Bring Back A Bannack Days Tradition: Volunteers Needed

The Bannack Association and Bannack State Park want to bring back a Bannack Days tradition, demonstrating skills of the frontier home. You might remember Doris Richard sitting in the Jackson House churning butter and reminiscing about days long ago. We are looking for people to demonstrate crocheting, knitting, tatting, and any other skill from the time period. Bannack Days is scheduled for July 18 and 19 celebrating both the 50th anniversary of Bannack Days and 250th anniversary of the USA. For information, please contact Bannack State Park at 406-834-3413 or Cathy Speich-Ferguson at 406-925-2209.

Rogue Livestock Hires First Local Range Pilot

Rogue Livestock is redefining what it means to be a modern cowboy. Through hands-on drone piloting, intensive technology training, and real-world field experience, the company is building a new kind of workforce—one that carries forward the grit and skill of traditional ranching while expanding into new capabilities. Cowboys have always been among the most capable workers in the country. Rogue Livestock is focused on taking that foundation even further.

Rogue Livestock is hiring Dillon native Montana Reynolds as its first locally deployed Range Pilot, supporting Dillon-area cattle producers and marking the first of several drone pilot deployments planned across the greater Yellowstone region this year.

Reynolds, born and raised in Dillon, brings a background deeply rooted in ranching and Western heritage. A U.S. Army Airborne veteran with ten years of service, he was recently honored by the Governor of Montana for his service and contributions.

"I'm excited to be doing this—it's a different way of working the same ground. There's a lot more to it than people might think," Reynolds said.

As a Range Pilot, Reynolds will operate Rogue Livestock's drone-based monitoring solution, supporting producers with real-time visibility into their herds across both private and public lands. The program is designed to help reduce livestock loss, improve response times, and address predation challenges in the region.

"I am hiring Montana because he is exactly what we are looking for—someone who knows the terrain, understands livestock, and is a purebred cowboy," said Melissa Brandao, CEO and Founder of Rogue Livestock.

Montana is one of several Range Pilots being deployed across the highly predation-impacted Yellowstone region this year.

Rogue Livestock's work in the region will culminate in pilot trials and a live event in Three Forks, Montana this September, featuring a rodeo and drone-based competitions.

Stanley Stremick Named Frontier Men's Outdoor Field Athlete of the Week

Bulldog track and field athlete Stanley Stremick picked up Men's Outdoor Field Athlete of the Week honors.

"I think it is a great achievement for Stan," head coach Taylor Grove said. "It was great to see him jump over 22 feet twice in the long jump this last meet. He has had strong performances all season in both long and triple jump and has stayed consistent."

Stremick placed fourth out of 18 DI, DII, and NAIA competitors in the men's long jump. He posted a 6.84m (22-5.25) leap and was the top NAIA finisher in the event. He also earned an eighth-place finish in the men's triple jump with a 12.77m (41-10.75) in the men's triple jump.

In his first outdoor season with the Bulldogs, Stremick has posted top-five finishes in the long jump in five out of six meets. Additionally, he has placed in the top five twice in the triple jump and once in the high jump.

Bozeman Symphony Presents Rhapsody in Blue & West Side Story

The Bozeman Symphony invites audiences to an electrifying program, Sounds of America II: Rhapsody in Blue & West Side Story, May 15–17 at the Willson Auditorium in downtown Bozeman. The concerts feature Grammy Award–winning pianist Michelle Cann in a dynamic showcase of American masterworks.

One of the most sought-after pianists of her generation, Cann takes center stage in a dazzling double feature.

Cann also brings renewed brilliance to Price's concerto, a richly expressive work shaped by the composer's Late Romantic style and deep connection to African American spiritual traditions.

On the program is The Observatory by Pulitzer Prize and Grammy Award–winning composer Caroline Shaw. Premiered by the Los Angeles Philharmonic in 2019, the piece offers a cinematic, kaleidoscopic journey inspired by the iconic Griffith Observatory overlooking Los Angeles.

Rounding out the program is Leonard Bernstein's Symphonic Dances from West Side Story, a thrilling orchestral suite drawn from his landmark musical.

Performances are at 7:30 p.m. on Friday and Saturday, May 15 & 16, and at 2:30 p.m. on Sunday, May 17.

These concerts are made possible by the generous support of sponsors The Dovana Foundation, Calum & Tricia DeSouza, Bob & Donna Ritchie, Bruce & Kimberlie Jodar, Gary Kunis & Connie Wong, Paul & Arlene Wylie, Carol Lalani, and Lynn & Chip Rinehart.

Tickets start at $30 for adults, with discounted tickets available for students. Purchase online at https://www.bozemansymphony.org/rhapsody-in-blue-and-west-side-story or by calling 406-585-9774. Tickets at the door are subject to availability.

Nonresident hunters can sign up for FWP Alternate's List starting May 1

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks gets a number of unused nonresident combination licenses (Big Game Combo, General Elk and General Deer) returned by customers each year. FWP resells these returned licenses through our Alternate's List.

The Alternate's List is an option for nonresident hunters to express interest in purchasing one of the returned licenses mentioned above. A hunter can sign up to purchase their choice of nonresident combination license. Once the list is randomized and a license becomes available, the hunter at the top of the list will be contacted to finalize the purchase of the license.

Payment for the license fee is not required to sign up for the Alternate's List. If your name comes up, you will be contacted with instructions on how to complete the purchase of the license. Being on this list or obtaining a license from this list has no effect on your existing preference points.

MyFWP allows you to check your relative position on the Alternate's List after the list is randomized in mid-June. The odds of getting a license from these lists vary greatly from year to year. Refunds and issuance may occur at any time, but availability of these licenses increases between early fall and the opening of general hunting season in late October.

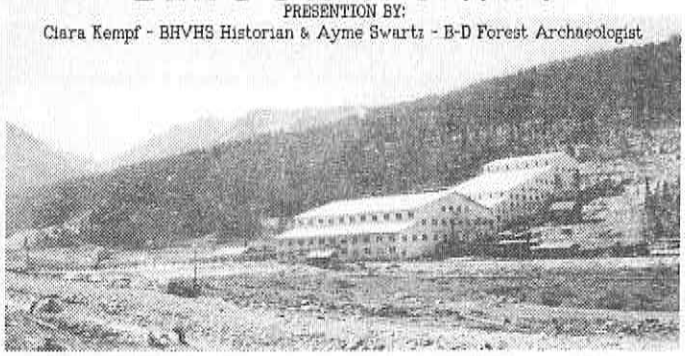
LIFE BEHIND THE GHOST TOWN

PRESENTION BY:
Clara Kempf - BHVHS Historian & Ayme Swartz - B-D Forest Archaeologist



Coolidge ghost town on the Pioneer Mountain Scenic Byway is the home of the largest silver mill in Montana, yet it only operated to capacity for about six months. We'll look at the rise and fall of this mining camp, examine what life was like for residents during its1920s heyday, and introduce how a proposed self-guided tour will improve visitors' experiences. We'll also discuss future opportunities to help stabilize and protect what remains of this unique ghost town after the US Forest Service wraps up reclamation efforts at the mill site in late summer 2026.

Ayme Swartz is the Forest Archeologist and Heritage Program Manager for the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest. Clara Pares Kempf is a historian and writer who specializes in discovering the untold stories and underrepresented populations of the West. She is an active member and contributor to the Big Hole Valley Historical Society, and is based in Anaconda.
