Wendy Allyn Schmeisser (McKown)

Wendy Allyn Schmeisser (McKown) was born in Eugene, Oregon on July 17, 1956 to Ruth Hansen and Donald Dean McKown. She passed away peacefully in her sleep on August 14, 2026. She was predeceased by her parents and brother, Bradley McKown. She is survived by her son Justin (Kayla) Schmeisser.

Wendy was known for her sense of adventure, love of nature, and a deep care for all creatures. She spent her midlife skydiving in Arizona before moving to Alaska where she homesteaded and gave birth to her son. She later settled into Dillon spending her time volunteering at the animal shelter and recycling committee. She will be remembered as a gentle soul with a caring heart.

The family would like to express their sincere gratitude to the caregivers at Renaissance Senior Care and Barrett Memorial Hospital for their kindness and compassionate care. Cremation has taken place. A ceremony will happen at a later date.

Congratulation to Montana's Qadra Evans on being named Mrs. America 2026

Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen congratulated Qadra Evans of Montana for being named Mrs. America 2026 during the 50th anniversary Mrs. America pageant in Las Vegas earlier this month.

Evans, who held the title of Mrs. Montana 2026, was named the national titleholder during the pageant's milestone 50th anniversary celebration.

As Mrs. America 2026, Evans will represent the United States as part of the Mrs. World class of 2026.

Montana Outdoors takes four firsts in national conservation
communications competition

The Association for Conservation Information (ACI) awarded Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks and its flagship magazine, Montana Outdoors, top honors in five communications categories at the organization's annual awards ceremony in Oklahoma City, Okla., on July 23.

Montana Outdoors has won numerous awards over the years for its compelling articles and beautiful design. This marks the eighth time it has won first place in ACI's magazine category.

"A state conservation magazine is only as good as the agency it represents," says Paul Queneau, Montana Outdoors editor. "Our long history of success reflects the excellence of Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks and its staff across the state whose work we feature in every issue."

a special permit area where long-term population numbers appear to be relatively stable, though recent high fawn survival may have supported population growth. Permit holders can expect to see good buck numbers, but finding a trophy buck may take considerable effort. In general, hunters with this permit encounter few if any trophy bucks and tend to harvest moderate- to fair-sized bucks. As with elk hunting pressure, mule deer hunting pressure is increasing.

WHITE-TAILED DEER: White-tailed deer continue to expand in hunting districts in the Dillon area, but harvest opportunity will remain almost exclusively on private lands. Hunters are encouraged to submit CWD samples from whitetails taken in this area, especially west of Interstate 15.

PRONGHORN: In the Dillon area, pronghorn numbers in HDs 300, 301, 310 and 329 have experienced declines in recent years. These declines have followed difficult drought conditions and a hard winter. These populations have experienced three to five years of poor fawn production and recruitment. The difficult conditions experienced between 2020 and 2023 may have also had longer-term consequences on doe reproduction. Surveys conducted this summer show indications of improved fawn production in HD 301. However, this increase has not been observed in HD 300. Hunters in HD 300 should be aware that numbers remain dramatically below average. Pronghorn in this district winter in Idaho and appear to have been severely impacted by the 2023 winter and likely longer-term habitat limitations. Therefore, the number of permits offered this year will be conservative and at the lower end of quota range for all Dillon area districts.

FWP releases pheasants in advance of youth waterfowl weekend Sept. 26, 27

Young hunters can get a jump start on pheasant hunting this weekend during the youth pheasant weekend Sept. 19 and 20. All regulations apply.

Prior to the youth pheasant weekend, Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks will release approximately 2,500 pheasants as its Roosters for Recruitment Program continues for the fifth year. The pheasants will be released on FWP and Montana Department of Natural Resources and Conservation (DNRC) properties.

The goal is to help new and returning hunters find success and encourage continued interest in hunting and conservation.

"The Roosters for Recruitment program is thrilled to provide young hunters with the exciting opportunity to pursue pheasants at locations across the state," said Melissa Griffiths, FWP pheasant stocking coordinator.

In 2026, the Fish and Wildlife Commission re-authorized pheasant releases on state lands as well as suitable sites on private and federal lands through 2029. Pheasants will be released throughout the hunting season. Visit the FWP website to track releases and additional release sites. A map of pheasant release sites is available at fwp.mt.gov/hunt/roosters-for-recruitment.

The two-day youth hunts are open to:
legally licensed hunters 12-15 years of age who have completed hunter education and who are accompanied by a nonhunting adult at least 18 years of age;
and properly certified and legally licensed apprentice hunters 10-15 years of age who are accompanied by a nonhunting adult "mentor" at least 21 years of age.

Veteran's Corner Update #581

Veteran News Updates:

• Saturday my friend Howard Mears and I, flew back into the Bozeman airport after attending an intense two day yearly "Toys For Tots" training event in St Louis, Missouri. I've attended these events just about every year since 2012 and I always walk away feeling tuned up for the Toy's For Toys campaign. This kicks off for us in October. This is the only non-profit entity owned by the Marine Corps and was started after WWII in Los Angeles in 1947 by a Marine Reserve Officer and his wife. Over a luncheon/cup of coffee with Walt Disney, Walt drew our little Train logo and titled it "Toys For Tots". This was adopted for our program and is a symbol of how disadvantaged kids are given the joy of receiving toys at Christmas. In times of disaster or being placed in foster care or needing school supplies, the Toys For Tot's Foundation has authorized our local campaigns to help meet those needs with appropriate gifts. Of course Christmas is the main focus. Last year, 11 million disadvantaged kids across America received 24 million toys. This consisted of 870 TFT Campaigns located in all 50 states, Puerto Rico and Washington D.C.. I've had the privilege of being involved in this incredible program since 2004 and the Coordinator, since 2012, for the Butte Campaign covering Silver Bow County, Beaverhead County, a part of both Jefferson and Madison counties. I've always been humbled by the support that the communities give through both toy and monetary donations. We couldn't do what we do in helping the kids, without the volunteers who step forth and through their hard work, during the last 2 plus months of the year, make it work. Many thanks to the donators, volunteers and supporters who love and support our disadvantaged kids, year after year.

• The Blue Star/Gold Star/Green Star Memorial Dedication will be at the Veteran's Memorial section of Stodden Park in Butte on Tuesday, September 22. This project was spearheaded and put together by the Butte Garden Club with the help of the SW United Veteran's Council, American Legion Post #1, Butte Recreation and Parks and the Town Pump Charitable Foundation. These plaques were mounted on a Veteran's Granite Obelisk located there. Their time and efforts were challenging in getting this project completed. Just briefly: the Gold Star is for the families who lost a military member who died in the line of duty, the Blue Star is for the families with an immediate member serving on active duty, the Green Star is for the families who have lost a veteran to suicide.

Big Hole Girl Reaches Milestone

20 years for this beautiful bad ass Navy girl on September 4th, 2026. We all are so proud of her! What a milestone! Lydia has served faithfully, moving back and forth across the country for different orders, across the world on different deployments, working hard and setting an example for those she worked with. Moving up in rank and responsibilities, even overseeing the training of new recruits for the last few years, all while raising a family of three beautiful little girls.

Congratulations Lydia!

We salute you and thank you for your service to our great nation.
