Beaverhead County Spelling Bee

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

Twenty-seven students from across Beaverhead County competed in this year's Beaverhead County Spelling Bee, held at the 4-H Building at the Beaverhead County Fairgrounds.

The competition began with the traditional opening rounds featuring simpler words before gradually increasing in difficulty. Several spellers were eliminated in the first round, and by the second round the field had been narrowed to 10 competitors.

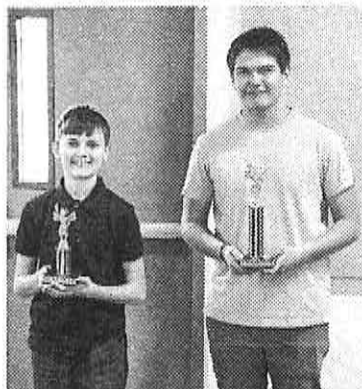

As the spelling intensified, the competition was reduced to four spellers. The word silhouette marked the first elimination at that stage. Paparazzi, pumpnickel, and isolation were all spelled correctly, leaving three spellers remaining.

The next round featured charitable, obliterate, and influential, all of which were spelled correctly. Exaggerate eliminated one competitor, followed by a misspelling of tendencies. The word riddance then tripped up another speller.

Refinery was spelled correctly, but haphazard was missed, bringing the field back to three. Varnish was spelled correctly by two spellers, while oregano eliminated the third, leaving two finalists.

In the final rounds, baptismal and solstice were both misspelled. Ferret and folklore were spelled correctly, leading to a back-and-forth spell-off. The word forfeit caused another stumble, but pyramid was spelled correctly. The final word, felonious, was spelled correctly, crowning Colt Swasey as the 2026 Beaverhead County Spelling Bee Champion.

Rhett Baldwin finished as the runner-up.

Bulldog Women's Basketball Overpowers Dickinson State 80-56 Saturday

The Montana Western women's basketball program (10-12, 8-10 FC) handled business against Dickinson State (6-16, 4-14 FC) with an 80-56 victory Saturday evening.

The Bulldogs held just a four-point lead at the half, but a 30-point third frame put the game well out of reach of the visitors.

"It's very hard to win games in our league and for us to get two at home is really impressive," head coach Ryan Sullivan said. "We played really well offensively on the weekend and had great contributions from everyone that played."

STAT BREAKDOWN: UMW shot 54.2 percent (32-59) from the field, 33.3 percent (7-21) from downtown, and 69.2 percent (9-13) from the foul line. Western registered 34 rebounds, 16 assists, nine steals, and four blocks. The Bulldogs posted 42 points in the paint, 15 points off turnovers, eight second-chance points, and 43 bench points.

LEADERBOARD

Bailee Saylor led all players with 21 points. Kyle Pancost (12), Keke Davis (12), and Tayva Phillips (10) were also in double figures for the Dawgs. Pancost registered game highs in both rebounds (nine) and blocks (three). Lund dished out a game-best five assists. Phillips and Mila Hawk each snagged two steals.

NOTABLES: Four players reached double digits in scoring. Second-straight 80-point game. Pancost matched her career-high in points. Saylor has scored at least 18 points in each of her last four outings. Davis posted back-to-back double-digit scoring efforts. Back-to-back four-block games.

GAME SUMMARY: The opening frame was evenly matched between both teams, and Dickinson State led by one, 15-14, after 10 minutes. The visitors increased their advantage to as many eight over the first five minutes of the second quarter, but the Bulldogs pulled back into the lead 30-26 by the halftime whistle.

UMW shot 40.7 percent (11-27) from the floor, 22.2 percent (2-9) from three, and 75.0 percent (6-8) from the line in the first half.

Western came out of the break firing on all cylinders, outscoring the Blue Hawks 30-11 to lead by 23, 60-37, with one period to go. The Bulldogs shot 70.6 percent (12-17) from the field and 50.0 percent (4-8) from three in the third quarter. UMW led by as many as 27 in the fourth while DSU never got closer than 19 and Western cruised to the 24-point win.

NYCB Guest Artists Isabella LaFreniere and Ryan Tomash to perform in MBC's Sleeping Beauty

NYCB Principal, Isabella LaFreniere, and Soloist, Ryan Tomash, will join Montana Ballet Company's production of Sleeping Beauty, accompanied by a full Bozeman Symphony conducted by Norman Huynh, at the Willson Auditorium on March 7 & 8, 2026.

A native of Lambertville, Michigan, Isabella LaFreniere trained at Toledo Ballet, Northeast Academy of Dance, the Joffrey Academy of Dance, and the School of American Ballet, where she studied on full scholarship and received the Mae L. Wein Award for Outstanding Promise. She joined New York City Ballet in 2014, was promoted to soloist in 2022, and principal dancer in 2023. Her repertoire includes principal roles in works by George Balanchine, Jerome Robbins, Justin Peck, Christopher Wheeldon, and others, as well as originating roles in new ballets by leading contemporary choreographers.

Ryan Tomash was born in Toronto, Ontario. He began his ballet training at age 10 at Canada's National Ballet School under Sergiu Stefanski, Alexander Gorbatsevich, Raymond Smith, and Ana Jojic. In 2017, Tomash joined the Royal Danish Ballet as a member of the corps de ballet, becoming a Soloist in 2021 and a Principal Dancer in 2022. Tomash originated the role of Romeo in the world premiere of Iñaki Urlezaga's Romeo and Juliet at Teatro Argentina in 2023, and he has also performed as a guest artist with Tivoli Ballet and Hamburg Ballet. In August 2025, Tomash joined NYCB as a Soloist.

Joining MBC, LaFreniere, and Tomash is the Bozeman Symphony, conducted by Norman Huynh.

Norman Huynh is Music Director of the Bozeman Symphony and the Britt Music & Arts Festival in Oregon. He has earned widespread acclaim for his natural musicality, technical command, dynamic presence on the podium, imaginative programming, and ability to connect with new audiences. Huynh has guest-conducted many of North America's leading orchestras, including the New York Philharmonic, St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, San Diego Symphony, Seattle Symphony, Minnesota Orchestra, Oregon Symphony, Detroit Symphony Orchestra, and Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra, among others.

In addition, MBC has expanded its collaboration within the Bozeman arts community to include Genevieve Trygstad-Burke, Co-Founder and Executive Artistic Director of Raison D'être Dance

"Really proud of the work our staff did building relationships with these young men and bringing them into the Bulldog family," head coach Ryan Nourse said. "This is a very athletic and well-rounded group positionality. We addressed the line of scrimmage well on both sides of the ball, especially on the offensive line. I believe we will see in the next several years this group will have a huge impact on the success of Bulldog Football."

He is the son of John and Shandi Anderson and plans to major in early childhood education.

Stetson Armes, Offensive Line 6-3, 250, Sidney, Mont., Sidney HS Armes joins the Bulldogs from Sidney HS. He earned first team all-conference honors in the 2025-26 season. He is the son of Trevor Armes and Stacia Roy and plans to major in farm business management.

Thomas Avery, Safety 6-2, 220, Yacolt, Wash., Battleground HS Avery is a safety out of Battleground High School in Yacolt, Wash. He was a two-time all-league player. He is the son of Jesse and Carey Avery.

Cormack Batt, Safety 6-3, 165, Missoula, Mont., Big Sky HS Batt comes to Dillon from Big Sky High School in Missoula. He has received two first-team all-state, two first team all-conference, and one second team all-state honors at safety. He is the son of John and Anecia Batt and will major in K-12 Physical Education and Health.

Barrett Bessette, Linebacker 6-0, 190, St. Regis, Mont., St. Regis HS Bessette joins the Bulldogs from St. Regis High School. He is a two-time all-state honoree on both the offensive and defensive side of the ball. He is the son of Jeannine Carr and will major in business.

Veteran's Corner Update #347

By Mike Lawson

The Marine Corps Leagues across the country usually do a once a month breakfast we call an "SOS Breakfast", which is an old Marine tradition. The beloved meaning to Marines is "Sh_t on a Shingle". This is usually hamburger gravy on biscuits.. We can laugh about it, but it is important that we meet together and share breakfast with one another. Our members and families enjoy this time with one another. Not every restaurant has this menu item, but many do. Here in Butte, this past Saturday, our Detachment #724 met at a local restaurant called "Annie's" and had a great time. We had an attendance of 28 people and traded stories like good Marines/Veterans do, although our wives added their comments as well.

Many Veterans with conditions like Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis, spinal injuries and other complex conditions, are sometimes forced to leave their homes and enter a VA Community Living Center. Many do not want to be anywhere but home. Because of Section 120 Of the Elizabeth Dole 21st Century Veterans Healthcare and Benefits Improvement of 2025, the VA's skilled home health care program will now cover the costs of in-home and community based services for these particular Veterans. This means they will pay 100% of the cost of similar care in a VA Community Living Center. This is an increase from the previous rate of 65%. The VA is asking that these Veterans and their families visit with their VA social worker to learn more about this change. This is a big deal for those Veterans to stay in their comfort zone, at home.

A word to the wise for the families whose Veterans are receiving disability payments. Be sure to let the VA know if and when that Veteran dies. This should be done as soon as possible to prevent survivors or executors from having to repay overpayments.
