Lewis Paul Christian September 21, 1966 — November 29, 2025

Lewis, fun loving spirit, husband, father and friend, passed on the morning of November 29 th . Lewis was born September 21 st , 1966, to Jeanette and Ted Christian in Yuma Arizona. Lewis was raised in Winterhaven, California, with his mother, stepfather Robert Stanford, and his siblings.

Growing up he loved sports, playing football and competing in track. He loved to fish and helped on his uncle's vineyard. After graduating Lewis, his parents and sister moved to Cooke City Montana in April of 1989. Eventually he got married to his first wife Tracy Gangstad. Together they had two children, Taylor and Louie. After a few years they divorced. Lewis moved around a bit before settling in Bozeman Montana, where he eventually met and married the love of his life, Sara Brinig in August of 1999. Together they had three children. Paul, Lucius, and Mia Christian.

Lewis was a "jack of all trades " doing everything from cooking to concrete. He really loved his family, he was most proud of his children, and loved his dogs. He also enjoyed camping, fishing with his son Paul, watching football, telling good stories, and making his famous chocolate chip cookies with his daughter Mia. Lewis even had a green thumb and always looked forward to spring. Lewis ' most proud moment was officiating his son Lucius ' wedding last September.

He had survived by his wife Sara Christian, and children Paul, Lucius and his wife Lucia, Mia, Taylor and Louie. His sisters Twylah, Susie, Tender, Tracy, Tina, and brothers Billy, Marty and Bobby in addition to many nieces and nephews.

the University of Montana in 2016.

A proud alumnus and longtime campus leader, Piazzola brings more than 20 years of experience in student affairs, most recently serving as Senior Director of Student Life. In this role, he has provided leadership for Residence Life & Housing, Orientation, and the Bulldog Card Center, Bookstore, Student Wellness Center, Student Leadership Academy, and other key student programs. Known for his student-centered approach and deep commitment to experiential education, Piazzola is dedicated to strengthening student engagement, wellbeing, and success at Montana Western.

"Montana Western shaped who I am—first as a student and then as a professional—and it is truly the honor of my life to serve as Dean of Students at my alma mater. I am deeply committed to creating an inclusive, caring, and engaging campus where every student feels supported, connected, and empowered to succeed both inside and outside the classroom."

Spending much of his free time enjoying all that Southwest Montana has to offer, Piazzola and his family stay active in the outdoors through camping, fishing, hunting, hiking, and side-by-side rides through the Montana mountains with his father, exploring the beauty of the region they call home. He rarely misses a chance to take part in local community or campus events and has deep roots in Dillon. A devoted animal lover, he is also the proud owner of four dogs and serves as Vice Chair of the Beaverhead Animal Shelter Board, reflecting the same values of connection, service, and belonging that guide his work at Montana Western. Carrying on cherished Italian food traditions, he also enjoys cooking time-honored family recipes and sharing them with others as a way to bring people together.

He will start the duties of his new position at Montana Western on January 5, 2026.

Secretary Christi Jacobsen refers alleged double voters to Montana's U.S. Attorney

For the second time this year, Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen has reported to Montana's top federal prosecutor the names of voters registered in multiple states who allegedly cast ballots in both, which is an election crime. After receiving notice of suspected double voting, the Secretary of State's Office referred the case to U.S. Attorney Kurt Alme.

"Every eligible vote is a precious right that should never be canceled by a counterfeit vote," said Secretary Jacobsen.

In 2023, the Montana Legislature passed a law strengthening Montana's election procedures to prevent voting in both Montana and in other states. The law was enjoined by an Obama-appointed federal court judge, making it more difficult for the state to guard against double voting. The Montana Constitution requires the prevention of abuses of the electoral system.

"Although the courts have attempted to restrict the ability to protect common-sense election laws, I remain committed that double voting in Montana will not be tolerated," said Secretary Jacobsen.

Recently, Montana media published an article about close and tied races in the state. Clearly, a single illegal vote can undermine the voting power of all eligible voters in a local election. According to the Public Interest Legal Foundation (PILF), over the past 30 years, more than 1,200 elections have resulted in ties, while over 450 elections were decided by just one vote.

Game wardens seek information on four whitetail bucks dumped near Bridger

Bucks likely shot near end of general hunting season with only heads removed

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks game wardens are seeking the public's help in gathering information on four whitetail bucks that were dumped on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) property between Bridger and Belfry in Carbon County. Only the heads were removed from the bucks and all meat was wasted.

The bucks, which were ungutted, were discovered in the Cub Creek area on BLM property on Dec. 6. It is believed all bucks were killed near the end of the general hunting season, which concluded on Nov. 30. Three wild turkey carcasses were also found dumped in the area.

In Montana, hunters are prohibited from wasting any part of a game animal that is suitable for food, including the tenderloins, backstraps and all of the four quarters. Additionally, it is illegal to dump animal parts.

FWP is urging anyone who saw suspicious activity in the Cub Creek area, or who has information about the potential person or persons responsible, to report the information.

To report information, contact game warden Frank Blundetto at 406-598-8114 or visit tipmont.mt.gov. Those who report information may be eligible for a cash reward of up to $1,000.

Local Author Sally Cobau at The Bookstore

The Bookstore will host local author Sally Cobau for a reading

ANIMALS IN THE HOUSE

and reception on Monday, December 15th from 5:00-7:00. She will read from her new book "Animals in the House: 18 Sonnets starting at 5:30. Cobau is a writer, teacher, Mom, yoga practitioner and hiker. She received her MFA in poetry from the University of Montana in Missoula. Her poems have been published in rattler, Hole in the Head Review, Ekphrastic Review, Writing in a Woman's voice, Tulip tree Review, Poems Across the Big Sky (volumes 1 and II) and other journals and anthologies. Her poem "Weasel in Winter in the Summer Cottage" received a "Honorable Mention" award in Writer's Digest Annual Writing Competition. She's also had prose published in Room magazine, the Sun, and Oyster River Pages. When she's not writing, she's exploring the mountains near her home.

Robert Wrigley had this to say about Cobau and Animals in the House: "In this delightful and edgy chapbook she puns and teases and misdirects, but always in the service of an uneasy truth, a truth that feels hard-won but earned, deadly serious but still somehow as playful as can be." She writes about many people including her husband, children, parents, grandparents, friends, students, and past loves. She creates an ever-shifting landscape to illustrate the fine line between whimsy and despair. The "characters" in these poems never fully disappear. Even in death, they inhabit a ghostly presence, haunting the old homes. Likewise, the animals that live in the houses provide a comfortable opposition to the human world as they enhance our earthy, beautiful existence. The ranchers, river guides, professors, and dog lovers in the town of Dillon form the heart of her work.

If you have any questions or would like to reserve copies of the book please call The Bookstore. 683-6807
