Bozeman Symphony Presents Masters of Melody

The Bozeman Symphony will spotlight its principal clarinetist and acclaimed horn section in Masters of Melody: Mozart, Copland, & Haydn, with performances on Saturday, Jan. 24, at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday, Jan. 25, at 2:30 p.m. at the Willson Auditorium in Bozeman.

The program opens with the elegance and sophistication of Mozart's Symphony No. 38, one of the composer's final orchestral masterpieces. The work begins with a dramatic, slow introduction before bursting into a spirited main theme that foreshadows the beloved overture to The Magic Flute.

Also featured is Aaron Copland's Clarinet Concerto, commissioned by jazz legend Benny Goodman and performed by the Symphony's principal clarinetist, Wendy Bickford. The concerto opens with one of Copland's most lyrical and expressive melodies before evolving into an electrifying, jazz-inspired finale.

The concert concludes with the Concerto for Two Horns and Orchestra, attributed to Haydn, showcasing the brilliance and virtuosity of the Bozeman Symphony's principal and associate principal horns Madeleine Folkerts and Elizabeth Schmidt.

These performances are made possible by the generous support of sponsors The Dvana Foundation, Calum & Tricia DeSouza, Bob & Donna Ritchie, Bruce & Kimberlie Jodar, Barbara & Ben Phinney, and David & Kippy Sands.

Tickets start at $30 for adults, with discounted tickets available for students. Purchase online at <https://fthr-content.bozemansymphony.org/CL3MelodyPrint> or by calling 406-585-9774. Tickets at the door are subject to availability.

Attorney General Knudsen files lawsuit against Uber

Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen filed a lawsuit Monday against Uber, a ridesharing and delivery company, over its unfair and deceptive practices for its subscription service, Uber One.

The lawsuit was filed along with the Federal Trade Commission, 22 states, and the District of Columbia and outlines concerns with the company's enrollment, billing, and cancellation practices for its Uber One subscription services, which Uber promotes as saving money on rides and deliveries. These practices could be a violation of Montana's Unfair Trade Practices.

The lawsuit states that Uber made it extraordinarily difficult to cancel Uber One once enrolled.

Other issues outlined in the lawsuit include Uber's improper use of negative option marketing tactics when it offered free trial subscriptions – a practice that automatically charges consumers if they do not cancel a free trial; and misleading consumers about the amounts they could save when subscribing to Uber One.

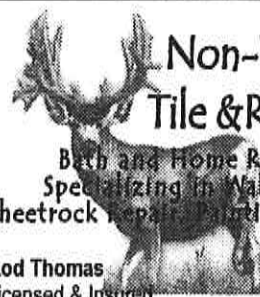

The lawsuit, filed in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California, seeks restitution, as well as penalties, costs, and an injunction against Uber. The trial is currently scheduled for February 2027.

MHP operation in St. Regis results in multiple drug seizures and arrests

Montana Highway Patrol troopers conducted an interdiction operation in St. Regis from December 7-11 to combat crime and remove illicit drugs from the community.

During the operation, MHP's Criminal Interdiction Team (CIT) and Strategic Enforcement Traffic Team (SETT) worked alongside the United States Border Patrol, the Mineral County Sheriff's Office, and Air National Guard Counterdrug aviation, seizing over 14 pounds of methamphetamine, nearly 14 pounds of cocaine, 4 grams of fentanyl powder, 118 grams of marijuana, and resulted in 41 deportation arrests. In total, 51 arrests were made during this operation.

"I am proud of the outstanding work that our teams did during this operation to keep drugs and fugitives off our streets. By partnering with local agencies, we continue to keep Montana a safe place for all," said Col. Kurt Sager.

"This operation demonstrates the power of collaboration," said Chief Patrol Agent Jason Liebe of the U.S. Border Patrol Spokane Sector. "By combining intelligence, aerial surveillance, and coordinated enforcement, we were able to disrupt criminal activity, recover missing juveniles, and strengthen public safety across western Montana."

Additionally, members of our Criminal Interdiction Team made three deportation arrests and interdicted over 14 pounds of methamphetamine in Billings during this time.
