The Lady Beavers and Blue Ponies

The Lady Beavers played the Havre Blue Ponies in the semi final game. Turnovers and missed shots plagued them. The score was only 2-0 Beavers with 5:39 left in the 1st quarter. Tess Tash put up a shot to take a slight lead 21-18 at half time. The Beaver turnovers start adding up on the other side of the score board and with 2 minutes left in the game it was tied 34-34. Havre won the game in the end 40-36 and had out rebounded us 27 to 41.

Saturday morning they played Hardin Bulldogs. The Beavers went on a run in the third quarter and had the lead 37-34. When the Bulldogs came back with their own 13-3 run and with four minutes left the game the Beavers were down by 10. The shot difference was the name of the game with 8 for 24 Beavers and 11 of 20 for the Bulldogs. The Beavers season comes to an end with the 56-45 lose.

Beavers rematch with Broncos

The Beavers went up against the Frenchtown Broncos for the fourth time. The score was 30-21 at half time, but coming out in the third quarter there was a six minute stretch without a score. The Beavers were having trouble with the free throws not finding the net. Frenchtown, however, never had the lead although they tied the game twice. Beavers came out on top of the score board 56-50 at the end.

Billings Central Rams and Beavers for the championship game. It is the third year in a row the Beavers have been to this spot. The lead went back and forth in the first quarter but then the Rams came out and took advantage of the Beavers turnover and went on a run. The Rams are a big team and out rebounded us and took the ball from under the baskets. The Beavers tried hard to get anything going but that caused more problems then it helped. The Beavers get second place at state falling 70-40.

Connections Polar Dip FundraiserJeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News*

The Youth Connections Mentoring Program hosted its annual Polar Dip fundraiser Sunday at Blacktail Meadows, where a small but spirited crowd gathered to take a plunge into the icy waters of the kids' pond.

Despite the cold temperatures, several community members stepped up to support the program by jumping into the frigid water. Among those taking the plunge were members of the Dillon Jaycees, Ortho Rehab, and the University of Montana Western Bulldogs women's basketball team.

Ortho Rehab once again brought some extra fun to the event with their creative costumes. Known for dressing up each year, the group arrived this time as a group of jellyfish, adding a splash of humor to the chilly fundraiser.

After emerging from the icy water, participants were greeted with warm cups of hot cocoa, providing a well-earned treat after their daring dives.

While the turnout was modest, the enthusiasm and community support for the Youth Connections Mentoring Program were clear. The annual Polar Dip helps raise funds to support mentorship opportunities for local youth, reinforcing the community's commitment to helping young people build strong and positive futures.

Organizers extended their thanks to everyone who participated and supported the event, noting that every contribution helps make a meaningful difference in the lives of local youth.

Secretary Christi Jacobsen supports $1 million in western Montana timber projects

Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen supported more than $1 million in western Montana timber projects during Monday's State Board of Land Commissioners (Land Board) meeting at the Montana State Capitol. The timber sales are estimated to generate more than $1 million in revenue, strengthening the economy and supporting timber professionals in western Montana.

"From day one, I've supported responsible timber projects that keep our forests healthy, provide jobs for Montana's timber professionals, and raise critical dollars for our state trust beneficiaries," said Secretary Jacobsen. "These western Montana timber sales do all of that, and I was proud to support them."

In addition to timber sales, Secretary Jacobsen and her Land Board colleagues approved oil and gas lease sales across Montana totaling approximately $532,944 in revenue, with more than $520,000 benefitting the Public Land Trust.

"I'm proud to vote for responsible natural resource development while protecting the public lands we all value, and that's exactly what I'll continue to support on the Land Board," Secretary Jacobsen said.

Secretary Jacobsen also voted to advance easements that will help deliver enhanced services for Montanans, including improved access to natural gas, fiber optic connectivity, and electricity. The Land Board also approved replacing an outdated bridge near Alberton, an infrastructure upgrade that will improve safety and reliability for local residents and visitors.

Montana Makers Invited To Use State Brand
Montana's new consumer brand available for Montana businesses to leverage to create innovative designs and products for retail

In advance of the one-year mark of Montana's new brand launch at the World Famous Miles City Bucking Horse Sale in May 2025, the Montana Department of Commerce is inviting Montana businesses who make innovative designs and products to use Montana's official brand.

"Montana's brand is iconic and Montanans know best how they want it used," said Gov. Greg Gianforte. "Whether it's a baseball cap, sweatshirt or decal, we want Montana's makers to use the Montana brand and design the next must-have Montana branded item. And we want them to be wildly successful with it!"

Commerce is inviting Montana makers to use the Montana brand to support Montana businesses by enabling them to represent the state in the products they manufacture. The official Montana brand is the most prominent brand used to promote Montana as a place to visit and conduct business.

"All across Montana, manufacturers, design shops, apparel producers and businesses that produce promotional materials are creating incredible Montana themed products, and we're excited to give these entrepreneurs the official Montana logo to use," said Mitch Staley, chief marketing officer for Commerce. "Commerce hopes to see Montana's brand used on designs in stores, online and anywhere people buy Montana themed products in the coming months. These businesses' success with the brand will be Montana's success. The earnest use of Montana's brand in ways that attract buyers to spend their hard-earned money will help to promote our state and reach our audiences in ways that existing go-to-market strategies cannot."

The Montana Department of Commerce cannot sell products. Part of Commerce's mission is to find ways to get maximum exposure for Montana's brand to the state's key audiences. To accomplish that mission and for Montana's businesses to get maximum benefit from the new brand, Commerce has provided the Montana brand and brand elements online for download.

While products created using the Montana brand will

Sally Cobau is a writer, teacher, mom, yoga practitioner, and hiker from Dillon, Montana. Originally from Ohio, she fell in love with Montana when she came here for graduate school in Missoula. After receiving her MFA in poetry from the University of Montana, her work has been published in Rattle, Hole in the Head Review, Oyster River Pages, The Sun, Room Magazine, Writing in a Woman's Voice, Ekphrastic Review, Poems Across the Big Sky II, and other journals and anthologies. In December of 2025, her debut poetry collection, Animals in the House: 18 Sonnets, was published. When she's not writing, she's exploring the mountains near her home. The ranchers, river guides, professors, and dog lovers in this little town form the heart of her work.

Ben Kuntz moved back to western Montana a few years ago after nearly twenty years in Bethel, Alaska, where he was an associate professor of English at the Kuskokwim branch of the University of Alaska Fairbanks. He holds a BA and MA from the University of Montana and an MFA from Eastern Washington University. In Dillon, he teaches occasionally at UM Western and works at the Patagonia Outlet. His stories and essays have appeared in publications including Cirque and The Inlander.
