Jaycee Community Service Awards

The Dillon Jaycee's held their annual service awards on Thursday evening. This years speaker was Flint Rasmussen and he was amazing as usual. MC Michael Stuart kept things going and the well deserved awards were announced.

Outstanding Woman Award

This years Outstanding Woman was born in Salmon Idaho. She claimed to have grown up as a free-range chicken. She was raised in the agriculture and cowgirl world and grew to personify the best attributes of the rural and western way of life. She began her agricultural advocacy with her year as Miss Rodeo Idaho. Later as a student at the University of Montana Western she was on the rodeo team, competed in Rodeo Pageants including Miss Rodeo America, and served in student government. After School she became the rodeo coach in 1994, a position she held until 2018. In this time, she was named Rodeo Coach of the Year twice in 2004 and 2018. As if 24 years of coaching and travelling with teams were not enough, this woman has played a pivotal role in establishing the natural horsemanship programs, and in 2013 she started a YF&R group at Western that she continues advises. Her YF&R students participate in several activities to promote agriculture and enrich their community. These activities include reading Ag Accurate books to kindergarten and 1st grade students. As well as several other programs. This woman has been described as a force of nature and truly personifies that service to humanity is work of life. It is my pleasure to introduce the Outstanding Woman of the year, Olie Else.

Distinguished Service Award

This year's winner has been making Southwest Montana a better place for all of us for nearly 50 years. He earned his degree at what is now the University of Montana Western. He then moved away to begin his teaching career but soon had the opportunity to return to Dillon where he spent decades teaching and in administration. To this day he works to ensure the rag-a-muffins or the down and out children get the opportunities to thrive in school and in life. As well as being an educator this man has spent countless hours giving back to the community. He spent a number of years assisting the Dillon Jaycee's Little Skier Program. He has spearheaded improvements to facilities for the volunteer workers at both the wood bank and the fairgrounds. And without his vision, and tireless effort we would not be able to enjoy the YMCA facility that we know today. All this information is nothing but a scratch on the surface of the impact that this gentleman has had on so many with no thought of recognition for himself. That is why I am pleased to award this years Distinguished Service Award to Rodger Pelletier.

Outstanding Young Woman

This year's winner is an exceptional young woman whose leadership, service, and unwavering commitment to her community make her a truly deserving candidate for this award. Through her involvement in numerous organizations and her dedication to youth, education, and community development, she has become a positive and influential force.

She plays a vital role in supporting student athletes through her involvement with the University of Montana Western Booster Bash, helping raise funds that directly impact opportunities for college athletes to succeed both on and off the field. She remains deeply connected to younger youth in her community as a dance instructor, where she inspires confidence, creativity, and discipline in the next generation.

Her dedication to strengthening local programs is further demonstrated through her leadership as Co-President of the Festival of Trees. Having served on the board for many years, she has shown vision, commitment, and the ability to bring people together in support of local nonprofit organizations.

Her passion for education and philanthropy is reflected in her membership and officer position in P.E.O. (Philanthropic Educational Organization), where she contributes to efforts that support and empower women through educational opportunities. She also gives her time to community recreation initiatives, volunteering at the Beaverhead Golf Course to support programs like Hook on Golf and efforts to expand and improve local facilities for future generations.

Professionally, she serves on an advisory council within the insurance field, demonstrating her leadership and expertise while contributing to the growth and integrity of her industry.

Beyond her many roles, Ashley is a devoted mother and a constant presence in community sports and activities. She shows up with enthusiasm and positivity, supporting not only her own family but also encouraging and uplifting others. Her energy, kindness, and willingness to give her time make her a role model for those around her. Her kind spirit is contagious to all around her.

Ashley represents the very best of the next generation of leaders—driven, compassionate, and deeply committed to making a difference. She leads with heart, gives without hesitation, and inspires through her actions every single day. Her impact is already significant, and her future contributions will undoubtedly continue to strengthen her community. Ashley is, without question, an outstanding young woman and a truly deserving recipient of this honor. This year's outstanding young woman is Ashley Willet.

Outstanding Young Man

This year's Outstanding Young Man is a volunteer, a son, a friend, a father, a Veteran and a Dillon Native. After High School, he spent time away from Dillon and joined the Montana National Guard serving 6 years and earning the rank of E3. After his career in the military ended, he spent time living and working in Great Falls and Helena. While living in Helena he became a father of four beautiful kids. Always wanting to raise his family in the community he grew up in, this young man was able to move back in Dillon in 2019.

Returning to Dillon gave him the opportunity to chase a dream of becoming a Dillon Jaycee which he joined in 2020. He had always been drawn to the Dillon Jaycees and specifically the Dillon Jaycee Demo Derby. Having competed in the Demo Derby many times he had the goal of growing the Demo Derby. Immediately volunteered to co-chair the Demo Derby in 2020 and then would go on to chair the Demo Derby for the next 5 years. During his 5 years as chairman of the Demo Derby, the Dillon Jaycees saw immediate growth in sponsorships, drivers and overall success of the event. He is the reason the Demo Derby still exists in Dillon today.

In addition to the growth and success he has put into the Demo Derby, he has also been an elected member of the Dillon Jaycees Board of Directors, chaired the Dillon Jaycees little skier program and has also been on the Rodeo Board serving as ticket chairman, volunteer chairman, firetruck chairman, and is this year's Dillon Jaycee Rodeo Chairman. He has already secured the Cowboy Channel to broadcast live from the rodeo this year and we are all excited to see the improvements he will make for rodeo like he did with the Demo Derby.

He grew up in a ranching family and watched his father work for La Cense for 25 years, so naturally that led him to work for many ranches over the years. He worked for the Riverbend Ranch for a few years and currently works for Schuett Farms. Working on a ranch is a passion and has enabled him to be versatile in many areas. If you ask Kyle for help with anything he will not say no and will know how to get the job done. (However, he wouldn't have been a lot of people's first choice to hang drywall!) He is always just a phone call away and steps up whenever extra help is needed.

Kyle has done many things for his community to make it a better place and does not volunteer his time and energy for recognition or awards, but he is an exceptional and humble example of what it is to be an Outstanding Young Man. This years Outstanding Young Man is Kyle Zimmerman.

Congratulations to all the winners!
