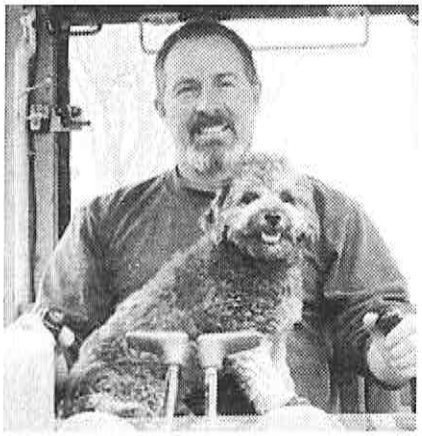
Justin Dean Devers, 66

Justin Dean Devers, 66, of Manhattan, MT, passed away on December 4, 2025 and is now at rest after a life lived with purpose, devotion, and generosity.



Justin was born on June 10, 1959, to Dale and Judy Devers in Dalhart, TX. He grew up with a strong work ethic and an even stronger love for people; qualities that shaped every chapter of his life. After graduating from Beaverhead County High School in 1977, he spent several years learning from seasoned construction professionals, determined to master every skill possible. That drive led him to discover his true calling in aquatics construction, and in 1995 he founded Devers Excavation and Aquatics. For nearly 30 years, the business became a cornerstone of the Dillon community, eventually spreading beauty throughout all of Montana; and was built on Justin's pride, grit, and unwavering commitment to doing things the right way.

Between 1979 and 1993, Justin welcomed five children who immediately became the center of his world. In 2001, he met the love of his life, Deana, in Manhattan, MT. Together, they welcomed two more children, creating a blended family full of laughter, a little chaos, and deep devotion. Justin and Deana married in 2006, and he worked tirelessly to create a life of opportunity and stability for them. His dedication took the family from Belgrade to Manhattan as he continually sought new ways to support their dreams while working tirelessly to create the perfect 12 acre ranch he long dreamed of calling Home.

Outside of work, Justin's heart was as big as his laugh. He spent 18 meaningful years helping crippled children as a devoted member of the Bagdad Shriners, serving as a prior Worshipful Master and current Master Mason with Dillon Lodge #16. He poured his time and energy into helping others, always giving more of himself than he ever asked in return. Justin loved gathering people together, whether through themed parties, online gaming sessions, card games, or simply sitting by The Pond with a glass of whiskey in hand. Justin was happiest when he was surrounded by his people, sharing stories, cracking jokes, and filling the room with the unmistakable sound of his laughter.

To Justin, family was everything. He was endlessly proud of each of his children and grandchildren, celebrating their victories, supporting their struggles, and lifting them up every chance he had. Of all the names Justin held in life, Pop Pop was the one he cherished most. He believed it was an honor to watch their lives unfold, and he never missed an opportunity to tell them how much they meant to him. His strength, humor, and love will continue to live on through their lives forever.

Justin is survived by his wife, Deana Devers; his children, Steven Devers of Bozeman, MT, BranDee (James) Leier of Dawson, ND, Tara (Phillip) Lewallen of Billings, MT, Nycole (Clint) LaRowe of Billings, MT, Colter (Jordan) Devers of Colorado Springs, CO, Cameo (Taggert) Devaney of Whitehall, MT, and Austin (Addison) Devers of Whitehall, MT; and by the grandchildren he adored: Caleb, Tatum, Brellan, Brylee, Jaylee, Hayden, Lyv, Dalles, Arabella, Alahnna, Ava, Andi, Everly, Rylen, Rhali, Cashman, and Isla. He is also survived by his parents, Dale and Judy Devers of Twin Bridges, MT; his brothers, Danny (Gennene) Devers of Dillon, MT, and Preston (Theresa) Devers of Chinook, WA; multiple nieces and nephews be adored; and his loyal, beloved four-legged companions, Harper and Pepper.

He is preceded in death by John and Mabel Devers and Preston and Melba Steele.

A memorial service honoring Justin's life will be held on Saturday, December 13, 2025, at the Frontier Event Center in Dillon, MT. A public viewing will begin at 10:00 a.m., followed by the service at 11:00 a.m. All are welcome to join in celebrating a man who loved deeply, worked tirelessly, and lived with a heart as vast as the Montana sky. DOJ's OCP warns of fake county jail websites

The Montana Department of Justice's Office of Consumer Protection (OCP) is warning Montanans about scammers operating fraudulent county jail websites that target families of inmates in an attempt to collect personal and financial information.

OCP has received reports of an active scam website, musselshellcountyjail.org, which impersonates the official Musselshell County Detention Center by falsely offering inmate lookup services, mailing and money instructions, and deceptive facility information. Similar fraudulent county jail websites have been found across the state seeking to mislead the public and collect money.

The Office of Consumer Protection offers a few tips to Montanans to avoid falling for this scam:

- Verify links: Only trust inmate-search sites that end with .mt.gov or official county sites.
- Recognize red flags: Montana jails never ask you to mail money orders to a P.O. Box.
- Inmate lookup is always free: Never pay for basic inmate information.
- Approved money deposits: Money for inmates goes only through Access Corrections, JPay, TouchPay, or directly at the jail.
- When in doubt, call the jail: Contact the jail directly. Use the information listed on the official county website.

Montanans can report any phone, email, or mail scams to the Montana Department of Justice's Office of Consumer Protection at contactocp@mt.gov, or 406-444-4500 (toll-free: 800-481-6896), or online at https://dojmt.gov/office-of-consumer-protection/.

Game wardens seek information on bull elk killed west of Toston

Bull elk carcass found unclaimed near harvest site of another elk

Game wardens with Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks are looking for tips from the public about two bull elk that were killed in Hunting District 380 west of Toston.

Specifically, game wardens are looking for information about a hunting party who harvested and removed a bull elk on Sunday, Nov. 30, which was the last day of the general season. In the same area, wardens found an untouched carcass of a second bull elk. FWP game wardens believe the hunting party that harvested and removed the elk on Nov. 30 may have information related to the unclaimed elk.

This area is between two county roads that access the hunting district—Johnny's Gulch Road and North Fork of Lone Mountain Road. The elk was found in an area adjacent to large Bonneville Power Administration transmission lines near the Bureau of Land Management access road referred to as Dandy Road.

FWP wardens are interested in visiting with anyone who may have been in that area on the morning of Nov. 30, specifically the hunting party associated with harvesting a bull elk there. Anyone with information is asked to contact game warden Jacie Vonada at 406-502-8581 or visit tipmont.mt.gov
