Mary A. Hill

Mary A. Hill passed away surrounded by the love of family and community, in Dillon MT, on April 15th, 2026.

Mary was born May 31st, 1934 in Lakeview MT, to parents Lucy and Archibald Hayden. Her love for the Centennial Valley was ever present in her stories and her life.

Mary and her family left the valley when she was 2 as they moved to Dillon where she attended school at the Nelson School, before graduating from Beaverhead County High School in 1952.

1952 was the year she attended a square dance in Armstead MT and met the love of her life Dan C. Hill. They surrendered their independence to pursue a life together on July 4th, 1958. Dan and Mary built a life in and around Dillon, where they became known in the community for their commitment to ranching, hunting, working in custom haying and their passion to be good neighbors. They had 4 children Dan Hill, Norman Hill, Mary Jane Riggin, and Ruth Jackson.

As a family they continued ranching in and around Dillon until Dan and Mary moved to Glendive MT in 1994. There they met a wonderful community of friends where they continued their legacy of neighboring and adopting new family continued. In 2002 they moved home to Dillon, once again becoming a cornerstone of the community.

Mary was passionate about her love for the Centennial Valley and often shared her stories with the local museum. Her love for history and stories extended to her love of painting, especially works by Charlie Russell, ranching, family and community. She loved her time as a volunteer at the Beaverhead County Fair, sharing her time and knowledge as a Superintendent in the floriculture building. She was happiest when she was serving as the hub that kept us all connected.

She will be celebrated and remembered as a loving wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, neighbor and cherished friend. Her smile, mischievous sense of humor, stories and wisdom will endure in the hearts of all who loved her.

She is proceeded in death by her beloved parents Lucy and Archibald, brothers Archie and Glen, and grandson Calvin Jackson.

She is survived by her loving husband Dan, children Dan and Virginia Hill, Norman Hill, Mary Jane Riggin, and Ruth Jackson, 8 grandchildren, and 14 great grandchildren, along with numerous nieces, nephews, and family both by blood and by love.

Services will be held at 1:00 pm at Brundage Funeral

Gianforte Honors Two Youth Challenge Leaders In Dillon

Governor Greg Gianforte returned to Dillon this week to recognize two longtime leaders at the Montana Youth Challenge Academy, presenting them with the state's Outstanding Service Award for their lasting impact on cadets across Montana.

Speaking to a room filled with cadets, staff, and community members, Gianforte praised Michelle Nelon and Ben Stuart for their dedication to guiding young people through the academy and beyond.

"When I came into office, I created the Outstanding Service Award to recognize state employees who go above and beyond," Gianforte said. "Today, we're here to recognize Michelle Nelon and Ben Stuart for their lasting impact on all of you and the many classes that have come through the Youth Challenge Academy."

Nelon, who has served for 20 years as a post-residential coordinator, was recognized for her leadership of the academy's mentor program. The program supports cadets during the critical 12 months following graduation, helping them stay on track and transition into productive, healthy lives.

Under Nelon's leadership, the academy has consistently exceeded national averages for long-term placement. She has also helped build a strong statewide network of mentors and serves on a national training committee, representing Montana and contributing to program development across the country.

"Michelle's leadership, professionalism, and commitment to cadet success reflect the very best of public service," Gianforte said.

Stuart, a nearly three-decade fixture at the academy, was honored for his 27 years of service in multiple roles, including cadet instructor, team leader, academic counselor, and lead counselor. Known for his steady demeanor and dedication, Stuart has built lasting relationships with cadets, their families, and communities statewide.

"As he approaches retirement next year, we recognize not only his years of service, but the legacy he leaves behind and the lives he has helped shape," Gianforte said.

The governor also addressed cadets directly, emphasizing that leadership is defined not by titles, but by character, discipline, and accountability.

"Leadership is about how you carry yourself, how you treat others, and the choices you make when no one is watching," he said. "Each of you has the potential to lead, to make a difference, and to build a strong future for yourself and our state."

Gianforte closed by thanking both honorees for their commitment to Montana's next generation.

"Montana is grateful for your service," he said. "We are thankful for the lasting impact your work continues to have on these cadets and across our great state."

Tackett's Four-Hit Day Powers Beavers Past Butte Central

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

Sawyer Tackett delivered a standout performance at the plate and on the mound Wednesday, leading the Beaverhead County Varsity Beavers to a 14-7 win over Butte Central Catholic Varsity Maroons in Butte.

Tackett went 4-for-5 on the day, including a solo home run to left field in the fifth inning. He added singles in the second, fourth, and sixth innings to pace a Beaverhead offense that finished with 13 hits.

The Beavers wasted no time getting on the board in the top of the first inning. Trenton Moreni tripled to drive in two runs, and Kanin Engelhardt brought another home on a fielder's choice to give Beaverhead an early lead.

They continued to build momentum in the second inning. Tackett singled down the left field line, Cohen Hartman followed with a triple to center, and Andrew Bartlome added an RBI single—each plate appearance bringing in a run to extend the lead.

Beaverhead added to its advantage in the fifth inning, scoring three runs on two hits. Tackett's solo home run highlighted the frame, while Jase Alvarez contributed a two-run single.

Tackett also earned the win on the mound, pitching three and two-thirds innings while allowing seven hits and seven runs (six earned). He struck out six and walked four. Logan Fox provided strong relief, tossing three and one-third innings of shutout baseball, allowing just one hit while striking out six.

Moreni led the Beavers in RBIs with four, going 2-for-2 at the plate. Hartman and Levi Stonebraker each recorded multiple hits, and Beaverhead added pressure on the base paths with four stolen bases.

Beaverhead County will travel to face East Helena on Thursday.

academic mission.

Dr. Aiken's accomplished career includes K-12 teaching and training positions, K-12 and postsecondary administrative positions, and leadership roles on dozens of local, state, and national boards and task forces, including the Dillon School District Board of Trustees. Dr. Aiken's scholarship has focused on gifted and talented education, early childhood education, and high-leverage practices in teacher preparation. Her distinguished career highlights include recognition as a Montana University System Teacher Scholar, directing and contributing to impactful grant-funded projects, and editing and co-authoring a comprehensive array of professional publications.

"Dr. Aiken's broad and extensive experience as a teacher, administrator, and researcher as well as her demonstrated dedication to education at all levels, including teacher preparation, makes her an ideal fit to lead UM Western," said Commissioner Christian. "Her stewardship will ensure that UMW sustains and grows its reputation as a high-quality university offering innovative programming and a unique student experience within the Montana University System."

Founded in 1893 as the Montana State Normal School with a singular purpose of training educators, UMW has evolved into a dynamic institution that honors its original mission while expanding its academic landscape to include degree programs in STEM fields, equine studies, health and human performance, fine arts, psychology and more. Its immersive Experience One block scheduling model is the only one of its kind at a public institution in the country and is a proven asset to student recruitment, retention, and success.

"It is my honor and privilege be the next Chancellor for UMW. I value the experiences and relationships that have led me to this opportunity, and I look forward to what lies ahead," said Dr. Aiken. "I'm fortunate to have called UM Western and Dillon my home for 15 years now, and I am thrilled at the possibilities as Chancellor to invest further in this community, in this university, and especially in the students who are at its heart."

Dr. Aiken holds a Bachelor of Arts in Music from Macalester College, a Master of Arts in Teaching Elementary School from Colorado College, and a Doctorate of Education in Educational Studies from the University of Colorado.
