Pickup and ATV Trailer Go Airborne in I-15 Crash Near Red Rock Exit

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

A driver was transported to the hospital Monday afternoon after a pickup pulling a trailer carrying two four-wheelers left Interstate 15 near mile marker 39, just before the Red Rock exit.

The pickup was traveling northbound on I-15 when the driver appeared to have fallen asleep, causing the vehicle to leave the roadway and strike a guardrail.

After hitting the guardrail, the pickup and trailer traveled over the embankment before the truck struck a pile of dirt that acted as a ramp. The pickup then became airborne and cleared the roadway running beneath the interstate off-ramp before crashing into an embankment on the opposite side.

When first responders arrived, the driver was already out of the vehicle and walking around. The driver had lacerations to the head and was evaluated by emergency medical personnel at the scene.

The driver was subsequently transported by ambulance to the hospital for further evaluation.

No additional information was immediately available regarding the driver's condition.

The cause of the crash remains under investigation, and the apparent possibility that the driver fell asleep has not been confirmed by investigating authorities.

Health Minute

Rhubarb~

Are people utilizing their backyard rhubarb? Behind that tart bite is genuine goodness. It's an excellent source of vitamin K, fiber, and antioxidants, to name a few. Together these nutrients support digestion, bone health, and heart health. Vitamin K helps the body use calcium for stronger bones, fiber keeps digestion moving and supports healthy cholesterol, and antioxidants help clean up free radicals.

This week I turned mine into a rhubarb and blackberry compote — letting the berries carry most of the sweetness, with no pectin needed since rhubarb's own fibrous strands thicken it naturally as it cooks. It's delicious over meats, with cheese, or spooned over shortcake with homemade whipped cream. Your kitchen may look like a tornado hit it afterwards, but totally worth it! Sweets like this, made from real food and enjoyed in moderation, are a treat worth keeping in the rotation.

A simple starting point: rhubarb, blackberries (or whatever berry you like and have — preferably grown yourself), a little cinnamon, salt, and sugar to taste, all simmered together. You can either water-bath process for the pantry and/or freeze some for later, but be sure to put some in the fridge for enjoyment right away. Play with the ratios until it tastes like you.

Good health is built day by day, starting with real food. Written by Amber Barone BSN, RN Holistic Nurse & Founder of Mighty Oak Mercantile.

Bear attacks hunter south of Augusta

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks is investigating a bear attack on a hunter on state-owned land near Elk Creek and Haystack Butte south of Augusta.

The victim was archery hunting on the morning of Sept. 14 when he encountered the bear and was attacked, sustaining significant but fortunately not life-threatening injuries. The hunter drove himself home after the attack and was transported to Benefis Hospital by private vehicle for treatment.

FWP's priority is human safety, and game wardens and bear management specialists are continuing their investigation and posting signs in the area to notify the public of bear activity.

The species of the bear involved is currently unknown, and the incident remains under investigation.

Sept. 15, 2026 Update:

Evidence collected at the site of a bear attack near Augusta confirms it was a grizzly bear that attacked a hunter on Monday morning.

The attack happened when an archery hunter encountered the bear and was attacked, sustaining significant but fortunately not life-threatening injuries. The attack happened on state land along Elk Creek southwest of Augusta.

Investigators collected bear hair found on the victim and at the scene of the attack along with tracks. They also located the carcass of a domestic cow they suspect was killed by a bear about 150 yards from where the attack occurred. FWP specialists continue to investigate the attack in cooperation with U.S. Department of Agriculture – Wildlife Services.

In coordination with Montana Department of Natural Resources & Conservation, the area where the attack took place has been signed and is closed to public access, effective immediately, and until further notice.

FWP cannot release the identity or health status of the victim.

2026 VFW Raffle Winners

The drawing for the winners of the annual VFW Post 9040 Scholarship Raffle took place on Saturday, September 5th, at the Beaverhead County Fair Grounds. Winning tickets were drawn by Olivia, Addie, and Bristol. Raffle winners were John Gray, Jim Easley, Frank Allen, Mike Drayer, Ric Lowell, Laura Smith, Jonelle Hughes, and Michael Hughes.

VFW Post members would like to give a special thanks to all of the area businesses, Jones Construction, Bank of Commerce, Duckworth Apparel, Brian Burkenpas/Windrock Firewood, Murdoch's Ranch and Home Supply, R.E. Miller & Sons, Town and Country Foods, Bitterroot Trading Post, and Jim's Smoke Shop for their generous donations of prizes. Thanks also go out to Bitterroot Trading, The Glen Bar, The Bookstore, 3-D, and Womack's Printing for helping sell raffle tickets at their businesses, and to the Beaverhead County Fair Board, and Corey Burkenbuhl, Fair Grounds Manager.

Bill Carroll VFW Post 9040 would also like to thank all of the individuals in the community who were willing to support the VFW by buying tickets for the raffle. Their willingness to purchase tickets made this another successful scholarship fund raising event. Your support will allow us to continue to provide scholarships to two graduating seniors from Beaverhead County High School, awards to outstanding graduates from the Montana Youth Challenge Program, and the various other programs in the local schools and community that we are involved in. We hope that everyone will continue to support this event in the future. And, if you didn't win this year, we wish you better luck next year.

Montana Events Foundation is hosting the 9th Annual Run The Boo- 5k & Kids Race.

Saturday October 31st, at Beaverhead Brewing Company.
Run The Boo is a Halloween themed race. Costumes encouraged! 5K starts at 10 AM. Kids Race starts at 11 AM.

Both races start and finish at Beaverhead Brewing Company. Register at montanarunningcompany.com

All money raised will be donated to our scholarship fund at the UMW Foundation.
