Word of Passing of Ted Turner, 87

Ted Turner died Wednesday at his home in Florida, according to his family. He was the former owner of the Atlanta Braves and Hawks who made his mark as a pioneer of cable TV, founder of CNN and a philanthropist. He and his foundation have been very giving to many Montana communities.

Terry Rae Hazelbaker Mattfeldt

Terry Rae Hazelbaker Mattfeldt,
77, passed away on April 12, 2026.

Terry was born on January 4, 1949, at 8:09 p.m. in Dillon, Montana,
the first child of Clara and Theodore Hazelbaker. She was raised in Dillon alongside her two younger brothers, Lee (Buzz) and Todd, forming strong family bonds that remained important throughout her life.

She attended Western Montana College, where she earned her degree in education, beginning a lifelong passion for teaching and service.
Terry made her home in Colstrip, Montana, where she taught high school English for 33 years. Over the course of her career, she touched the lives of thousands of students and colleagues, leaving a lasting impact through her dedication, kindness, and commitment to education.

Terry was an active member of her community. She participated in Close-Up, was involved with Women of the Moose, and served as a board member for various local organizations. Her generosity and willingness to give back were evident in everything she did.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Clara and Theodore Hazelbaker, and her sister-in-law, Judy Hazelbaker.

Terry is survived by her brothers, Lee and Todd (Nicole) Hazelbaker; her son, Jay Mattfeldt, and his wife, Juli Mattfeldt; her three grandchildren, Emily Armstrong, Kyli Mattfeldt, and Sydney Mattfeldt, and nieces and nephews who brought her great joy and pride.

A scholarship will be established in Terry's name at Western Montana College to honor her lifelong dedication to education and her commitment to helping others succeed.

The family extends special thanks to the staff at Holy Rosary Hospital and Intermountain Health St. Vincent Regional Hospital in Billings for their care and compassion.

A Celebration of Terry's life will be held at Colstrip High School on Friday, June 26th, 2026 at 2 pm.

Letter to the Editor

This is the first time in over twenty five years that we the voters will have the chance to actually choose a County Commissioner!

For the past many years these Commissioners have been appointed by the two sitting Commissioners. The last appointed was:

John Jackson who was appointed by Tom Rice and Mike McGinley. Remember Jay Hahnkamp ran for that position, but was surpassed for that seat apparently for personal differences and the sitting Commissioners instead chose John. That just seems wrong.

This time we get to pick a candidate that lives in the County, born and raised here. Hopefully not a Rino or someone from out of State. It also doesn't seem fair, the City can vote in City Elections. We can shop in the City, dine out, use local facilities, pay taxes but somehow we cannot vote in city elections. Go figure.

Vote Mike Boka.

Ted Rutenbur

Thank You

A big thank you to the lady who sat with my dog until I could get there. Thank you also to the Small Animal Hospital for staying open for hours and taking quills out of my two dogs. It was greatly appreciated.

Whole Food Health Minute

26 Food is Medicine: Lemons

Lemons are a small but seriously impressive whole-food powerhouse, delivering nearly half your daily vitamin C in a single fruit alongside B vitamins, potassium, and calcium. Their bright acidity earns its keep well beyond flavor—supporting kidney health, boosting plant-based iron absorption, stimulating digestive enzymes, and offering meaningful heart-protective and anti-inflammatory benefits. Early research even suggests lemons may (and likely will) help reduce cellular damage linked to chronic disease and aging. Best of all, nearly every part of the fruit pulls its weight: the zest is loaded with beneficial compounds (so don't toss that peel!), the pulp offers soluble fiber that feeds gut health and steadies blood sugar, and a simple squeeze over veggies, beans, or whole grains can meaningfully upgrade your meal's nutritional value. Even starting your morning with lemon water is a gentle, liver-friendly way to kick off hydration—yet another reason to use the whole fruit whenever you can.

Lemons land on the Environmental Working Group's "Clean Fifteen," so conventional is a perfectly fine, budget-friendly choice. That said, if you plan to use the zest or peel in cooking or drinks, choosing organic is strongly recommended, as pesticide/herbicide residues concentrate in the outer skin.

☒ For County Commissioner

Ballot for by Boka for Commissioner Race King, Treasurer P.O. Box 1236 Dillon, MT 59725

The Friends of the Museum, also known as the Museum Association, is looking for support to achieve our $25,000 matching goal provided by a generous donor. We still need about $10,000 to achieve the match and to meet the Museum's request for $60,000.

As many of you know the Friends have been supporting the Museum to the tune of $60,000 the past several years. The County's two mills is simply not enough to keep the doors open and pay the two part-time employees. The cost of utilities is a huge amount. This includes heating and lighting of the Museum and the Depot buildings as well as the water bill, including sprinkling the lawn in the summer months.

We take great pride in the Museum and the information that it offers to the public. It is the repository of many artifacts and archives that contain the history of Beaverhead County. We are proud that so many families have entrusted their family history and treasures to the Museum. Being able to keep the Museum open to the public for at least six months a year is extremely important to the whole Museum family.

The Museum needs your financial support now to stay open for another year.

You will find a form to become a member of the Friends and to donate on the other side of this letter.

We thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,

Executive Board of the Friends of the Museum

Letter to the Editor

Recently, you may have seen articles or signature gatherers pushing for signatures for The Transparent Election Initiative, also known as CI-194 in MT. The attempt is to get enough signatures for this to get placed on the ballot in November. I urge you not to sign this. This whole attempt is a very bad idea for Montana. The idea behind this is being pushed by a national organization whose stated goal is to undermine the Citizens United ruling by the US Supreme Court. The claim of this group is that this will remove "dark money" from politics and restore power to voters. Nothing could be further from the truth.

Saying this is Montana-based and grassroots is false. A simple look at their website confirms this. You can click on different states to see what they are doing around the country. The website says, "Montana's citizen initiative process allows voters to directly shape state law, making it the ideal launching ground for this innovative approach to campaign finance reform." Why is Montana the launching ground? Many states have provisions in their constitutions to allow referendums to change their constitution. Unfortunately, ours has one of the lowest bars in the nation for citizens to make constitutional changes. These national groups know this and attempt to start these national changes by targeting MT first. If they can get it done here, then the message is, "Look at Montana and what they did; it's a red state, and the people support this!" Then they move on to other states.

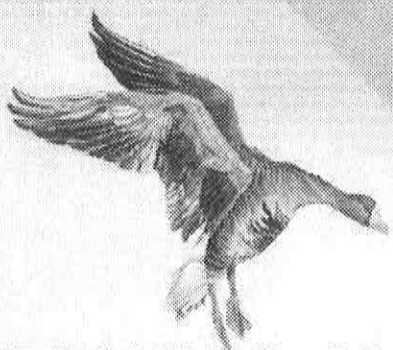

By using this process, these groups bypass the legislative process. There are no public hearings, no expert testimony, and no debate. What you will see on the ballot is a short 7-sentence paragraph trying to tell the voter about the change. In reality, the change they are looking for is 5 pages of new sections in our state constitution. Do you think a one-paragraph explanation to read while you are in the voting booth is the appropriate way to add 14 new sections to the state constitution? This is exactly why these groups use this process; they can make anything sound good to the voter in 7 sentences, but they are making significant changes to our constitution. I believe this is terrible governance and a disservice to the people. It is a flaw in our constitution that should be corrected.

Why is this a bad idea in the first place? The Supreme Court has already said that corporations can spend money just like individuals in elections. This initiative removes that ability, but it doesn't remove the ability of Political Action Committees (PACs) and other organizations from spending money on elections. Imagine a business in Montana sees an effort by groups to change something legislatively or to elect candidates who are openly hostile to their business. This business knows that if this change occurs, it will be bad for their business and employees. They would not be allowed to get involved and spend money to stop the changes from coming. Meanwhile, an unhindered effort from PACs can take place to help enact changes to harm that business.

The claim that all of this is nonpartisan is also a farce. A simple study of this will reveal who is behind it and who the locals are who are supporting it. As always, I encourage you to do your homework and read the actual text of the initiative. There is an old quote that certainly still rings true today: "An educated citizenry is a vital requisite for our survival as a free people."

Beaverhead County Museum Presents

LIFE BEHIND THE GHOST TOWN

PRESENTATION BY:

Clara Kempf - BHVHS Historian & Ayme Swartz - B-D Forest Archaeologist

Coolidge ghost town on the Pioneer Mountain Scenic Byway is the home of the largest silver mill in Montana, yet it only operated to capacity for about six months.

We'll look at the rise and fall of this mining camp, examine what life was like for residents during its 1920s heyday, and introduce how a proposed self-guided tour will improve visitors' experiences. We'll also discuss future opportunities to help stabilize and protect what remains of this unique ghost town after the US Forest Service wraps up reclamation efforts at the mill site in late summer 2026.

Ayme Swartz is the Forest Archeologist and Heritage Program Manager for the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest. Clara Pares Kempf is a historian and writer who specializes in discovering the untold stories and underrepresented populations of the West. She is an active member and contributor to the Big Hole Valley Historical Society, and is based in Anaconda.
