Secretary Christi Jacobsen alerting Montanans of deceptive business solicitations

Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen is alerting Montana business owners about deceptive mailings and emails that look official and demand large payments for filing business documents or annual reports.

These mailings and emails often come from companies using names that appear official. These companies are not affiliated with the Montana Secretary of State's Office or any government agency.

Some of these solicitations include fine-print disclaimers stating they are not government offices, yet their design and wording still cause confusion for business owners.

There is NO FEE to File Your Annual Report Through April 15

Secretary Jacobsen waived the annual report filing fee for all Montana businesses that file by April 15, 2026. Businesses can safely file their 2026 annual report or access their official business documents directly through the official Secretary of State website at biz.sosmt.gov.

Secretary Jacobsen has waived the annual report filing fee each year beginning in 2024. She also announced that the 2027 annual report filing fee will be waived.

"I made a promise to make it easier to do business in Montana, and my team has worked hard to eliminate unnecessary bureaucracy so business owners can focus on their success, not red tape," said Secretary Jacobsen. "I won't stand by and let these deceptive solicitors, often from out-of-state, take advantage of hard-working Montanans. We're committed to protecting you, Montana!"

Secretary Jacobsen has referred misleading mailings to the Attorney General's Office and fought for Montana businesses by forcing one organization to halt its deceptive practices through a cease-and-desist letter.

How to Protect Yourself

- Look for disclaimers or fine print stating that the document is a solicitation, advertisement, or not associated with a government office or agency.
- Ignore mailings or emails demanding large fees for filings or certificates.
- Do not send any money to these companies. You may contact them directly to request removal from their mailing list or simply disregard their notices.
- Share this warning to help protect your fellow Montanans.

Per-se-ver-ance
 (noun)

Pushing through.
 Sticking through thick and thin.
 Cant stop me. |
 Cant stop you.
 Achieve.

As in: Chasing the thing that can't chase you back
 Choosing the right path that'll take you to the safe area
 All paths are treacherous but
 You learn to avoid the obstacles
 You learn to watch your step
 You learn to watch the past and present
 You learn to slow down your steps
 And learn to take it slower.

You take in the scenery
 You listen more
 You take in the present
 And stop worrying about the future
 The futures too far
 And the pasts too long ago
 Lifegoestoo fast
 Humans go too slow.
 Line up the times
 Tick to beat with the clock
 Take it all in before the clock ticks to its stop.
 Lives are worth living
 Live it to its fullest.
 Focus more on your desire than your doubt.
 And the dream will take care of itself.

As in: Thinking your path is hard
 When Lewis and Clark trekked through rivers
 Through bullet wounds
 Fights
 Snow
 High grasses
 Indians
 Death.
 To help us be where we are today
 Just two guys and 40 troops

With a dog and lady with baby
 2 years
 8,000 miles straight forward
 No stopping
 Perseverance.

As in: Surviving all to come
 No matter the size
 Tall
 Small
 Long
 Wide.
 No matter the obstacle
 Walls
 Doors
 Holes
 Time.
 You survive it all and come back stronger
 You've experienced it all
 And not afraid to do it again
 You fear nothing and
 Nothing stands a chance against you
 Not others.
 Not yourself.
 And im not saying everything is survivable.
 Just everything
 Until the last thing
 is.

Leaves of Three

Posted on Facebook 3/11/26 by the National Smokejumper Association

Leaves of three and smokejumpers. What could possibly go wrong?

In 1959, thirteen smokejumpers led by Al Cramer (Missoula 1943) jumped on a fire by the shores of Northern California's Lake Shasta. Boaters gathered to enjoy the impromptu show as the jumpers exited the plane and floated down towards them. Nils "Swede" Troedsson (Missoula 1959) and his partner touched down on the shore, while the rest landed in a sprawling field of tall, but cushy brush. Compared to splashing into the lake, crashing onto rocks, or getting tangled in treetops, the soft landing was a stroke of luck. To top it off, the fire was already under control, so the crew packed up and headed back to Redding. The day could not have gone any better.

Yet, by the time the crew got back to base, the day took an unexpected turn. The cushy brush most had landed in turned out to be the dreaded three-leaf-touch-me-not poison oak. At least six jumpers got poison oak so bad that they were off the jump list for two weeks.

Lee Lipscomb (Missoula 1958) had pulled his parachute off the brush and stuffed it into his paper sleeping bag for extra warmth. "I got the worst case of poison oak of my entire life and was hospitalized for one or two days when we got back to Redding."

Music In Our Schools Month Concert TONIGHT 7:30 pm BW Lodge:

March Marks the 41st Anniversary of Music In Our Schools
Month®

For more than 40 years, March has been designated by the National Association for Music Education (NAfME) as Music In Our Schools Month® (MIOSM®). The positive impact of music education in the lives of students lasts a lifetime. Therefore, ensuring equitable access to music education for the youngest members of our society—students—is paramount.

Every day, in classrooms and rehearsal rooms across our school district, music educators dedicate themselves to reaching all students with life-changing musical experiences. Parents, administrators, and the wider community often only see the wonderful results of music performances; however, we miss the months of practice and rehearsals and more importantly the learning process that takes place to make it all happen.

We encourage members in our community to acknowledge and celebrate music education as an essential part of every student's educational journey.

Celebrate the power of music education in our community and by joining us Monday, March 16th at 7:30 pm in the BW Lodge Gymnasium for Beaverhead County High School Band and Choir
Concert in collaboration with Dillon Middle School and Reichle music students. Admission is FREE and all are welcome!

Beavers Basketball Quick Recap

The Beavers first games of the State Basketball Tournament in Great Falls Thursday night the girls won over the Laurel 48-37 and the boys won over Miles City 48-42. They both advanced to Friday night where the boys played Frenchtown again and won that game 56-50 and advanced for the fourth year in a row to the Saturday night championship game. The girls play Havre Friday night and had trouble finding the net to have a lose of 40-36. The play Saturday morning.
The girls played Hardin and after runs from both sides the Beavers come up short and end the season 56-45. The Boys ran into the Billings Central Rams who were bigger and took advantage of our turnovers. Beavers ended the tournament with second place losing 70-40. We will have more details about the games tomorrow.
