Kay Joy Jacobson

On September 20, 2026, Kay Joy Jacobson peacefully left this world and went home to heaven, rejoining the loved ones she had lost far too soon. Her journey began on August 27, 1942, in Seattle, Washington, where her father, Weston, was stationed as a wartime ship welder alongside her loving mother, Isabella Strasser. Following the end of the war in 1945, the family moved back home to Dillon, Montana, where Weston started his own plumbing business.

From the very beginning, Kay was remarkably strong-willed, fiercely independent, and full of life and love, with a caring soul that shaped everything she did. These traits carried her through her graduation from Beaverhead County High School in 1960. It was during high school that Kay met her first husband, Raymond Peterson. Not long after graduation, Raymond entered the service and was stationed in Texas. Guided by her characteristic independence and determination, Kay made the long drive there, where the couple eloped.

Shortly after marrying Raymond, they returned to Montana to live on the family ranch in the Big Hole Valley, a place Kay would always hold dear to her heart. It was there that they welcomed their first son, Guy, in 1961. Kay absolutely loved everything about ranch life. Her family grew to include two more children, Jade in 1963 and Andrea in 1965. While raising her three children, Kay was fully immersed in the daily rhythm of the ranch. She worked tirelessly and was always ready to help with whatever needed doing-whether it was calving, haying, moving cattle, or cooking meals for the hay crew.

It was also during this time that Kay, alongside dear friends, embarked on her first business endeavor, The Calico Cottage. There, Kay beautifully showcased her signature talent and style. She had a rare gift for curation-knowing exactly how to stock perfect gifts for locals while effortlessly appealing to tourists looking for high-end western apparel. This venture ignited a lifelong identity as a skilled and dedicated businesswoman, a title she wore with immense pride throughout her life.

In 1983, Kay married the love of her life, Daryll Jacobson. Together, Kay and Daryll were true partners in both life and business, owning many businesses in the Big Hole Valley. They started with the Antler Saloon and later opened the Wisdom Gallery. Kay and Daryll poured much of their heart, soul, and shared vision into the business, meticulously crafting the woodwork, custom picture frames, and artistic décor that only they could envision, create, and proudly sell. Kay was also a skilled photographer, capturing the breathtaking beauty and lifestyle of the valley she loved so much.

Through the gallery, she created and sold her own custom line of greeting cards featuring her stunning photos of the Big Hole Valley, sharing her unique perspective of Montana's beauty with locals and visitors alike.

When they weren't busy with their businesses, Kay and Daryll shared an immense love for creating a beautiful life at home, especially through caring for their yard. Many in the community would say they had one of the most beautiful yards in town. Visitors could often stop by for a visit-and, of course, a cup of coffee or glass of wine, depending on the time of day-and find Kay and Daryll working together outside. They were always pruning trees, pulling weeds, or creating the next seating area to share with family and friends. It was there that they also ran another one of their businesses, The Montana Lodge, a luxury cabin stay. Anyone who ever stayed in Kay and Daryll's cabin can attest to the beauty of the details within it. In 2010, the Wisdom Gallery tragically burned down, prompting Kay and Daryll's final business endeavor, The Silvermine, which they built and ran up to her passing.

Kay was a woman of many talents and lived life with a vibrant, adventurous spirit. In her younger years, she was known for her speed in ski racing and loved snowmobiling through the Montana winters with dear friends. She was a true daughter of the West—equally comfortable swinging a rope a n d riding a horse. Yet a m o n g all her adventures, one of her absolute favorite pastimes was simply enjoying the peace of the river, alongside Daryll. She loved to row the boat and accompany him on any of his fishing trips.

Above all her accomplishments and adventures, Kay had an immense love for her family and friends. She was blessed with many dear friends throughout her life, whom she felt very close to and considered a true extension of her family. Her love of life, pride in her accomplishments, and love for the people she held dear will be her greatest lasting legacy.

Kaden LaPlaunt Named Frontier Conference Football Offensive Player of the Week

Montana Western football's Kaden LaPlaunt earned Erck Hotels / Frontier Conference Football Offensive Player of the Week, the league office announced Monday.

The award marks the first conference weekly player of the week award of LaPlaunt's career and makes him the second Bulldog to receive an FC weekly award this season.

LaPlaunt was responsible for five touchdowns and 422 yards of total offense in the Bulldogs 41-27 win at Dickinson State last weekend.

The sophomore QB went 22 of 30 (73.3 completion percentage) for 384 yards and four passing touchdowns. He averaged 12.8 yards per completion.

The Granite Falls, Wash., native also rushed six times for 38 yards and one more score.

Currently, LaPlaunt ranks second in the NAIA in passing yards per game (318.3), third in passing touchdowns (14), and fifth in total passing yards (1,273).

LOOKING AHEAD

The Bulldogs return to Dillon Saturday when they play host to Southern Oregon. Kickoff is slated for 1 p.m. MT.

Mental Health Musings

What should I do if I am struggling or someone I know is having thoughts of or mentioning suicide?

If you notice warning signs of suicide, especially a change in behavior or new, concerning behavior, get help as soon as possible.

Family and friends are often the first to recognize the warning signs of suicide, and can take the first step toward helping a loved one find mental health support.

If someone tells you that they are going to kill themselves, do not leave them alone. Do not promise that you will keep their suicidal thoughts a secret—tell a trusted friend, family member, or other trusted adult.

Call 911 if there is an immediate life-threatening situation. If you are or a loved one is experiencing suicidal ideation (thoughts), call the 988 Suicide & Crisis Lifeline or reach out via 988lifeline.org.
The Lifeline provides 24-hour, confidential support to anyone in suicidal crisis or emotional distress.

Does asking someone about suicide put the idea in their head?

No. Studies have shown that asking people about suicidal thoughts and behaviors does not cause or increase such thoughts. Asking someone directly, "Are you thinking of killing yourself?" can be the best way to identify someone at risk for suicide.

Do people "threaten" suicide to get attention?

Suicidal thoughts or actions are a sign of extreme distress and an indicator that someone needs help. Talking about wanting to die by suicide is not a typical response to stress. All talk of suicide should be taken seriously and requires immediate attention.

This information provided in cooperation with the Beaverhead County Public Health Bridging Connections Program. Contact Elaine at (406)683-4771 for more information about local mental health initiatives. For more information on this week's topic, check out the National Institute of Mental Health website at www.nimh.nih.gov/health/publications/suicide-faq

Beaverhead Search and Rescue Report

At 8:25 pm on Friday, September 25th, Beaverhead Search and Rescue was dispatched to rescue an injured hunter in the Trapper Creek area of Horse Prairie. The hunter sustained a wound to his leg while gutting an elk.

Two hasty teams were sent out along with an ambulance from Beaverhead Ambulance that was staged by the trucks. Hasty teams traveled in on a side by side and a four-wheeler, until the trail became too narrow for the vehicles to pass. The two crews continued on foot. Once the patient was located, two members began work to assess and stabilize the patient while the other crew began cutting deadfall and identifying a landing zone to fly the patient out.

Once the patient was able to be moved crews then transported the patient through rough and steep terrain to the waiting helicopter from LifeFlight Bozeman. After the patient was loaded in the helicopter and on his way to a higher level of care, the crews and the patient's hunting partner hiked back to the vehicles.

Once the hunting partner was dropped off back at the pair's vehicle, crews returned to Dillon at about 6 am.

The teams were comprised of IC (Brian Vinson, Lance Hopman, and Jason Erickson), Hasty team 1 (Josh Yedon, Trevor Nyland, and Jack Bazemore), and Hasty team 2 (Charles Weidow and Jaden Dennis).

As we get into the big game seasons, please always have a plan, tell someone where you are going and when you will be back, carry an inReach or other form of communication, and take a buddy.

HOME SCHOOL NOTIFICATION

As Beaverhead County's public schools moved into the first day of school, those parents who wish to home school their children are also preparing for the new school year. Parents must notify the County Superintendent of Schools (Mike Miller) that their child is (or children are) being homeschooled.

The mandatory information parents need to provide the Superintendent's office is (1) a written notice of the intent to home school and (2) the "Notification of Opportunity to Participate in Federally- funded Program" Form. These forms are available at the Superintendent's office, on the County's website, or may be requested through an email or phone call at 406.683.3737. The Superintendent's email address is mmiller@beaverheadcountymt.gov. These forms take approximately 5-6 minutes to fill out and can be completed right in the office. Parents must file these documents as soon as possible, but certainly before 1 October 2026.

Bulldog Volleyball Sweeps Skylights 3-0 Friday

The Montana Western volleyball team delivered a decisive three-set victory over MSU-Northern Friday night in Straugh Gymnasium.

The Skylights were held under 20 points in all three sets.

NOTABLES: Western held MSU-Northern to a .038 hitting percentage, the lowest mark by an opponent this season.

Three Bulldogs hit over .250

Savana Warburton earned a double-double with 13 kills and a career-high matching 24 digs. Kennedy Lingenfelter recorded at least 5.0 blocks for the third time in the last five matches. Olivia Rosborough put up a season-high 5.0 blocks. Madisyn Frazier recorded over 20 digs for the third time on the campaign. Jaiden Perez earned a season-best hitting percentage.

The Bulldogs were a force from the get go. After MSU-Northern tied the match at five, Western went on a 15-2 run to pull ahead 20-7 in the opening frame. The visitors found their footing again near the end of the set, but couldn't close the gap and UMW took set one 25-14 to go up 1-0.

The Red and Black went up early again in the second period, and though the Skylights got within three on two occasions, the Bulldogs never relinquished the lead and took a 2-0 lead with a 25-19 set two score.

The final set was more back-and-forth, with MSUN leading 13-12 midway through the frame. Western took over after that, outscoring the visitors 13-5 down the stretch to seal the 3-0 victory 25-18.

Bulldog Football Gets Back on Track with 41-27 Victory at Dickinson State

The (RV) Montana Western football (2-2) team earned the 41-27 road-victory at Dickinson State Saturday afternoon.

"We had a great preparation and travel for this road game," head coach Ryan Nourse said. "Dickinson came to win, played with pride and inspired effort. I'm proud of how we responded in the second half after a mistake-filled first half. We made stops on defense and attacked them on the ground and vertically making big plays. We improved greatly on last week and need to take that attitude into next week's prep for SOU."

STAT BREAKDOWN: The Bulldogs posted 633 yards of total offense (384 passing, 249 rushing), six touchdowns, and 27 first downs in the contest.

Quarterback Kaden LaPlaunt shined with 384 passing yards and four touchdowns on 22 completions, including a long of 79. He also posted 38 rushing yards and ran in a TD.

Seth Shook caught three touchdown passes for the second week in a row while totaling a career-high 163 receiving yards. His 79-yard catch from LaPlaunt put the Bulldogs up 21-13 in the third.

Colton Cornwell registered eight receptions or a career-best 138 yards. Jack Daskam posted his best outing in the Red and Black with 48 yards on five receptions while Brody Munson earned one receiving touchdown and 35 yards.

Aidan Lammers ran for a career-high 103 yards to lead all players. Santana Luna posted a career-best 84 yards and one touchdown.

Connor Dunlea and Canyon Sargent tied for the game-high with nine total tackles apiece.

Sargent led all players with a career-high eight solo takedowns while also posted 1.0 tackle-for-loss and 1.0 sack (4 yards) in the contest.

Romeo Simpson, Bodie Smith, Cole Flugge, and Arie McLaughlin all recorded four tackles for UMW while Drew Humphrey snagged one interception.

18 different players registered at least one tackle for Western.

Maclain Burckley went 5-for-6 on PATs and averaged 59.7 yards per kickoff and 37.0 yards per punt.

Cornwell tallied two punt returns for 24 total yards and Munson ran back three kickoffs for 67 total yard

Montana Western Volleyball Puts Up a Fight Against #8 Providence

The Montana Western volleyball team (5-11, 4-5 FC) battled hard in a 3-1 loss to #8 Providence (12-4, 6-3 FC) Saturday afternoon.

The Bulldogs were strong at the net, recording 13.0 total blocks. Five different players had three or more stuff in the contest.

NOTABLES: Madisyn Frazier earned a career high in digs.

Kennedy Lingenfelter and Antonia Duncan posted season-bests with 7.0 and 5.0 blocks, respectively.

Jaiden Perez earned at least 6.0 blocks for fourth time on the campaign.

Western recorded the second-highest totals of the season in both blocks and digs.

The visitors took an early lead in set one to lead by five, 14-9, midway through. The Bulldogs fought their way back within one point and later held off three set-points before the Argos ultimately went up 1-0 after a 25-23 win.

The second frame was even more evenly matched, featuring seven tie-scores. Providence pulled away late, but UMW pulled back once again. UP took a 2-0 lead with an identical 25-23 set two score.

The Bulldogs were ferocious in the third, outscoring the visitors 13-4 to open the period. They continued to stretch the lead and put the set out of reach of the Argos, forcing a fourth set with a 25-15 win.

In the final frame, errors hindered Western's momentum, allowing Providence to seal the win with a 25-17 set win.
