Gail Lynn Zarr

May 28, 1941 - August 28, 2026

Gail Lynn Zarr passed away peacefully at Barrett Hospital in Dillon, Montana on August 28, 2026. Born to John and Zora (Taras) Harant, Gail had nine brothers and sisters.

Gail was born on May 28, 1941, in Great Falls, Montana and grew up in Black Eagle, Montana. She graduated from Great Falls High School.

On May 30, 1962, she was united in marriage to Ronald Zarr in Black Eagle.

Gail worked at Cascade Electric as a secretary and eventually became a teacher's assistant for handicapped children. Gail was a 4-H leader for many years and a lifetime member of the Great Falls Flower Growers Club. She was also a member of the Great Falls Snowmobile Club and the Ponderosa Snow Warriors snowmobile club in Lincoln, Montana.

Gail enjoyed gardening, cooking, snowmobiling, four wheeling, and traveling. One of her greatest joys was going to Lincoln to the house she and her husband Ron built.

Gail is survived by her daughter Pam (Kelly) McKeever, her son Ron (Julie) Zarr, and her beloved grandpuppies Maddie, Hank, Porter, and Lager.

Gail was a devoted daughter, sister, wife, mother, and friend. She has chosen to be cremated. Funeral services will be held at a later date.

Arrangements are under the direction of Brundage Funeral Home. Condolences for the family may be posted online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com

FREE SOBER RIDES RETURNS FOR 2026

Free Sober Rides will return for Labor Day weekend 2026, providing free transportation Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights, Sept. 4-6, from 6 p.m. to 2:30 a.m. The program gives residents and visitors a simple alternative to driving after drinking during Dillon's busiest celebration weekend.

Riders can request a ride by scanning the QR code on 2026 Free Sober Rides posters and social posts. The service is designed to remove the vehicle—and the temptation to drive—from the equation. Riders are encouraged to plan ahead, request a ride before they need one and allow extra time during peak demand.

"One decision can change a family forever. Montana's numbers make the risk impossible to dismiss, especially in a rural county like ours. Free Sober Rides gives people an easy, judgment-free choice: leave the keys, scan the code and let a sober driver get you where you need to go. We would much rather help arrange a ride than prosecute another DUI—or see another preventable tragedy."

— Sky Jones, Beaverhead County Attorney

A strong local record—and a reason to keep choosing safety. Program organizers report no traffic fatalities during the Free Sober Rides Labor Day weekend operating periods over the four campaigns led from 2022 through 2025. The program has also grown sharply: it transported 825 passengers in 2023, 1,523 in 2024 and a record 1,629 in 2025. Fourteen drivers served riders in 2025, and DUI arrests during the weekend fell from 12 in 2024 to five in 2025. Arrest totals alone do not prove cause and effect, but the combination of free rides, visible law enforcement and community promotion gives people more reasons—and more ways—not to drive impaired.

The statewide stakes are especially high in rural Montana impaired-driving crashes accounted for 41% of all traffic fatalities and serious injuries in Montana from 2014 through 2023. Those crashes killed 1,257 people and seriously injured 2,799 more—a combined 4,056 lives changed. The rural pattern is particularly relevant in Beaverhead County: 81% of Montana's impaired-driving fatalities and serious injuries occurred in rural areas.

The preventive message is straightforward: decide how you will get home before the first drink. Never ride with an impaired driver. Wear a seat belt on every trip. If someone is about to drive impaired, take the keys, help arrange a sober ride or call 911 when there is an immediate danger.

Community partners make every ride possible

The 2026 campaign is supported by Pioneer State Bank, Beaverhead County, the Dillon Jaycee Rodeo and Vigilante Electric Cooperative, together with the Beaverhead County DUI Prevention Task Force, participating businesses, law enforcement, dispatchers and drivers. Their combined support helps keep rides free and reinforces a shared expectation: celebrate fully, plan ahead and do not drink and drive.

How to use Free Sober Rides

- Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 4–6, 2026
- 6 p.m. to 2:30 a.m. each night
- Scan the QR code on official 2026 Free

Sober Rides materials to request a ride

- Expect heavier demand during peak hours and request early whenever possible

Cilantro: The Herb That Does More Than Garnish

Many overlook the power of herbs to amplify our food, but cilantro is one that packs a real punch, both in flavor and in health benefits. It's surprisingly nutrient-dense for how little of it we typically use: a good source of vitamins K and A, along with antioxidants and fiber, content that together supports healthy inflammation response, eye health, heart health, and blood sugar balance.

Fun fact: if cilantro tastes like soap to you, you're not imagining it. A genetic variation in how some people's smell receptors process the herb makes it taste soapy rather than bright and citrusy. No judgment either way; more for the rest of us!

One of my favorite ways to use cilantro is fresh from the garden, tossed into a family favorite, pico de gallo, made with our just-harvested tomatoes. Many recipes tell you to salt the tomatoes first and drain the juices. I disagree. In our house, that juice at the end is just as sought-after, good to the last drop!

Simple Pico de Gallo:

Dice tomatoes, add diced onion and chopped fresh cilantro, combine with a dash of salt. Voilà — enjoy with corn chips, or spooned over eggs, burritos, you name it.

As always, if you can, reach for organic cilantro — it's one of the herbs where pesticide residue tends to run higher, so sourcing matters.

Good health is built day by day, starting with real food. Written by Amber Barone BSN, RN Holistic Nurse & Founder of Mighty Oak Mercantile
