Jason Lee Pursel, 53, of Dillon, passed away Saturday, January 24, 2026 at Barretts Hospital. He was born on March 15, 1972, in Quakertown, PA to David & Janet (Mundy) Pursel. The complete obituary will be published once finalized.

Randall Bergeson, 81

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of one of the true characters of his time.

Randall Bergeson, age 81, passed away peacefully on January 23, 2026, at Billings Medical Center due to complications after suffering a stroke. Randall resided in Belgrade, MT and was formerly from Dell, MT.

Randall was born on June 27, 1944, in Rexburg, Idaho to Reed and Louie (Roberts) Bergeson. The 3rd of 6 boys, raised in Parker, Idaho. He graduated from South Fremont High School in St. Anthony, Idaho in 1962. His life after high school included serving in the National Guard, later working for Larry Rigby of T Span Buildings as a builder of timber span and steel buildings, which led to him owning his own steel building company and eventually landing in Montana where he rekindled a relationship with a former classmate, Patty Morton-Clarno.

Randall and Patty were married on December 28, 1985, at the home of her Mother Betty Morton. Included in the marriage was a ranch beneath Dixon Mountain in Dell, MT and 2 stepchildren Dee and Bill Clarno. During his time in Dell, he took on the role of a rancher, helped neighbors with their building projects and he also ran a feller buncher for a logging company up Bloody Dick Creek near Jackson, MT.

Under the early setting sun of Dixon Mountain, he and Patty enjoyed the ranching way of life together, he saw both Dee and Bill marry the Love of their lives Shannon Christopher and Tracy Hess and proudly took on the role of Grandfather and Great Grandfather. After Patty passed away in 2006, Randall moved to Belgrade, MT a few years later, where he spent the remainder of his years.

He was an avid fisherman, whether fishing for brook trout in a mountain stream or whatever he could catch fishing on the ice. He anxiously awaited the beginning of baseball season on

Life sentence for Livingston man for murder

A Livingston man was sentenced to life at the Montana State Prison for murdering a man in 2022, Attorney General Austin Knudsen announced today.

Skyler Griebel, 33, was found guilty in October 2025 of deliberate homicide. In February 2022, Griebel was threatening his girlfriend with a gun, when she called her ex-boyfriend, Tyler Netto, for assistance. After Netto arrived, Griebel confronted him with the gun. Netto fled to another room and attempted to call law enforcement while Griebel remained outside the door. Netto then deployed pepper spray as he ran out of the house when Griebel shot and killed him. Griebel fled the scene. At trial, Griebel admitted he shot the victim, but claimed justifiable use of force and tried to argue he was not the first aggressor. He was convicted by a jury after a nine-day trial and approximately two hours of deliberation.

The case was prosecuted by Thorin Geist and Stephanie Robles. The case was investigated by Park County Sheriff's Office who had assistance from Gallatin Sheriff's Office, Belgrade Police Department, Montana Highway Patrol, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, and Montana Division of Criminal Investigation.

Western Men's Basketball Drops Nail Biter to #15 Montana Tech, 68-64

The UMW men's basketball program (14-6, 9-5 FC) was clipped by #15 Montana Tech (16-4, 10-4 FC) 68-64.

The game came down to the final 30 seconds and four made free throws by the Orediggers proved to be the difference maker.

STAT BREAKDOWN – Western shot 34.3 percent (24-70) from the field, 32.1 percent (9-28) from three, and 77.8 percent (7-9) from the foul line. The Bulldogs registered 46 rebounds, 14 assists, five blocks, and three steals. They posted 26 points in the paint, nine points off turnovers, and 16 second-chance points.

LEADERBOARD – David Young led the team with 13 points, followed by Jacob Ankeny (12) and Emanuel Steward (11).

Young, Ankeny, Joshua Whiteside, and Billy Carlson all registered eight rebounds. Steward dished out a game-best six assists while Young tied for the game-high in steals (two). Whiteside shared the game-high in blocks with three.

NOTABLES – Whiteside swatted three blocks for second consecutive contest. The Bulldogs pulled down a season-high 46 boards. Ankeny scored in double figures for the second time in the last three outings.

GAME SUMMARY – It was a back-and-forth ball game in the first 20 minutes, featuring four ties.

Neither team led by more than five points in the half, and the visitors held a 34-33 advantage as the teams headed into the break.

UMW shot 35.3 percent (12-34) from the floor, 42.9 percent (6-14) from deep, and 75.0 percent (3-4) from the line in the first half.

The Bulldogs came out firing in the second period, quickly building up a nine-point lead, but the Orediggers clawed their way back into a one-point lead halfway through the frame.

The final 10 minutes was an all-out battle and the two sides were tied at 64 with just over a minute left in regulation. Montana Tech managed to put away the final four points and take the win.
