Montana Alpha Delta Kappa awarded Women's Resource Center with Nellie Vegge Book Award

Montana Alpha Delta Kappa, an International Honorary Organization for Women Educators, recently awarded the Dillon Women's Resource Center with their Nellie Vegge Book Award. The book award in the amount of $300 was used to purchase books that teach lessons of resilience, respect, problem solving, survival, and kindness.

The Women's Resource Center in Dillon, Montana was founded in 1977 with the purpose of providing emergency services and shelter for victims of violence and sexual abuse. It serves the rural counties, roughly 500 miles, of Beaverhead and Madison counties. The Women's Resource Center, WRC, has two safe homes that offer shelter and supplies to help victims and their children who are fleeing violence. Books are an invaluable need to the WRC.

is proud to present the Nellie Vegge Books Award to The Women's Resource Center of Dillon, Montana.

Respectfully, Chapter Delta

MSU Strategic Plan Listening Session in Dillon

Last year Montana State University hired a new president, Dr. Brock Tessman, and with a new president comes a new strategic plan. Extension has been tasked with hosting local listening sessions to gather input from communities across Montana. This plan will not only effect what happens on campus in Bozeman, but also the direction of Extension across the state. Additionally, we are going to use this listening session as an opportunity for a local Extension needs assessment. What do the citizens of Beaverhead County want from Extension? This will inform us as we plan future programs and services.

The listening session in Dillon will be held on June 2nd at 7pm in the 4-H Building at the fairgrounds. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Children's books can help promote resilience and peace. They create memories and feelings. From Charlotte's Web to Peter Rabbit, books teach lessons of survival, curiosity, problem solving, respect, and kindness to name a few. Literature can hold the power to shape and change families' lives.

The Nellie Vegge Books Award can offer therapeutic interventions that strengthen families in a loving, non-threatening manner. Chapter Delta

Attorney General Knudsen and MHP remind Montanans to drive safely ahead of 100 Deadliest Days of Summer

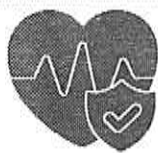

Attorney General Austin Knudsen and the Montana Highway Patrol (MHP) are encouraging drivers to stay safe on the road as Memorial Day weekend marks the unofficial start of summer and the beginning of the "100 Deadliest Days of Summer." During this time, there has historically been a rise in serious fatal crashes as travel increases statewide. To stay vigilant, Montana Highway Patrol troopers will have an increased presence on Montana roads and highways to crack down on drunk and drugged drivers.

Fatal crashes and traffic fatalities in 2026 have decreased compared to this time last year. According to MHP, there has been a 14 percent decrease in fatal crashes and a 21 percent decrease in traffic fatalities in Montana from January 1 through May 1 compared to the same time last year. During that time, there were 41 fatal crashes resulting in 47 fatalities on Montana roadways. However, fatal crashes involving suspected impaired drivers have increased sharply. Alcohol-involved fatalities have increased by 33 percent, and drug-involved fatalities are up 133 percent compared to the same time last year.

"While I'm glad to see traffic fatalities are down this year compared to last year, the increase in fatal crashes involving suspected impaired drivers is concerning," Attorney General Knudsen said. "Never drive under the influence of alcohol or drugs. Plan ahead for a sober ride home and remember each driver on the road has a responsibility to keep Montanans and our roads safe."

"As more Montanans and visitors travel our roads this summer and enjoy our beautiful state, we want everyone to arrive safely at their destination," MHP Colonel Kurt Sager said. "Too many lives are lost each year because of preventable decisions like impaired or distracted driving. We ask that everyone does their part and drive responsibly." Simple rules to follow so everyone can make it home safely and enjoy the summer with their families:

- Never drive impaired by alcohol or drugs
- Always wear your seatbelts, and make sure your passengers are buckled up
- Obey posted speed limits and slow down
- Eliminate distractions inside your vehicle
- Plan ahead for longer travel times during busy holiday weekends

Letter to the Editor

I am writing this letter in support of Ken Walsh for House District 69. I have known Ken since the late 1960's and attended Montana State University in Bozeman with him. I consider Ken a friend and a good businessman as we were colleagues in Banking for many years. Ken holds a master's degree from MSU in agriculture and taught Agricultural Education and was an FFA advisor. He successfully served as the General Manager of the NILE in Billings for several years. He returned to the Ruby Valley to help manage the family ranch and became part owner of the Ruby Valley National Bank with branches in Twin Bridges and Sheridan. He served as president of the bank and under his leadership, the bank prospered. Ken is an honest man with good common sense with a proven track record in the Montana legislature. He is proud to be a loyal Republican and is a conservative. Ken is willing to reach across the aisle and work with both parties when it is for the good of his constituents, rather than voting a straight party line. Ken is a supporter of our State's agriculture, mining, timber, education and recreation and to help enhance our rural way of life. While Ken's opponent is "willing" to learn and listen about various issues, Ken has successfully experienced the issues, listens to both sides before making a decision and supports the people he serves. The attack ads against Ken are being largely funded by out of state dark money that has no connection to our local communities and economy. These PACs want to have the power to control decisions for Montanans that threaten not only our economy, employment, public lands, and natural resources, but also the kind of Montana we want for future generations. Ken truly cares about the well-being of Montana and the people he serves in HD69. I encourage you to vote for Ken in the Montana primary election and remember that there is nothing wrong with having a little gray in your whiskers
