Cynthia J. White

October 13, 1950 — January 26, 2026

Cynthia J. White, 75, of Dillon, passed away Monday, January 26, at her home. She was born on October 13, 1950, in Grand Rapids, MI to Edward & Rose (Leonardo) Harris.

The complete obituary will be published once finalized.

Arrangements are under the direction of Brundage Funeral Home. Condolences for the family may be posted online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com

Elisabeth Gertrude Brillhart, 91

Elisabeth Gertrude Brillhart, 91, of Dillon, passed away Monday, January 05, 2026 at her home surrounded by her loving family.

On July 2, 1934, Reverend William R. Smart and Gertrude Charman Smart welcomed their fourth child and only daughter, Elisabeth Gertrude Smart. Beth spent her early childhood in London, but when the war became too dangerous, she and her brother John were sent to the country to stay with her godmother, Arbie. Of her time there, she held fond memories of riding bikes with her brother John and beloved dog, Timmy. During the summers, her whole family would spend time camping in the English countryside, away from the city. She talked of being tossed up onto the roof of the big canvas tent and sliding down, to be caught by her two eldest brothers who were home from boarding school.

Beth went to fashion design school in London before deciding to move to Canada in 1957. She eventually found herself in Ohio. She married LaVon Brillhart in 1960. They welcomed son Mark in 1961 followed closely by daughter Sara in 1962. Beth was happiest at their family home on Eber road. She tended to her beautiful garden, enjoyed time with her goats, spent many hours painting and let her children explore the great world. It was important that Mark and Sara be exposed to different things, taking day trips to the art museum or making a family trip to the symphony.

Beth made the most out of what life gave her. She was resilient, perseverant and fiercely independent. Creative in all ways. She had dreams of being an artist and fashion designer, and found her own path to achieve both. Although she was disappointed to leave her art community in Toledo, she found a community of artists in southwest Montana. Finding a home in Dillon also allowed her to be neighbors with her daughter and son in law for 25 years and be an integral part of her grandchildren and great grandchildren's lives.

It is hard, in just a few paragraphs, to describe the magic of Beth. A creative, an artist, a clothing designer, an activist, an animal empath, a gardener, a mom, a gram, and a loyal friend. We will miss her fierce spirit and seeing cards from her in the mail. She will be deeply missed by her daughter Sara and son in law Andrew, as well as her grandchildren, Dylan, Kelsie, Grace, Dana, and Jack, and great grandchildren, Ira, Sylvie, and Charlotte. She was preceded in death by her husband, LaVon, and son Mark.

Condolences for the family may be posted online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com

Margaret Kachadurian presentation upcoming at Dillon Public Library

Saturday February 7 - 11:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. at Dillon Public Library
"Healthy Parents, Healthy Children - Mindfulness for Families"

This is open to the public; parents and guardians, if you bring your child there will be a separate place with activities for them.

This presentation is part of the Strengthening Families, Safeguarding Futures: A Community-Based Approach to Preventing Child Abuse and Neglect grant. The grant was received from Montana Children's Trust Fund by Xuan Li of the University of Montana-Western, Dillon Friends of the Library, and the Dillon Public Library. Everyone is welcome to attend. Presentations will continue through until fall of 2026.

Margaret Kachadurian is a licensed clinical social worker who specializes in teaching mindfulness skills to turn everyday experiences into lasting inner strengths. Margaret is a co-founder and Executive Director for Montana Mindfulness Project. Their vision is to help grow a healthier and kinder world and foster mental health and well-being in Montana communities and schools.

PRESENTATION WILL COVER: - learning what mindfulness is, what it's not, and the benefits of practicing the skills.

- Mindfulness is about being curious and open to trying something new that will help you grow and develop inner strength. All you need to bring with you is enough curiosity to try a few practices and see how they land for you in a safe, supportive environment.

- The basic practices are things we do everyday: breathe, sit, move, eat, talk and relate with one another.

We'll try out these practices by slowing down enough to be in touch with how vital our 5 senses are in relieving our frustration, anxiety and depression. The goal is to replace negative emotions and behavior with positive emotions and behaviors. Discovering inner joy, always available but most often buried in ourselves, each other and the world we live in is our true human potential that we can cultivate - every moment, every day.

- Mindful parenting practices teach ways to take care of yourself to be fully alive and present with your children.

If the parent is healthy, strong and happy, the child is healthy, strong and happy - and family life becomes the warm heart-place where love's current flows, no matter what's happening "You can't control the waves but you can learn to surf" (Jon Kabat-Zinn)

- A Mindful Parenting FREE online 6 week course is being offered starting Feb 11th, every Wednesday from 7-8 pm for easy access to learn practices you can use right away. Sign up for one or more weeks at mtmindfulness.org mtmindfulness.org website RESOURCES page has free recorded practices for everyday use.

Brown's Office Takes Action, Urges Montanans to Prepare with Adequate Flood Coverage

A month removed from the historic wind and water events in Northwest Montana, the State Insurance Commissioner's team held a community forum and listening session in Libby.

Commissioner Brown encourages all Montanans to take steps now to minimize the risk of future floods and other peril losses.

Insurance Commissioner James Brown announced that his insurance team at the Commissioner of Securities and Insurance (CSI) has been on the ground this week in Northwest Montana to both help impacted families work through their insurance coverage questions and to educate consumers on flood insurance following the devastating December flooding and windstorms. The December events caused significant damage in Libby, Troy, and surrounding communities in Lincoln, Sanders, and Flathead Counties, as well as on the Blackfeet Reservation. As part of the outreach, Lincoln County Commissioner Brent Teske graciously provided CSI staff with a tour of site locations, and DNRC staffer Traci Sears gave an overview of that agency's extensive mitigation efforts.

Meeting with Montanans across these communities, the agency is directly hearing about the true extent of the damage and devastation families have experienced. Stories from these Montana communities paint a heartbreaking picture of loss. Agency staff heard from small business owners and residents that, following the storms, they returned to homes and properties that had been inundated by floodwater, surrounded by debris, and cut off by damaged roads and infrastructure.

Commissioner Brown said that the stories of loss at the Libby open house, hosted by the agency and Senator Mike Cuffe of Eureka, are shared by hundreds of other Montanans who were harmed by the December storms. "Unfortunately, many folks who sustained property damage have scant options available to help them rebuild. Standard homeowners insurance policies typically do not cover flood damage, meaning many Montanans discover that some of the most serious losses they've suffered may not be covered by their existing policies."

Brown stated that "this agency has experienced this outcome before. In prior flood events, only a small fraction of affected homeowners carried separate flood insurance policies. This serves as an important reminder that the best way to protect your home and belongings is to purchase adequate insurance coverage."

Veteran's Corner Update #345

By Mike Lawson

Greetings to all of you who read my SW MT Veteran update articles. I am a bit shocked to read that the snow pack in the high country, across most of Montana, is normal for this time of year. But we do need it in the lower country, so a prayer or two to the snow Gods is a comment I hear quite often.

Veteran News Updates:

• On the local Veteran front, our DAV Vans have been very busy this month after the holiday season. I coordinate for Butte, Anaconda and Dillon covering the counties of Silver Bow, Deer Lodge, Granite, Powell, Beaverhead, part of Madison and the southern part of Jefferson. It's a large area which we cover with 4 drivers in Butte, 1 in Anaconda and 3 in Dillon. We take Veterans to Butte, Ft Harrison/Helena, Missoula, Bozeman, Billings and even one to Kalispell. We need more drivers to lighten the load and keep the ones we have from burning out. Dillon is in good shape but Anaconda and Butte have a great DAV Driver need. If it's something you might consider, please call Mike at 406-560-3591. It is rewarding to help these Veterans. Drivers can be men or women, Veteran or non-veteran. Hope to hear from some of you.

• There have been a number of career Veterans who were not able to finish their careers in the military because of a permanent combat-related injury or exposure to chemicals, toxins, etc., while on active duty. Many were given disability but denied retirement benefits. A bipartisan bill before Congress is the Major Richard Star Act, which is supported by all the Veteran' Organizations, to correct the long-standing injustice in how disabled veterans are compensated with retirement benefits. Hopefully this will get passed and give much needed relief to some of these affected Veterans.

• Veterans wanting to file for disability claims can go to any Veteran Representive from your state, the VA. or Veteran Service Organization such as the American Legion, VFW, DAV, Purple Heart, etc and have it done for free. There are for-profit consultants (claim sharks) across the country that are making millions of dollars by charging military veterans to file these claims. The word needs to get out, that this needs to stop. More on this next time.

Blood Drives in the Dillon

Dillon Community Blood Drive February 17th - https://www.redcrossblood.org/give.html/drive-results?zipSponsor=Dillon

Second: University of Montana Western Blood Drive February 18th - https://www.redcrossblood.org/give.html/drive-results?zipSponsor=UMWBULLDOGS

American Red Cross is alerting the public about a severe blood shortage as requests from hospitals exceed the available supply of blood, drawing down the blood supply by about 35% over the past month. Hospitals already strained by the worst flu season in nearly 20 years are now also being forced to triage critical blood products.

Compounding the issue, intense winter weather and freezing temperatures are expected across much of the country in the coming weeks, potentially delaying or canceling blood drives and forcing vital units of blood to go uncollected. Donors in areas unaffected by weather are crucial to ensuring those in need of transfusions have access to lifesaving care across the country.

Without immediate action, patients who rely on transfusions — including trauma victims, mothers in childbirth, and people with sickle cell disease or cancer — face serious risk. The shortage is especially serious for types O, A negative and B negative blood. Donors of all blood types are urged to donate now and throughout the winter.
