Peggy Lou Mooney Coleman

Peggy Lou Mooney Coleman, a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother, passed away September 24th, 2026, in Spokane WA. In her final days she was comforted by family and passed peacefully surrounded by her loving family.

Peggy was born on January 24th, 1959, in Dillon, Montana to parents Francis and Esther Mooney. She was the youngest of four children. Growing up, Peggy loved being with her father Francis on the ranch and had an affinity for horses. She enjoyed participating in projects and activities in 4-H with her mother Esther.

Peggy graduated from Beaverhead County High school in 1977. She went on to attend college as one of the only female engineering students in her class. She met her first husband and had two children, Jeremy Fadness and Sandra Fadness. Peggy returned to Dillon in 1984 to be closer to family.

Peggy met the love of her life Mike Coleman in June 1984, and they had their first date on the 4th of July at George Town Lake. Shortly thereafter they were married in Leodore ID, on September 15th, 1984.

The following year Amber Lynn Coleman was born on August 30th, 1985. During this time Peggy took great pride in being the first employee at Great Harvest Bread and it was one of her greatest honors to remain close friends with Pete and Laura Wakeman for the rest of her life.

In 1987 Mike and Peggy packed up the caravan and moved to Connecticut. Within a few months they welcomed their fourth and final child Jennifer Monney Coleman on March 24th, 1988. Over the next 6 years they opened and operated two Great Harvest Bread bakeries while raising their family. With the passing of Peggy's father Francis, the family moved back to Dillon to help Esther run the ranch. Following the sale of the ranch in 1997 Mike and Peggy purchased Subway Sandwiches in Dillon, which they owned and operated for 24 years. Peggy took great pride in running Subway and by her own words "It wasn't about the business, it was that I made a difference."

During these years she also worked tirelessly behind the scenes for Mike Coleman Construction and owned and managed several rental properties.

When Peggy wasn't working, she could be found traveling around the world, spending time with family and friends, riding her Harley, and hitting every 70's rock concert she possibly could. After the sale of Subway in 2022 Peggy continued her work with Mike Coleman Construction but made time with family her priority.

Beaverhead Little League Families

We will be holding our Annual Membership Meeting, and we would love to see more of our families get involved in helping shape the future of our Little League program! Date: October 7, 2026 Time: 5:30 pm at Ray Lynch Park - Concession stand 2nd floor

During the meeting, we will: Hold elections for three Board positions that are up for nominations. Review our Constitution and Bylaws and discuss any proposed updates.

Discuss adding three At-Large, non-voting Board positions to give more parents and community members an opportunity to get involved, learn how the Board operates, help with projects and committees. Discuss plans and priorities for the upcoming season.

If you are interested in being nominated for one of the open Board positions or would like to learn more about one of the proposed At-Large positions, please reach out to us. We hope to see you there!

The University of Montana Western has named Roxanne

and Roxanne Engellant (right).Engellant as Interim Vice Chancellor of Administration and
Finance and Stacie
Watkins as Interim Executive Director of the Montana Western Foundation beginning
October 19, 2026.In the Interim
Vice Chancellor of Administration and
Finance role, Engellant will provide leadership for the university's administrative andfinancial operations, working closely with the Chancellor and campus colleagues to support responsible resource management, institutional planning, and student success."Roxanne has shown over her many years of service to UMW that she is more than capable of thoughtfully overseeing the stewardship of resources to ensure that our faculty and staff have the support they need to provide our students with the opportunity to thrive," said Montana Western Chancellor Estee Aiken. "I look forward to working together as we advance Montana Western's priorities and plan for the future."As a member of the university's executive leadership team, Engellant will help align financial and operational decisions with Montana Western's mission and strategic goals. The interim appointment will support continuity across administrative and financial functions while encouraging collaboration and clear communication throughout campus."I'm grateful for the opportunity to serve Montana Western and work alongside colleagues who care deeply about this university and its students," said Engellant. "My priority will be to listen, build strong working relationships, and help our campus make informed decisions that support both our immediate needs and our long-term goals."

Letter To the Editor:

Keep Our Courts Impartial

CI-132 is simple: Should Montana's judges be elected based on qualifications, or party affiliation?

For over 90 years, we've chosen qualifications. It works. I learned this firsthand during my business career. When Great Harvest went to court to protect trade secrets, I was grateful our judge followed the law and evidence—not party politics. That's what justice should be.

Most Montanans interact with courts through everyday cases: family disputes, traffic violations, property disagreements. These don't have a Republican or Democratic way to be handled. There's just the law.

Partisan judicial elections could create real problems. First, they introduce politics where it doesn't belong. Judges shouldn't have to worry about party leadership. Second, money floods in. Partisan campaigns cost big money, and judges potentially end up owing favors to donors instead of the Constitution. Imagine you have a dispute with your neighbor who has the means to make significant campaign contributions to a political party. Could this impact the rulings?

What's telling about this issue is the grassroots support. Volunteers from every county collected over 100,000 signatures to get CI-132 on the ballot. That's Montanans across the political spectrum saying: keep our courts independent and unbiased.

A yes vote means protecting the impartial system we've relied on for nearly a century. It means judges answer to the law, not politics or money.

It's not about radical change. It's about preserving what works.

Vote yes on CI-132.

Montana Western Earns Victory Over Fighting Saints

The Montana Western volleyball team upended Carroll College 3-1 Friday evening for their second four-set victory of the week.

"I was really proud of the team's perseverance and the way they handled adversity in today's match," Head Coach Katie Lovett said. "Big shoutout to Madisyn (Frazier) for reaching 1,000 digs. I felt like tonight was a fu

The hosts led by as many as six early in the opening period. The Bulldogs then went on an 11-3 run to take the lead. The Fighting Saints kept the pressure up, however, forcing a tie game three more times in the set. UMW went on another run, 5-1, to take the 1-0 lead with a 25-22 win.

The second frame continued similarly at the start, but this time with Western holding the early advantage. Carroll took the lead midway through the set and the two sides battled-back-and-forth from there. The Bulldogs narrowly edged the Saints for the 25-23 set two win to go up 2-0 in the match.

Carroll got the jump on UMW in the third, building a 12-3 lead early in the set. The Saints stretched their lead to 10 by the end of the period to force the fourth set, 25-15.

The Bulldogs came alive again in the final frame, building their lead to as many as nine late in the period. The hosts wouldn't go quietly, but couldn't manage to close the gap and Western sealed the 3-1 win with a 25-18 final set.

Bulldog Football Drops Heartbreaker to SOU

Montana Western football (2-3, 0-1 FC West) fell to Southern Oregon (2-3, 1-0 FC West) 28-27 Saturday afternoon at Bulldog stadium.

"Really proud of how hard we played and the team fought to the end. I wish I had a few calls back in several situations where I could have put us in more successful positions," head coach Ryan Nourse said. "Kudos to SOU, they came to play and were highly motivated and made more plays when needed than we did. We have been in some holes and tough situations here before, the load is heavy right now but we believe in each other and will continue to move forward and improve each week."

STAT BREAKDOWN: The Bulldogs registered 368 yards of total offense, including 244 passing yards and 124 rushing yards. They scored three touchdowns and two field goals and 25 first downs. Kaden LaPlaunt threw for 244 yards and one touchdown on 26 completions. Eli Nourse led all players with 145 receiving yards and one touchdown on 13 receptions. Seth Shook recorded 65 yards and Colton Cornwell added 39 yards. Aidan Lammers rushed for two scores while Jakob Humphrey led UMW with 65 rushing yards.

The Bulldog defense registered 56 tackles, 4.0 tackles-for-loss, one interception, one forced fumble, and one fumble recovery in the contest. They also tallied three pass breakups and two QB hurries. Bodie Smith paced the team with seven total tackles while Romeo Simpson tied for the game-high with five solo efforts. Liam Rowe and Manny Variz IV each earned one TFL. Variz also snagged an interception for the Bulldogs. Simpson forced the fumble for Western while Connor Dunlea recovered one. Maclain Burckley went 2-for-3 on field goals and 3-for-3 on PATs.

The Raiders got on the board first with two touchdowns. Lammers opened the scoring for the Bulldogs with a one-yard rush with under two minutes remaining in the half.

Eli Nourse tied the score 14-14 with a three-yard reception from LaPlaunt as time expired in the half.

Burckley drained two field goals in the final quarter to give the Bulldogs the 27-21 lead. Unfortunately, SOU managed another touchdown. The Bulldogs had a chance with a 61-yard field goal attempt as time ran out, but it fell just short and the visitors took the win.
