Rodney Donald McRae

It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Rodney Donald McRae, who passed away peacefully on June 20, 2026, at the age of 72, after a courageous battle with esophageal cancer.

Rod was born on December 29,1953, in Miles City to Ina and Donald McRae. Rod built a life filled with adventures, ambition, love, and laughter. He proudly served his country in the United States Marine Corps as a jet engine mechanic and a flight engineer from 1972-1976. In 1978, he got his A&P license from Northrup University and went to work for SAT/CIA until 1982. RD studied electronics, and graduated valedictorian from Miles City Community College. He then pursued an electrical engineering degree from Montana State University and subsequently worked for SSR Engineers, Vigilante Electric, Montana Electric Supply, and then eventually started his own company, RM Reps. Along the way, he acquired an orchard, which became a labor of love and a retirement hobby for Gwen and Rod. RD was happiest when he was BBQing, golfing, fishing, tinkering with any number of projects at his shop, working in the orchard, and traveling the country with his bride. Rod was truly a phenomenal man, known for his unwavering kindness, infectious humor, humility and work ethic.

Rod is survived by his wife, Gwen McRae; his mother Ina McRae; his siblings Alan McRae, Rich/Debbie McRae, Chris/Sam DeBoer, Marge McRae; and his children, Zach (Kelsey) McRae, Josh (Kristen) McRae, Caity (Chance) Mayer, Chris (Terra) Dyk, Lisa Alex (Stefan Burandt), and Tyler Dyk. He is preceded in death by his father, Donald; siblings Clark and Lana; and step-son Kory Dyk.

A memorial service will be held on July 16, 2026, at 10:00 am at The Lake Funeral Home in Polson, Montana. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in Rod's honor to the Mission Valley Junior Golf Association, 111 Bayview Drive, Polson, MT 59860, or the Mission Valley Elks Lodge #1695, 512 Main Street, Polson, MT 59860. Messages of condolence may be shared with the family online at www.lakefuneralhomeandcremation.com.

Arrangements are under the care of The Lake Funeral Home and Crematory.

Peas~

Peas are a wonderful addition to any garden. As nitrogen fixers, they enrich the soil and support the health of surrounding companion plants and because they grow vertically, they make the most of your bed space without crowding it. They're frost tolerant and resilient so you can get them in the ground early, and trust them to ride out the unpredictable swings of spring and early summer weather variability. Give them a trellis, let them reach out and grab hold, and watch them grow. Whether you choose snap or sweet pea varieties, they'll bring fresh, bright flavor to salads and stir-fries alike.

Nutritionally, they're well-rounded too, offering vitamin C, K, and A, along with folate (B9), calcium, fiber, and plant-based protein. Together these support immune function, eye health, gut health, and heart health, among others. Like most whole foods, peas also deliver a spectrum of antioxidants that work to reduce inflammation and protect long-term cellular health. Perhaps best of all, that first harvest delivers something no supplement can: an early, earned sense of accomplishment in the garden.

Good health is built day by day, starting with real food.

Attorney General Knudsen issues statement on SCOTUS decision protecting women's rights

Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen issued the following statement following the Supreme Court of the United States' (SCOTUS) decision in West Virginia v. B.P.J. and Little v. Hecox, which will protect women in the locker room and keep competition fair in women's sporting events.

"Today, we celebrate a huge victory for women's and girls' rights and safety in Montana and across the country. The laws affirmed are common sense: men should not be allowed in women's locker rooms or to compete in women's sports. My hope is that moving forward women and girls can feel safe in the locker room and have the opportunity to participate in fair competitions, just as Title IX and generations of women before them fought for and intended."

Attorney General Knudsen joined two briefs in defense of laws passed in West Virginia and Idaho to protect women's rights. West Virginia's law required athletic teams to be designated based on biological sex at birth and bans boys from playing in girls' sports. Idaho's law banned transgender athletes from participating in women's and girls' sports.

Attorney General Knudsen has led the charge to protect women and defend Title IX. In 2021, the State Legislature passed the "Save Women's Sports Act," that banned men from participating in girls' sports.

During his first term as Attorney General, he fought the Biden administration's war on Title IX and women's rights, which put the safety of girls at risk. In 2024, he was granted a preliminary injunction after he sued the Biden administration over an unlawful Title IX rule that would have prohibited schools from distinguishing between males and females in athletic and educational opportunities.

He also fought against the attempt to put federal funding at risk if states didn't adopt radical gender ideology – from school lunch programs to Medicaid. He defended women against rules that walked back years of progress in sports and threatened the safety of girls by undermining equal access to athletics which redefined "sex" in Title IX to include "gender identity" which ignored science and undid the longstanding definition of biological sex.

FOOTBALL BOOKS

The Soroptimist of Dillon are selling football books for Sunday, Monday and Thursday night football $10 each. There will be one winner per night for each night, $25 per game paid, with at least 17 chances for each nights book. The payout is based on the final score of each of the games.

You don't have to know anything about football, you do not have to watch football, Soroptimist keeps track of the winner for each game and will notify the winner after the games.

Books are available from Womack's Printing, 126 N. Montana St.

Road Construction Complete

The Montana Department of Transportation (MDT) and its partner Jeffery Contracting, LLC have completed work on a section of Montana Highway 91 (MT 91) south of Dillon near Carrigan Lane. The road is now open to traffic.

This project was completed in a single season and enhanced safety by easing the sharp curve of the highway, widening paved shoulders, and flattening roadside slopes. The project also upgraded roadway signage, pavement markings, and striping, in addition to adding rumble strips.

TEDx University of Montana Western Videos Released from 2026 Spring Conference

The University of Montana Western is proud to announce that eight talks from the spring TEDx University of Montana Western conference, held on March 21, 2026, have been published on the TEDx Talks YouTube channel.

Each of the 2026 TEDx talks is available to watch individually by visiting https://www.umwestern.edu/tedx-umw/gallery/.

The mission of TEDx U of Montana Western is to strengthen the academic culture of our campus, inspire our students to think more critically about the world, and expand interdepartmental collaboration.

Sponsored by the Fund for Experience One, the conference provides a multidisciplinary forum for academic minds to gather and exchange ideas worth sharing. Speakers selected to present at TEDx University of Montana Western are directly connected to the local community or present topics that support Montana Western's mission and values. TEDx University of Montana Western showcases the diversity and academic excellence of our institution while providing a venue for speakers to share their research and ideas with a global audience.

2026 Speakers:

Beth Bennett, Ph.D. | What Rural America Taught Me About Hope
Lori G. Byron, MD, MS | Making Health More Sustainable with Climate Action
Cody Ferguson, Ph.D., AICP | How History Can Future-Proof Rural Communities
Nicole Jarvis, MS | Resilience as Symbiotic Relationship
Abigail McClaflin | Healing the Soil, Healing Our Communities
Pedro Marques, MSc | AI Can't Make Nature
Ted Montalvo | Changing Mindsets in a Convenience Culture
Illumindance Theatre | With music by the Sacred Earth Drummers and Djembe Aya

TEDx University of Montana Western plans to host its next conference on March 18, 2028. Those who believe they have an idea worth spreading are encouraged to apply to become a speaker by visiting: https://www.umwestern.edu/tedx-umw/application/

To learn more about TEDx University of Montana Western, visit: https://www.umwestern.edu/tedx-umw/

These are all day camps for children entering Kindergarten through 7th grade for the 2026-27 school year. The children are engaged in fun, active, and intellectual games and activities throughout the day. Classes that help prevent summer learning loss. Each week the children will explore a theme and towards the end of the week, they will take a field trip to further enhance that theme. This is a spectacular opportunity provided by your local YMCA. Sign-ups start May 1st make sure you reserve your child's spot today and be guaranteed a spot!

Swim Lessons

Summer swim lessons #3 starts July 13th. Spots are limited, sign up soon!
