Armed Barricade Situation Outside Dillon Resolved Without Injuries

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

On December 31, 2025, at approximately 10:46 p.m., deputies with the Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office responded to a reported civil dispute involving a firearm in a subdivision just outside of Dillon.

According to the Sheriff's Office, deputies arrived on scene and began processing the incident, taking statements from witnesses. The investigation determined that a resident had discharged a firearm into the air multiple times in response to nearby fireworks. Witnesses also reported that the individual had retreated into his residence and was unwilling to come to the door when contacted by law enforcement. Deputies on scene suspected alcohol was a contributing factor in the incident.

The situation quickly escalated into an armed and barricaded subject, prompting deputies to request additional resources to assist with serving warrants on both the suspect and the residence. Three additional deputies and one U.S. Forest Service Law Enforcement Officer responded to assist, despite the call occurring on New Year's Eve.

Deputies established a perimeter around the residence and initiated contact with the suspect by phone. After a lengthy standoff and negotiations, the suspect ultimately exited the residence peacefully and was taken into custody without further incident.

The individual was booked into the Beaverhead County Jail, and deputies recovered the firearm used during the incident. Authorities reported that no law enforcement officers or community members were injured.

The Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office thanked the community for its patience during the response and reiterated the importance of following basic firearm safety rules. Officials emphasized knowing one's target and what lies beyond it, reminding residents never to discharge a firearm unless certain of where the bullet may travel and what it could strike.

The investigation into the incident remains ongoing.

Attorney General Knudsen announces new MLEA administrator

Attorney General Austin Knudsen announced today the appointment of Anne Dormady to the position of Montana Law Enforcement Academy (MLEA) administrator. Prior to her appointment, Dormady served as the bureau chief for the Division of Criminal Investigation's Crime Information Bureau.

"I am proud to appoint Anne to lead the Montana Law Enforcement Academy," Attorney General Knudsen said. "Her expertise and leadership will ensure the academy continues to do an excellent job preparing law enforcement officers with the tools and skills necessary to serve and protect Montana communities."

"It's an honor to be selected by Attorney General Knudsen to lead the Academy and train the next generation of law enforcement officers. It's no small task, but I am looking forward to this new challenge," Dormady said. "Our focus at MLEA will remain on developing well-trained officers who are ready to uphold the law and protect the people of Montana."

Dormady began her career with DCI in 2003 as a DCI analyst. Nine years later she became a sworn DCI agent and then a supervisory agent overseeing an intelligence and investigative support unit. In 2021, she took over the Crime Information Bureau which includes the Montana Analysis and Technical Information Center, Sexual or Violent Offender Registry, Criminal Justice Information Network Services Section, Criminal Records and Identification Services Section, and Computer Internet Crime Unit.

Dormady is taking over following the retirement of the previous administrator, Joel Wendland.

Gruhler Picks Up Fifth Player of the Week Award of the Season

Montana Western men's basketball player Kyle Gruhler earned his fifth Erck Hotels/ Frontier Conference Men's Basketball Offensive Player of the Week award of the campaign, the conference office announced Monday.

Gruhler led the Bulldogs to another 2-0 weekend on the road in Frontier play as they defeated Dickinson State (78-73) and Bismarck State (96-66).

The senior led all players in scoring in both games, shooting 50.0 percent (18-36) from the floor and 52.6 percent (10-19) from distance while draining all five free-throw attempts.

He dropped 24 second-half points (8-16 FG, 4-7 3FG, 4-4 FT) to push UMW to a 13-point comeback over Dickinson State.

The Vancouver, Wash., native followed that with a 27-point outing (10-20 FG, 6-12 3FG, 1-1 FT) in Western's commanding victory over Bismarck State.

Gruhler also registered 10 rebounds (six offensive), four assists, a block, and a steal while committing zero turnovers on the weekend.

LOOKING AHEAD: Up next, the Bulldogs return to Straugh Gymnasium to host MSU-Northern and Providence.
