Michael "Mike" Jay Felo, Sr.

July 22, 1959 - July 20, 2026

Michael Jay Felo was born July 22, 1959, in Norwalk, California, to Dennis and Pat Felo, joining two-year-old sister, Deborah "Debi", who he would form a close relationship with through shared childhood experiences.

He embodied the spirit of a typical Southern California child, enjoying the beach and indulging in sports. A die-hard Dodgers fan; a passion he would eventually share with his son. He was known for his kind heart and his lively personality, affectionately dubbed "mouth" by his teachers. Michael had a remarkable ability to make friends, forging connections with many throughout his life.

Growing up in Southern California during the latter half of the 20th century, he witnessed a dramatic transformation in his surroundings. The lemon orchards he walked through on his way to school, snagging and eating them sprinkled with salt, were replaced by businesses and housing developments, evolving into the subdivisions of today.

He graduated Alta Loma High School in 1977 and briefly attended Chaffey College in Rancho Cucamonga, California. He developed a deep love for music, another passion he would later share with his son, and bicycling, completing several races and a tour along the way.

In 1984, Michael met Candice Ann McGuire at Lucky Strike Bowling in Upland, California, marking the start of a tumultuous journey that ultimately led him to become a single father. They never married, but welcomed their first child, daughter Nicole Felo, in 1985. Tragically, Nicole passed away in 1986. In 1987, while living in Riverside, California, on May 29th, Michael and Candice celebrated the birth of their second child, Michael Jay Felo Jr., officially making him a Sr.

Although Michael and Candice separated when their son was a toddler, he took on single fatherhood. He spent time playing baseball, football, and whiffle ball, teaching his son to body surf in the ocean, swim, golf, play billiards, and drive. They enjoyed games like dice, cards, darts, and dominoes. Michael supported his son's interests, including skateboarding, soccer, and snowboarding, and even built a tree house with him in the fourth grade.

In the early 1990s, Michael began a relationship with Lisa Jill Scott. After their marriage, he relocated his family to Montana to be closer to her parents in Dell. Lisa would pass away in a car accident a few years later, prompting Michael to move just north of Dell to Dillon, where he remained until Michael Jr. turned 18, before returning to the Inland Empire

During his time living in Dillon, he attended the University of Montana Western, obtaining his degree in Human Resource Management. They made yearly visits to California, often spending summers with Michael's childhood best friend, Raul. During their road trips, they established traditions, including stopping in Idaho Falls, Idaho, for Jack-in-the-Box tacos.

In 2010, Michael became "Granddad" with the birth of his granddaughter Harper, followed by Ellie and Michiah in 2014 and 2015. As a grandfather, he carried on similarly as he had as a father, visiting between Montana, Arizona, and California. Taking the girls K1 Kart racing, going to the beach, and participating in family events.

During the last ten years of his life, Michael settled in a retirement community in Ontario, California. He passed away at home during a medical event on July 20, 2026.

He is proceeded in death by his parents, Dennis and Pat. He is survived by his son Michael Felo Jr., his sister Debbie Higgs, his granddaughters Harper, Ellie, and Michiah Felo, his niece Stephanie Felo, and many dear friends.

UMW Ranked No. 4 Among Top Public Regional Colleges in the West by U.S. News & World Report

The University of Montana Western has been ranked among the top public regional colleges in the West by U.S. News & World Report, earning a tie for No. 4 in the publication's 2027 Best Colleges rankings.

Montana Western also tied for No. 18 in the overall Regional Colleges – West ranking and ranked No. 28 in the Top Performers on Social Mobility – Regional Colleges (West) category. The Western region includes 15 states: Washington, Oregon, California, Idaho, Nevada, Utah, Colorado, Wyoming, New Mexico, Montana, Arizona, Texas, Oklahoma, Alaska, and Hawaii.

"We're incredibly proud to see Montana Western recognized among the top public regional colleges in the West. This honor reflects the care our faculty and staff bring to their work every day and the dedication and accomplishments of our students," said UMW Chancellor, Dr. Estee Aiken.

The Top Performers on Social Mobility ranking recognizes institutions based on their success in enrolling and graduating students from economically disadvantaged backgrounds. Montana Western's No. 28 ranking places the university among institutions recognized by U.S. News for their success in promoting social mobility.

The 2027 U.S. News Best Colleges rankings provide a data-driven comparison of more than 1,700 colleges and universities using up to 17 measures of academic quality and graduate success. Student outcomes account for 52% of the overall ranking and include measures such as graduation and retention rates, graduation performance, outcomes for Pell Grant recipients and post-graduation earnings.

"With families increasingly scrutinizing the true cost and return on investment of a college degree, our goal is to provide clear, actionable data," said LaMont Jones, Ed.D., Managing Editor for Education at U.S. News.

The 2027 rankings introduce a new Earnings by Major measure, which accounts for 5% of the overall ranking. The measure examines graduates' earnings four years after completing their degrees while accounting for differences among academic fields. It replaces a measure of median federal loan debt used in previous editions of the rankings.

To view Montana Western's full rankings list, visit: <https://www.usnews.com/best-colleges/montana-western-2537>.

Veteran's Corner Update #582

By Mike Lawson

Veteran News Updates:

- Recently at our SW Montana Veteran's Home in Butte, a dear WWII Veteran's widow passed away. She had celebrated her 100th birthday a week before. Marie Russell's husband, Jack Russell was a bombardier in WWII in the European Theater while in the Army Air Corp. Marie was a beautiful lady of Italian decent and deeply loved. She will be missed. Often the wives and widows of our Veterans are a shadow in the background. Many have been the glue that have held our Veterans with PTSD and conflict wounds, together to raise their families in a positive way. The mental stability for many of these Veterans are a direct result of the love and care their wives have steadily provided. It's been a great service that these veteran spouses are able to be provided care in our Veteran's Nursing Homes. This is another VA benefit that is a blessings for our veterans and their families.

- Within the last 10 years or so, we have seen an increase in Veterans having service dogs by their sides. There are also dog owners who bring therapy service dogs into our Veteran Hospitals to visit and comfort the veteran patients who are there. Research has shown that these visits can help reduce stress and anxiety, lower blood pressure, improve mood and encourage social interaction. These benefits have led hospitals and healthcare organizations, including the VA, to incorporate therapy dog programs into patient care. For many Veterans suffering some type of mental issue, their dog is their lifeline in staying stable.

- The VA has an App Store called VA App Store. There's 67 Apps that can be downloaded. Younger computer savvy Veterans or Veteran family members, are especially encouraged to browse this VA App Store. There is a good probability they will find an app that will be beneficial for them or a Veteran family member.

- On September 18th, the United States Air Force celebrated their 79th Birthday. Established out of the U.S. Army Air Forces, the Air Force was established on September 18, 1947. Having had two daughters in the Air Force and being flown, after being wounded, back to the states, I salute them and wish them a great Happy Birthday.
