Dorothy Marie Reid

Dorothy Marie Reid was born to Elmer and Melba (Webster) Sorenson on 3 December 1933 in Dillon, Montana. She spent her entire life in Beaverhead County. She was a proud graduate of Beaverhead County High School. Dorothy passed away on 4 June 2026 at her home surrounded by loving family.

She married Harold Reid and they created a family of 4 boys. They were together for 21 years and divorced. She was a very loving mother who worked hard to support and raise her 4 boys and grandsons. She was a very hard worker from a young age and worked for 20 years at Barrett Minerals before retiring.

Taking care of her home and yard were very important to her but the most important thing to her was taking care of and watching over her boys.

As the Lord called her home to be with Him and her family, they were all rejoicing to be able to welcome her home and to once again feel her love as their mother and grandmother and celebrate the hard worker that they knew she was.

She is missed, loved, and respected by many. Dorothy is now the angel she deserves to be.

She is preceded in death by her mother and father, sisters Nancy Ann, Carol Rose, brother Donald, sons Danny Tom, and Clifford Reid, grandson Andy Higgins, and best friend Del Tucker.

She is survived by son Douglas Reid, grandson Zack Reid, brother Lynn (Louise) Sorenson.

As per Dorothy's request there will be no services.

Arrangements are under the care of Affordable Funeral and Cremation Services.

Clara Gerringa

Our family invites you to join us as we gather to honor the life and memory of our beloved mother, Clara Gerringa.

We invite close family and friends to join us for a graveside interment service at Mountain View Cemetary in Dillon on Saturday, June 27, at 10:00 a.m.

Immediately following the service, please join us for a reception in the banquet room, at the Andrus Hotel, where we will gather to share fond memories and celebrate Clara's life.

Your support, prayers, and kindness have brought our family so much comfort during this difficult time.

Montana Department of Justice uncovers over $1 million in fraudulent Medicaid claims, files charges

The Montana Department of Justice's Medicaid Fraud Control Unit (MFCU) recently uncovered over $1 million in fraudulent Medicaid claims and filed charges in the two cases, Attorney General Austin Knudsen announced today. The investigations were part of President Trump's National Health Care Fraud Takedown to combat fraud, waste, and abuse to protect taxpayer-funded programs.

"I am pleased to see the Trump Administration working with us to identify and combat fraud," Attorney General Knudsen said. "At the Montana Department of Justice, we are committed to protecting hardworking Montanans' money and making sure programs for those in need aren't a payday for criminals. If you cheat the system, we will hold you accountable."

Alison Watt, 55, of Billings, owner of Beautiful Directions Counseling, was charged with Medicaid fraud and false claim to a public agency for fraudulently billing Medicaid for services she did not personally provide. Watt submitted claims totaling $249,587.92, resulting in $134,042.28 in fraudulent Medicaid reimbursements. Watt billed Medicaid for counseling services provided by interns who were unauthorized to bill Medicaid independently, while representing herself as the provider.

Victoria Davenport, 60, of Great Falls, a licensed counselor and owner of Enlightening Minds, The GYST House, and The GYST House 2, was charged with two counts of Medicaid fraud, two counts of false claim to a public agency, and one count of tampering with or fabricating physical evidence for submitted claims totaling $2,300,729.65 and received $1,243,131.17 in fraudulent Medicaid reimbursements. Davenport billed Medicaid for counseling services provided by unlicensed staff and submitted these claims under her name as if she were the provider. The Department of Homeland Security confirmed that Davenport was out of the country for 217 claims submitted to Medicaid that listed her as the treating provider. After receiving notification of an official investigation pending against her and multiple requests for records, Davenport submitted altered documentation to the MFCU.

The MFCU investigated both cases, and Assistant Attorney General Alexandra van Belle is prosecuting. The investigations are part of the White House Task Force to Eliminate Fraud that was established by President Trump to strengthen partnerships with state and local governments, protect taxpayer dollars, and ensure government assistance programs, such as Medicaid and SNAP, are directed to those who need them.

Additionally, Laural Suydam, 46, of Helena, was convicted of theft for receiving $3,790.87 in fraudulent Medicaid reimbursements. Suydam worked as a personal care attendant for A Plus Healthcare, providing in-house medical assistance to a Montana Medicaid recipient. In 2024, Suydam submitted documentation to A Plus Healthcare stating that she had provided care to a patient, even though the patient denied that it occurred. The electronic visit verification, which uses GPS, placed her at locations other than the patient's residence. Suydam also submitted documentation that she provided care on a date when the patient was incarcerated. A Plus Healthcare billed Medicaid and received reimbursement based on this falsified documentation and issued Suydam a paycheck.

Suydam received a 3-year suspended sentence to the Montana Department of Corrections. Suydam was also ordered to pay full restitution and not act as a healthcare provider or personal care attendant for three years.

The MFCU is part of the Montana Department of Justice's Division of Criminal Investigation, which is overseen by Attorney General Knudsen and is responsible for investigating and prosecuting healthcare providers who defraud the Montana Medicaid program or who abuse, neglect, or exploit patients in Medicaid-funded care facilities.

Stevens Amendment Compliance Statement

The Montana Medicaid Fraud Control Unit receives 75 percent of its funding from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services under a grant award totaling $939,984 for the federal fiscal year (FY) 2026. The remaining 25 percent, totaling $313,325 for FY 2026, is funded by the State of Montana.

Bucks Outlast Cubs in Game One, Roll to Sweep in Nightcap

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

The Dillon Cubs traveled to Bozeman on Tuesday for an American Legion doubleheader against the Bozeman Bucks at Heroes Park at Legion Field. Despite a strong offensive showing in the opener, the Cubs were unable to come away with a victory as the Bucks swept the twin bill by scores of 11-9 and 12-2.

Bucks Rally Late to Take Opener

The first game was a back-and-forth battle that remained tied heading into the bottom of the fifth inning before Bozeman pulled away for an 11-9 victory.

Dillon struck first in the opening inning when Andrew Bartlome drove in a run with a ground out. Bozeman answered quickly, scoring four runs in the bottom half of the inning. Dawsen Lewis highlighted the rally with a two-run triple while Jack Rainey added an RBI single.

The Cubs responded in a big way in the second inning, scoring five runs on four hits to take a 6-4 lead. Tristan Alvarez delivered the biggest hit of the inning, blasting a double that drove in three runs.

Bozeman regained the advantage in the fourth inning behind RBI hits from Lewis and Rainey before Brock Fors drove in another run on a fielder's choice.

Dillon battled back once again in the fifth. Bartlome singled to center field to tie the game at 9-9, but the deadlock was short-lived. In the bottom of the inning, Quinn Haarer ripped a two-run triple to give the Bucks the lead for good.

Kanin Engelhardt started on the mound for Dillon, striking out six batters over four innings. The Cubs collected 10 hits in the contest, led by Engelhardt, Bartlome, and Cohen Hartman with two hits each.

Alvarez and Bartlome drove in three runs apiece, while Hartman reached base multiple times, drew two walks, and stole two bases.

Bozeman finished with 11 hits. Lewis and Rainey each drove in three runs, while Haarer's late triple proved to be the difference.

Bozeman Uses Big Innings in Game Two

The Bucks carried their momentum into game two, using a pair of explosive innings to earn a 12-2 victory.

Dillon grabbed an early lead when Trenton Moreni drove in a run with a ground out in the top of the first inning.

Bozeman quickly answered with five runs in the bottom half of the inning. Isaac Ashcraft delivered the key blow, lacing a two-run triple to help the Bucks take control.

The game broke open in the third inning when Bozeman erupted for seven more runs. Ryan Graham, Treak Tasker, Isaac Ashcraft, and Quinn Haarer all contributed RBI hits during the inning as the Bucks stretched their lead to 12-1.

Brock Fors earned the win for Bozeman, allowing just two runs on five hits over five innings while striking out three.

Breyden Vrooman took the loss for Dillon after Bozeman's strong offensive start.

Cohen Hartman continued his productive day at the plate, collecting two hits and stealing two bases. Hartman and Moreni each drove in a run for the Cubs.

Bozeman pounded out 12 hits in the nightcap. Ashcraft and Tasker each drove in two runs, while Jack Rainey added two hits.

The Cubs will look to bounce back Friday when they return home to host the Post 56 Knights AA.

Veteran's Corner Update

By Mike Lawson

For many of us Veterans it's a privilege to continue to serve Veterans, our communities, the needy, the underprivileged and list goes on. Our pay is the satisfaction of knowing we helped make a difference in helping others. Toys For Tots, DAV Van Transportation and many other ways are how we reach out to help or lend a hand. The needs are sometimes overwhelming but it's one step at a time. Whether your a veteran or not, please consider something you would feel comfortable doing to volunteer and help others. The need is there to help others and is an inspiration at it's finest.

"Less scroll, more soul: Turn screen time into me time", was the catchy title of a VA Live whole Health article that I recently read. I catch myself scrolling the internet reading email, news, reels, etc., etc., and three or fours later I become aware of the fact I wasted that much time that I should have used elsewhere. It becomes an addiction I don't like. Screen time is part of everyday life now, for better or worst. When we overdo it, it can make us feel distracted, disconnected, and drained. To turn some of that screen time into "me time", some chooses of activities are suggested to support your Whole Health.

Some simple ways are suggested to recharge without screens:

1. Take a walk outside in fresh air or play in the garden
2. Stretch or move your body
3. Practice prayer, meditation or deep breathing.
4. Spend time with friends or family.
5. Write in a journal and reflect on the day

These small shifts can boost your mood, support better focus, sleep and lessen stress. They can also help a person have a more balanced relationship with the screens and technology in one's life. The VA has many resources and tools to help one recharge in supporting your total health. For more information check ii out va.gov/wholehealth.

Summertime is always a time of seeing new life spring forth, rather it Is baby animals like sheep and cattle, or our croplands seeing crops like hay , corn, wheat grow to one day be harvested to feed our citizens. Lets give thanks to our farmers and ranchers who work hard for our benefit in these trying times of turmoil.

Until next time, take care.

Troy Andersen Gives Back to Hometown with Annual Youth Football Camp

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

Tuesday afternoon, former Beaverhead County High School standout and current NFL player Troy Andersen returned to his hometown once again to host his annual youth football camp at Vigilante Field in Dillon.

Andersen, a Beaverhead County High School graduate, built an impressive football career in Dillon before continuing his success at Montana State University, where he became one of the most decorated athletes in Bobcat football history. His outstanding collegiate career led to him being selected by the Atlanta Falcons in the second round of the 2022 NFL Draft.

Despite reaching the highest level of football, Andersen has never forgotten where he came from.

Each summer, he returns to Dillon to provide local youth with an opportunity to learn the game he loves while giving back to the community that helped shape him.

The free camp is open to children entering third through eighth grade and draws young athletes from across the area. Throughout the day, participants rotate through football drills, skill stations, mini games, and fundamental training exercises designed to help improve their athletic abilities while having fun.

In addition to learning football fundamentals, campers have the unique opportunity to interact with Andersen, other NFL players, Dillon Beavers athletes, and local volunteers who help make the event possible.

The camp focuses not only on football skills but also on sportsmanship, teamwork, and encouraging young athletes to work hard toward their goals.

For many local children, the annual camp has become a summer tradition they eagerly anticipate each year. The chance to spend time with a hometown hero who has achieved success on the national stage provides inspiration and motivation for young athletes dreaming of following in Andersen's footsteps.

As another successful camp came to a close Tuesday afternoon, hundreds of smiles, memories, and lessons learned served as a reminder of the positive impact Andersen continues to have on the Dillon community.

While his football career has taken him to NFL stadiums across the country, Troy Andersen's commitment to giving back to his hometown remains as strong as ever.

Attorney General Knudsen leads 23-state effort asking Senate leadership to confirm Todd Blanche as U.S. Attorney General

Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen led a coalition of 22-state attorneys general in urging the United States Senate to confirm Acting Attorney General Todd Blanche as the next attorney general of the United States.

In the letter sent today to Chairman of the U.S. Senate Committee on the Judiciary Senator Charles Grassley, Ranking Member Senator Richard Durbin, and members of the committee, Attorney General Knudsen urged the Senate to confirm Blanche to lead the U.S. Department of Justice. Blanche has shown exemplary commitment to public safety, combating fraud against taxpayer dollars, and dedication to strengthening partnerships with state attorneys general. Under his leadership, the U.S. Department of Justice has won 80 percent of its cases before the U.S. Supreme Court. Additionally, the nation has experienced its lowest murder rate since 1900, while federal law enforcement efforts have increased to apprehend violent criminals, gangs, cartels, terrorists, and transnational criminal organizations.

"At a time when Americans expect their government to protect communities from violent crime, narcotics trafficking, human trafficking, terrorism, and organized criminal activity, Todd Blanche has shown an ability to deliver real results," Attorney General Knudsen wrote. "His record reflects a commitment to public safety, vigorous enforcement of federal law, and effective stewardship of the Department of Justice.

Attorneys general from Alabama, Alaska, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah and West Virginia also signed onto Knudsen's letter.

Now Hiring: Patient Access Specialist at Blacktail Health

Are you someone who loves helping others and thrives in a fast paced, people focused environment? Do you enjoy being the friendly face (or voice) that makes someone's day a little easier? If so, you might be the perfect fit for our Blacktail Health Patient Access Specialist role!

As a Patient Access Specialist, you'll be the first point of contact for our patients—providing exceptional service while ensuring every visit starts smoothly. You will:

- Greet and register patients with warmth and professionalism
- Verify insurance and assist with general questions
- Schedule appointments and coordinate services
- Support patients through the check in/out process
- Work closely with clinical teams to keep care seamless and efficient

We'd love to meet you if you:

- Have excellent communication and customer service skills
- Are detail oriented and tech savvy
- Can multitask and stay organized under pressure
- Bring empathy, patience, and professionalism to every interaction
- Enjoy working as part of a supportive, mission-driven team

What We Offer

- Competitive pay
- Comprehensive benefits
- Opportunities for growth and advancement
- A collaborative, values driven workplace
- The chance to truly impact patient experiences every day
