Bookstore Hosts Author Sue Kerver

Author Sue Kerver will be signing copies of her new book "The Starfish Chronicles: Rising from Trauma Through Faith, Friendship and Fly Fishing", a powerful memoir about healing, hope, and resilience at The Bookstore on Saturday, June 6th. The author writes about reclaiming voice, reconnecting with the Warrior Woman Spirit, and learning to follow the quiet glimmers that lead us home. Spanning landscapes from African Savannahs to America's wild rivers and coastlines, this book traces an eight-year journey of healing after service in the Peace Corps and the U.S. Coast Guard. It tells the honest, unvarnished truth about living with trauma, without shortcuts, and without pretending healing is linear. Through nature, intuition relearned, and the steady presence of community, this memoir explores healing as embodied, relational, and deeply human. This is a story for anyone navigating transition, burnout, or the invisible wounds that stem from anxiety, depression, PTSD and MST, and for those ready to reconnect with purpose, trust their inner wisdom. When we share our stories, we shine together.

shared in this book and will join Sue during the reading and signing. This poignant memoir traces Sue's journey through her 8-year healing journey. But the story is so much more than a memoir. Reading like a novel, The Starfish Chronicles captures the heart and spirit of how nature, friends and faith can lead to profound hope and a new way of life. A must read for anyone going through transition or unsure of their next right steps. Please join us at the Bookstore from 2:00-3:30. Artists Invited to Submit Work for Gallery of Hope Fundraiser

The Women's Resource Center (WRC) is seeking original artwork for the 2026 Gallery of Hope fundraiser. Submissions inspired by the theme "Inspiring Healing" are accepted through July 13, 2026.

Presented in partnership with Resolute Roots Realty and Vessey Properties, Gallery of Hope celebrates the power of creativity while raising awareness and support for the WRC's services for survivors of domestic and sexual violence. Artists are invited to participate by submitting original work for display throughout the Ruby Valley and Madison Valley from July 20 through August 19, leading up to the Gallery of Hope event on August 22 in Ennis. Donated artwork will be featured in the evening's silent auction, with proceeds benefiting the WRC and the individuals and families it serves.

Artists of all ages working in any medium are encouraged to participate. The exhibition welcomes painting, drawing, photography, sculpture, fiber arts, and other forms of creative expression. Each artist may submit up to three original works. Submission guidelines and entry forms are available at tinyurl.com/WRCGalleryofHope.

Since 1977, the WRC has provided free, confidential services, including crisis intervention, advocacy, outreach and education, and emergency shelter for survivors and their families throughout Southwest Montana.

For submission guidelines and event details, please contact Resolute Roots Realty at 406-842-5973 or visit the Resolute Roots Realty or Women's Resource Center Facebook pages. Join us in creating an evening of hope, healing, and connection through art.

1976 "Bannack Days"

1976...The bicentennial of the USA. People of Beaverhead County were celebrating in many ways, including groups who did a variety of activities at Bannack and called it Heritage Days. It was later renamed Bannack Days and has continued for 50 years.

During the 2026 Bannack Days, Bannack State Park wants to honor those who helped establish Heritage/Bannack Days in 1976. If you or someone you know were there, please contact the park at 406-834-3413 or Arlis Vannett at 406-925- 2209.

WILDFIRE UPDATE - DUBOIS

OFFICIAL FIRE INFORMATION

Located northwest of Dillon in the East Pioneers, between Bond Lake and Deerhead Lake and below Torrey Mountain, the Dubois Fire is estimated at less than an acre.

Firefighters will take a helicopter recon flight this morning and work to establish access to the area which is inaccessible by vehicles.

The fire is burning in steep, rocky terrain in heavy standing dead ("snags") and downed lodgepine pine. Fire behavior has been limited to creeping and smoldering.

Smoke may be visible from Interstate 15 from Divide to Dillon and from the eastern valleys from Twin Bridges to Sheridan.

PITCH

By"Swede" Troedsson

During the 1980s I was tasked with revising the Timber Management Plan for the Beaverhead National Forest in southwestern Montana. The Timber Management Plan established the maximum annual forest timber cut volume. What followed were public information sessions to solicit public comment on the proposed revised annual cut.

Joe Egan, the head big game biologist for Region 3 of The Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks (FWP), headquartered in Bozeman, attended the meetings. Joe was a contentious individual who had strong issues with forest programs affecting wildlife. To put it bluntly, Joe was not fond of our clearcuts!

During this scoping period, a public forum on clearcuts was held in Butte. The Dean of the Forestry School in Missoula chaired the panel, which was also comprised of Joe, representing FWP, a Forest Service representative, and a representative of an environmental group located in Hamilton, Montana.

At the conclusion of the meeting, I happened to run into Joe as the meeting was breaking up. We acknowledged each other's presence, as we approached one another. Several other FWP wildlife biologists, who were aware of the strained relationship between Joe and me, closed in on us to listen to our conversation.

With a straight face, I politely informed Joe that I had learned a lot from the panel and the public input. I said that I would make a concerted effort to improve the appearances of future clearcuts that I laid out.

Then, I wryly smiled and quipped that the next clearcut I laid out would spell out the words "Hi Joe"!

With an equally sarcastic grin Joe responded "Swede, do you know what happens to people in Hell who smell like pitch?"

Based on my knowledge derived from my twenty years tenure on the Beaverhead National Forest, recent timber survey data, public input, and my conviction that there were important values other than just timber production on this forest, led me to recommend a reduction of one third from the previous annual programmed cut.

The blow-back against my timber harvest reduction recommendation from within the Forest Service was fierce, because our timber program funding was based on the annual programmed cut. I was threatened with a transfer to the Powell Ranger District in Idaho (aka "Siberia"). I firmly stated that I would not sign the revised Timber Management Plan if my recommendation for the reduced annual cut was not upheld.

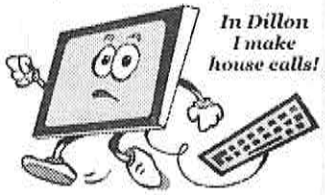

I stuck to my principals, the reduced annual cut was upheld, and I remained in Dillon, Montana.

City of Dillon Seeking Applicants for Mayor and Director of Operations Positions

The City of Dillon is currently accepting applications for two important leadership positions: Mayor and Director of Operations.

The openings come as the city works to fill the vacancy in the Mayor's Office following the resignation of Mayor Mike Klakken and continues its search for a Director of Operations to oversee several key city departments.

Applications Being Accepted for Mayor Appointment

The Dillon City Council is seeking qualified residents interested in being appointed to serve as Mayor until a successor is elected and qualified during the 2027 general election.

According to the city, the council plans to appoint a mayor during its July 1, 2026, City Council meeting. Applications must be submitted by June 26, 2026, at noon.

Under Montana law, applicants must:

Be at least 21 years old.

Be a registered voter in Montana.

Have been a Montana resident for at least three years.

Have been a resident of the City of Dillon for at least two years preceding the appointment.

Meet all other legal qualifications for office.

Interested candidates are asked to submit:

A letter of interest explaining why they want to serve as mayor and their qualifications.

A resume or professional summary outlining education, experience, and community involvement.

Any additional supporting materials they wish the City Council to consider.

Applications may be submitted in person, by mail, or by email to the Dillon City Clerk's Office at 125 N. Idaho Street.

Director of Operations Position Open

The City of Dillon is also accepting applications for the position of Director of Operations.

The Director of Operations supervises, directs, and plans the daily activities of the city's water and sewer, street and alley, cemetery, bus service, animal control, and parks departments.

The position also includes enforcement of city codes and ordinances.

Minimum qualifications include:

A valid Montana driver's license.

A bachelor's degree in public administration, business administration, political science, business management, or a related field from an accredited college or university; or

Five years of experience as a municipal administrator; or

A combination of education and experience that meets the requirements.

Applicants for the Director of Operations position are asked to submit a city application, resume, and cover letter to the City Clerk's Office at 125 N. Idaho Street.

The mayoral application deadline is June 26, 2026, at 12:00 p.m. The City Council is expected to make the appointment during its July 1 meeting.

For additional information regarding the mayoral appointment process, contact City Clerk Kami Hoerning at 406-683-4245.
