Samuel "Sammy" Dean Duet December 14, 2022 — October 17, 2025

With deep sorrow and heartbreak, we announce the passing of Samuel "Sammy" Dean Duet, who tragically left us at the tender age of two. Sammy was a radiant spirit, full of laughter and boundless curiosity, who brought immense joy to everyone fortunate enough to know him.

Born on December 14, 2022, Sammy was a child whose bright smile and innocent laughter will forever echo in our hearts. Though his time with us was short, his presence was a powerful reminder of the purity and joy that life can bring.

As we grapple with this incomprehensible loss, we remember Sammy for the moments of joy he experienced, however brief. We honor his memory by pledging to advocate for children and to create a world where all children can grow up safe and loved.

Sammy's spirit lives on in the hearts and cherished memories of his grandmothers, aunts, uncles, great-grandmothers, and numerous other family members.

A memorial service will be held on May 16, 2026, at 4:00 pm at Brundage Funeral Home, 300 S Atlantic Street, Dillon, MT 59725, where our community is invited to come together to honor the life of Sammy. In lieu of flowers, we ask that donations be made to organizations dedicated to help foster families, or organizations that provide assistance to families with special needs children.

Rest in peace, sweet Sammy. You are deeply loved and will be forever missed about sexual violence and supporting survivors.

Hosted by Montana Western's P.A.T.H. (Peers Advocating Towards Health) program and the Women's Resource Center, the event encourages men in the community to walk a mile in high heels as a symbol of empathy and solidarity. Local law enforcement officers joined in, stepping out in heels alongside students and community members.

This year's event featured guest speaker Barbie Jenkins, a survivor and advocate who shared her personal story and message of resilience. Jenkins serves as the Northwest Regional Director for Jane Doe No More Montana, is a member of the RAINN Speakers Bureau, and participates in the Montana Victim Impact Panel. She is also the author of Burying Jane Doe and continues her work educating communities and supporting survivors.

Participants donned pink caps and carried signs as they began the walk in front of the university. The route took them down South Atlantic Street to the Catholic Church before looping back to campus.

Following the walk, participants were recognized with awards, including honors for the fastest finishers.

Organizers say the event continues to be an important way to spark conversation, promote awareness, and stand in support of those impacted by sexual violence.

Montana Western and Bank of Commerce Performing Art Series Present "Roald Dahl's Willy Wonka"

The University of Montana Western's Theatre Program and the Bank of Commerce Performing Arts Series are excited to present "Roald Dahl's Willy Wonka" from May 29 -31 in UMW's Beier Auditorium.

Roald Dahl's Willy Wonka follows enigmatic candy manufacturer, Willy Wonka, as he stages a contest by hiding golden tickets in five of his scrumptious candy bars. Whomever comes up with these tickets will win a free tour of the Wonka factory, as well as a lifetime supply of candy. Four of the five winning children are insufferable brats: the fifth is a likeable young lad named Charlie Bucket, who takes the tour in the company of his equally amiable grandfather. The children must learn to follow Mr. Wonka's rules in the factory... or suffer the consequences.

The delicious adventures experienced by Charlie Bucket on his visit to Willy Wonka's mysterious chocolate factory light up the stage in this captivating adaptation of Roald Dahl's fantastical tale. Featuring the enchanting songs from the 1971 film starring Gene Wilder and new songs by Leslie Bricusse (Jekyll & Hyde, Doctor Dolittle) and Anthony Newley, Roald Dahl's Willy Wonka is a scrumdilyumptious musical guaranteed to delight everyone's sweet tooth.

This Community-Based production will feature local Dillon youth, and performers of all ages!

Music and lyrics are by Leslie Bricusse and Anthony Newley. The stage adaptation is by Leslie Bricusse and Timothy Allen McDonald, based on the book Charlie and the Chocolate Factory by Roald Dahl. The production is directed by Josey Mae, with music direction by Stephen Alan Seder, stage management by Adeline Michels, assistant stage management by Alysha Nilsen, and scenic design by Adryan Miller-Gorder.

Rated G, this production is suitable for all ages. Performances will be held at 7:00 p.m. Friday, May 29; 1:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. Saturday, May 30; and 1:00 p.m. Sunday, May 31 in UMW's Beier Auditorium.

To purchase tickets, please visit the BOC Performing Arts Series Box Office webpage. Admission is $16 for general seating, $12 for seniors (65+), youth (18 & under), and military, $10 for UMW faculty/staff, and free for UMW students with a valid student ID.

For more information, please contact Assistant Professor of Theatre Stephen Seder at stephen.seder@umwestern.edu or 406-683-7038.

Hartman's Grand Slam Powers Beavers to 16-0 Win Over Broadwater

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

Cohen Hartman drove in four runs with a grand slam as the Beaverhead County Varsity Beavers rolled past the Broadwater Bulldogs 16-0 on Thursday.

Hartman's fifth-inning blast to left field capped off an eight-run inning and sealed the dominant win for the Beavers. Beaverhead County got on the board in the second inning when Kanin Engelhardt tripled to bring in the game's first run.

The Beavers broke things open in the third, scoring six runs on four hits. Jase Alvarez singled in a run, Levi Stonebraker added a two-run single, Logan Fox doubled in another, and Sawyer Tackett tripled to drive in two more.

The offense wasn't done. In the fifth inning, Beaverhead County piled on eight runs. Tackett was hit by a pitch with the bases loaded, Hartman followed with his grand slam, Stonebraker drew a bases-loaded walk, and Gage Curnow added a two-run single.

Stonebraker earned the win on the mound, throwing four no-hit innings while striking out seven and walking none. Kanin Engelhardt closed it out with a scoreless inning in relief.

The Beavers finished with 12 hits and showed patience at the plate, drawing eight walks. Engelhardt and Stonebraker each collected two hits, while Hartman and Stonebraker led the team with two walks apiece.

Beaverhead County also made noise on the basepaths, swiping six bases, with Alvarez and Stonebraker each recording multiple steals. Defensively, the Beavers were flawless, committing no errors. Andrew Bartlome led the team with eight fielding chances.

Tyzer Rains recorded the lone hit for Broadwater, going 1-for-2 at the plate.

Beaverhead County returns to action Saturday when they host the Park High Rangers.

Beaverhead County Museum Presents

LIFE BEHIND THE GHOST TOWN

PRESENTATION BY:

Clara Kempf - BHVHS Historian & Ayme Swartz - B-D Forest Archaeologist

Coolidge ghost town on the Pioneer Mountain Scenic Byway is the home of the largest silver mill in Montana, yet it only operated to capacity for about six months.
We'll look at the rise and fall of this mining camp, examine what life was like for residents during its 1920s heyday, and introduce how a proposed self-guided tour will improve visitors' experiences. We'll also discuss future opportunities to help stabilize and protect what remains of this unique ghost town after the US Forest Service wraps up reclamation efforts at the mill site in late summer 2026.

Ayme Swartz is the Forest Archeologist and Heritage Program Manager for the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest. Clara Pares Kempf is a historian and writer who specializes in discovering the untold stories and underrepresented populations of the West. She is an active member and contributor to the Big Hole Valley Historical Society, and is based in Anaconda.
