Lorene Hatfield 90

Our dear mother passed on March 7,
at Pioneer Nursing Home.

She was born June 9, 1935 to Mattie and William Earl Swann in Taliaferro County, Crawfordville, Georgia. She was raised there. She had 2 sisters and 3 brothers. She attended public school until the age of 17.
At which time, her father passed. Lorene left school to work and assist her mother in providing for the family.

She married Marion Hatfield on May 10, 1957. They made their way to Montana to enjoy the scenery and live in the beauty of the state. They were together 68 years. They had 6 children who she deeply loved. Four boys and two girls had the pleasure of calling her "mom" Family was everything to her. She was an outstanding and loving mother to them all and an outstanding wife to Marion. Caring for her husband and children was her priority.

She loved the weather of the south with long growing seasons.
She enjoyed gardening and caring for plants. Lorene made the most of Montana's summer. She grew plants and vegetables every year.
Her yard was full of flowers every summer. Her favorite flower was dinnerplate dahlias.

She was an active member of First Presbyterian church. The church was very important to her.

For years, she performed custodial service for the church. She would sing old gospel songs at home. She had a beautiful voice.
Everybody who knew Lorene found her to be a sweet and special lady. She had many friends who enjoyed being around her. She became a resident of Pioneer Care & Rehabilitation in 2012 with her husband. While at Pioneer Care & Rehabilitation, she became friends with everyone employed there. She was loved by many.

She enjoyed being with her family. She participated in fishing, hunting and camping with all of them whenever the opportunity occurred. Christmas with all family members was a special time of year. They were all together.

She worked at the Parkview Acres Nursing Home at night as a nurses aid when her children were small. She then assisted people with their household cleaning projects and became friends with all of them. She worked at the Lion's Den for several years. She went back to cleaning for people for a few years. She then stopped working due to physical limitations.

Lorene was preceded in death by her husband, sons, Myron and Marty and beloved daughter-in-law, Tammy.

She is survived by daughters Marlene (Jim) Williamson, Marsha (Marty) Malesich and sons Mark (Angela) and Marlon.
Grandchildren Brad, Jamie, Keith and Brittany and several great grandchildren.

She will be dearly missed by her friends and family. She brought so much love and joy to them all.

Arrangements are under the direction of Brundage Funeral Home. Condolences for the family may be posted online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com

Patrick Jensen Steps Down as Montana Western Head Men's Basketball Coach

The University of Montana Western has announced that head men's basketball coach Patrick Jensen has stepped down from his position to pursue other career opportunities.

Jensen served as the Bulldogs' head coach for the past three seasons after previously spending five years as an assistant coach in the program. During his three-year tenure as head coach, he compiled an overall record of 50-38.

"I have made the difficult decision to step down as the Montana Western men's basketball coach," Jensen said. "Western has been an amazing place for me and my family over the last eight years. I am incredibly thankful for the opportunity that Chancellor Reid and Michael Feuling provided me.

"To all the players, I can't thank you enough for your dedication and trust in this program. You made these years so enjoyable. I also want to thank our assistant coaches, managers, athletic trainers, and everyone on campus and in the Dillon community for all their support over the years. My wife and I are excited for the next chapter and will always be grateful for everything Montana Western and the Dillon community have meant to us."

"I want to thank Coach Jensen for his dedication, hard work and everything he has done for our program and our student-athletes during his time as an assistant coach and over the past three years as head coach," said Montana Western Athletic Director Michael Feuling. "He poured everything he had into this role, and because of that, the future of Bulldog men's basketball remains bright. We are grateful for the impact he made on our student-athletes and our university. I wish him and his wife, Lexi, all the best as they begin their next chapter."

Montana Western will begin a national search for its next head men's basketball coach immediately.

Dillon Lions Club is Looking for New Members

The Dillon Lions Club would like to add new members to our existing membership in order to be even more effective at serving the community of Dillon and the surrounding areas. Our local Lions club is a part of Lions International – the largest service club organization in the world with nearly 50,000 clubs spread across the globe. The Lions organization was founded in 1917 in Illinois and adopted a motto of "We Serve". In fact, our club is one of over 50 Lions clubs here in Montana.

At the worldwide level, the Lions organization currently focuses on the issues of vision, hunger, the environment, childhood cancer and diabetes. Our Dillon Lions Club has, to date, chosen to focus primarily on vision along with a few other endeavors. Some examples of our community service have included: conducting preliminary vision exams at area schools and Youth Challenge; occasionally purchasing eye glasses for children of families in need; purchasing and delivering combination reading lamps/magnifying lenses for retirement homes in Dillon; awarding a college scholarship to a Dillon high school senior who has demonstrated outstanding community service; purchasing Christmas gifts for a family in need; picking up litter from an assigned stretch of highway near Dillon; and other activities. And to help support our activities, the Dillon Lions Club conducts the annual spring lobster sale.

If you're interested in participating in community service activities, we'd sure love to have you join our Dillon Lions Club. Our meetings are held once monthly during the months of September through May at 7 p.m. on the second Tuesday of each month. We meet at the Beaverhead County Treasurer Office at 102 N. Washington in Dillon. Feel free to drop by and attend a meeting to just get a sense of what our Dillon Lions Club is all about. For further information, please call Fred Chouinard at (406) 660-2247.

Veteran's Corner Update #351

By Mike Lawson

Veteran News Updates:

- It's concerning about what is going on with the war in Iran and our military personal being put in harms way. We've now lost 7 of our military members and we can only hope and pray that it won't be any more. Bringing all parties to the table to negotiate as quickly as possible, would seem like a good move. Many lives are at stake the longer this goes on. Already the economy is being affected with gas going over $100.00 a barrel and possibly going over $150.00 a barrel, by the end of March. It not a laughing matter and hopefully our politicians will work hard to use common sense and get this resolved.

- I recently read about a male Veteran who was diagnosed with breast cancer. Breast cancer is often thought of as a disease that primarily affects women. The statics say that one out of every 150 people that get breast cancer are men. This just highlights the importance of getting yearly checkups for cancer screenings for both men and women, You can learn more at cancer.va.gov.

- We don't have to go far in the Veteran world and become aware of a Veteran's spouse or relatives that are a caregiver for their beloved Veteran. This caregiving is challenging to say the least and the VA is aware of some of these challenges. This is especially true when being met with some tricky legal or financial questions. This is why the Program of Comprehensive Assistance for Family Caregivers (PCAFC) includes legal and financial planning services to support the unique needs of injured Veterans and their primary family caregivers. This service is completely free for VA Veteran caregivers. You can check PCAFC on the web or call the 24/7 Support Line at 1-833-422-7382.

- The VA now has a way to care for Veterans who suffer from obstructive pulmonary disease, asthma, and other pulmonary complications by bringing top-level specially care straight into a Veteran's home. They do this through VA Video Connect . It's called the TelePulmonology program. It's a great way to go and not have to travel. Check it out at VA Telehealth Services.
