dinner.

- Montana Youth Challenge Academy will use its grant to support scholarships for cadets.

As the holiday season approaches, Bicentennial Incorporated continues to make a significant impact across southwestern Montana, strengthening the organizations that serve local seniors and families.
