Bruce Power, age 69

Bruce Power, age 69, passed away on September 19, 2026 in Dillon, Montana. He was born in March of 1957 in Massachusetts, and born again in March of 1989. He served in United States Army, after which he returned to New England where he met Cheryl Perugini, and the two were married in 1980.

Cheryl and Bruce were married for forty-six years, and were blessed with four children and nine grandchildren. In 1995, their family moved west to Salt Lake City, and in 2013 he and Cheryl settled in Montana. Despite being at home in the west, he remained a devoted Boston Red Sox fan. He enjoyed bluegrass music, golf and fishing, and was a force to be reckoned with in any trivia competition.

He was preceded in death by his parents, David and Dorothy Power, and by his brother, Robert Power.

In lieu of flowers, the family has requested donations be made to the Disabled American Veterans Foundation.

Service to be held at Grace Bible Church, 1049 Laknar Lane Dillon, MT 59725

The family would like to thank the staff at St. James Cancer Center, Barrett Hospital, and Honeybee Hospice for their compassionate care and support during this difficult time.

Condolences for the family may be posted online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com

Barbara Gay (Eaton) Edgar

March 12, 1943 – September 21, 2026

Barbara Gay Edgar was born in Broadus, Montana, on March 12, 1943, to John and Elma Eaton. She spent her childhood near Savage and graduated from Dawson County High School in Glendive in 1961. After high school, she attended Eastern Montana College before returning home to Glendive.

It was there that Barbara met Larry Edgar. They courted through dances, long days together, and getting to know one another and on March 24, 1965, they were married in Glendive.

Barbara and Larry built a life together centered around family, horses, cattle and hard work. In the early 1970s, they bought and worked several ranches throughout Beaverhead County. Barbara was never one to sit on the sidelines. She worked alongside Larry, ranching and was quite a hand with horses and cattle herself.

Barbara also worked as a secretary at Western Montana College in Dillon and earned her Associate of Arts degree in late 1972. Eventually, Barbara and Larry moved to Twin Bridges, where they made their home and continued their ranching life in the Ruby Valley. In September 1973, they welcomed their only son, Chance.

Barbara loved horses, and she loved being horseback even more. She spent many years team roping and proudly won a buckle as a member of the Beaverhead Roping Club. She continued to hone her horsemanship as a member of the Madison County Saddle Tramps drill team. Whether she was working cattle, riding, or simply spending time with her horses, being around them was where she was happiest.

Barbara and Larry also enjoyed the simple things in life. During their years in Glendive and Dillon, they could often be found bowling together. She had a creative side that was every bit as strong as her practical one. Barbara loved crocheting, painting, and creating intricate needlepoint pieces. She took great pride in her work, and many of her creations were entered in the Madison County Fair, where they earned Grand Champion honors.

Later in life, Barbara and Larry traded ranching for another kind of work, selling real estate together. Barbara earned her real estate sales certification and worked concurrently for the Fifth Judicial District Youth Probation Office in Dillon, where she retired in 2007.

But more than any job, accomplishment, or award, Barbara was a mother and grandmother. She was immensely proud of her son, Chance, and was overjoyed when her only grandson, Pierce, came along. She loved watching Pierce grow and was always ready to tell anyone who would listen about what he was doing, what he had accomplished, and especially how much he loved sports. Being his grandmother was one of the great joys of her life.

Barbara is survived by her son, Chance (Dene') Edgar, and grandson, Pierce Edgar, of Twin Bridges and her sister, Marjorie Baisch of Glendive. She was preceded in death by her parents, John and Elma Eaton; her brother, John Eaton; and her husband, Larry Edgar.

The family is deeply grateful to the staff and residents of Beehive Homes of Dillon for the care, kindness, and friendship they gave Barbara.

A graveside service will be held at 2:00 p.m. Saturday, September 26, at the Twin Bridges Cemetery on Airport Road. Friends and family are invited to join together afterward for light refreshments and dessert at the family home on 822 Middle Road, Twin Bridges.

Arrangements are under the direction of K&L Mortuaries in Sheridan. Condolences for the family may be posted online at www.kandlmortuaries.com

Donated Trees Take Root Across Dillon, Including Mountain View Cemetery

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

Seventeen trees donated by Allen Landscaping are bringing new shade and greenery to local parks, hospital grounds and Mountain View Cemetery.

When the landscaping company had leftover trees available, it contacted the Dillon Tree Board to arrange a donation. Ann and Jim Egan then helped determine where the trees would be planted.

Three went to the hospital, six to local parks and three to the Big Hole. Some of the park plantings replaced shade lost when a tree at Vigilante Park was struck by lightning in July and had to be removed.

The remaining five trees were planted Wednesday, Sept. 23, at Mountain View Cemetery with help from employees of the local DNRC office and cemetery workers.

The crews selected locations that would benefit from new trees, dug planting holes and prepared the root balls after removing the trees from their containers.

Once planted, the trees were watered and pruned. Protective fencing was placed around them to keep deer from browsing on the new growth.

As the trees mature, they will provide shade for people visiting loved ones at the cemetery and add greenery to the grounds.

For more information about the Dillon Tree Board and its work, visit DillonTrees.org.

On the Rocks: River Conditions and Invasive Species
 Mapping

Presenter: Matthew Heller and Erica Wolfe

Date/Time: Wednesday, September 30 at 4:00 p.m.

Location: Lucy Carson Library, University of Montana Western

Matthew Heller and Erica Wolfe of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service will discuss geospatial applications supporting watershed management and conservation. Heller will present the River Conditions Tool, which provides real-time data to help watershed groups manage drought and water resources. Wolfe will share her research using remotely sensed data to map invasive Phragmites australis at Fish Springs National Wildlife Refuge.

This event is part of Montana Western's "On the Rocks" lecture series and is free and open to the public. A social gathering with light refreshments will begin at 3:30 p.m.

BEAVERHEAD
CONSERVATION DISTRICT

BEAVERHEAD-CONSERVATION DISTRICT and the Southwest Montana Sagebrush Partnership

Sagebrush Partnership Technicians
(October-February)

The Beaverhead Conservation District Sagebrush Partnership Technicians will work with private and public land managers in southwest Montana on a variety of on-the-ground land stewardship projects to conserve and improve sagebrush steppe habitat. The Sagebrush Partnership Technicians will work closely with the SW Montana Sagebrush Partnership's Conservation Coordinator and other Sagebrush Partnership staff, both in the field and in the office, on projects that include conifer expansion removal, cheatgrass treatments, and prescribed fire. These positions offer a unique opportunity to be involved in a collaborative, science-based, applied conservation program and to gain experience in a wide variety of rangeland issues. They will also have opportunities to aid with other restoration projects, including wet meadow and stream restoration, invasive annual grass mapping, and fence projects to conserve priority habitats and wildlife corridors.

For a complete description of essential functions and desired qualifications, please go to www.BeaiverheadCD.org.

Please submit a resume and cover letter detailing your education and experience to beaverheadcd@gmail.com by September 29, 2026.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Valid Driver's License
- Reliable Vehicle, Cell Phone
- Passion for Wildlife Conservation and working lands
- Collaborative, Open Minded, and Community Oriented
- Self-Starter
- High school diploma or GED and a minimum of four years of experience with ecological or land management related work
- Experience with GPS and GIS applications
- Experience operating various types of equipment in a safe and efficient manner
- Must be able to obtain related licenses or certifications as required (e.g., herbicide or pesticide application)
