General antelope season opens October 10

General antelope season opens Saturday, Oct. 10, and runs through Sunday, Nov. 8. For information about what to expect this season, check out Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks hunting forecast.

FWP provides online information about hunting access, including our popular Block Management Program, which provides hunting access to more than 7 million acres of private land.

FWP's interactive Hunt Planner is a mapping tool that allows users to look at information for various species, including hunting districts and regulations. The hunt planner interactive map is a great way to access our block management information. If you're planning a hunt in a certain region of the state, you can see if there are Block Management areas available to expand your opportunity.

Remember, regulations may change a bit from year to year depending on hunting district. Double check the regulations to be sure.

FWP's Hunter FAQ is another great resource to help you prepare to go out into the field.

Madison Ranger District Determining Competitive Interest for Management of Cliff and Wade Lakes Recreation Sites

The U.S. Department of Agriculture, Forest Service is seeking interest from businesses, organizations, and individuals interested in managing recreation sites at Cliff and Wade Lakes on the Madison Ranger District of the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest. Sites included in this solicitation are Cliff Point Campground, Cliff Lake Day Use and Boat launch, Wade Lake Campground, Wade Lake Day use and Boat Launch, and Hilltop Campground.

Cliff Lake, a 679-acre natural lake, and Wade Lake, a spring-fed 200-acre lake, are recognized for their clear aquamarine waters and scenic mountain setting. Both lakes offer fishing opportunities for rainbow, brown, and Yellowstone cutthroat trout, with ice fishing available in the winter. Canoeing, swimming, and other non-motorized recreation are common. All sites are located less than 10 miles from paved Highway 287.

Several improvements have been made to the recreation facilities over the last few years including:

- Removal of four old, wooden vault toilets at Hilltop Campground, and replacement with two new vault toilets.
- Replacement of five old concrete vault toilets at Wade Lake Campground with five new vault toilets.
- Development of a new, centralized host site.
- Placement of a "visitor entrance booth" on the access road to the area.
- Improved parking at Wade Lake Day Use Area and Boat Launch.
- Contracted trash service.

The current fees at these sites are as follows:

- Individual campsites at all three campgrounds are $15/day.
- Wade Lake Campground features two group campsites that are $30/day.
- The fees at both day use sites are $5/day/vehicle.

The amount of investment required to operate these sites would be dependent on the business model proposed. The purpose of this public notice is to determine whether sufficient competitive interest exists to warrant issuing a prospectus in the future.

Any special use permits issued would be subject to environmental review under the National Environmental Policy Act.

Questions regarding this opportunity may be submitted to Josh Connors at joshua.connors@usda.gov until close of business on November 10, 2026.

Bozeman Symphony Presents Bohemian Fire on October 10 & 11

The Bozeman Symphony will ignite the Willson Auditorium with Bohemian Fire on October 10 and 11, featuring the Montana premiere of Jennifer Higdon's luminous Cello Concerto, performed by acclaimed cellist and returning audience favorite, Julian Schwarz. Conducted by Bozeman Symphony's Music Director, Norman Huynh, the expansive program explores unity, resilience, and passion through music spanning generations and continents.

The concert opens with Valerie Coleman's Umoja – Anthem of Unity, a powerful celebration of community and togetherness. Higdon's Cello Concerto follows, showcasing Schwarz's lyrical artistry and extraordinary technical command.

"Julian [Schwarz] has an incredible sound," said composer Jennifer Higdon, "and I really wanted to show off his playing."

Higdon's preparation for composing the work embraced a study of many masterpieces for the cello: "The repertoire has an incredible history, from Bach to the Dvořák concerto, and it all has something to give." The composer and the soloist emailed each other, maintaining contact through the composing process: "That's an advantage Beethoven never had!" Higdon said.

Grammy-nominated cellist Julian Schwarz has been heralded from a young age as a cellist destined to rank among the greatest of the 21st century. His powerful tone, effortless virtuosity, and extraordinarily broad color palette are hallmarks of his style. Schwarz previously performed with the Bozeman Symphony and returns to Bozeman for this special performance.

The program concludes with Antonín Dvořák's dramatic and passionate Symphony No. 7 in D minor, a sweeping work filled with intensity, lyricism, and Czech-inspired character.

Performances will take place Saturday, Oct. 10, at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday, Oct. 11, at 2:30 p.m. at the Willson Auditorium, 404 W. Main St. in downtown Bozeman.

These performances are made possible through the generous support of sponsors Bob & Donna Ritchie, Bruce & Kimberlie Jodar, Prof. Rob Maher & Ms. Lynn Peterson-Maher, Dr. Jeffrey Barish & Dr. Elaine Best, Keith & Lisa Reed, and Mark & Lori Rosolowsky.

Tickets start at $33 for adults, with discounted student tickets available. Purchase tickets at <https://www.bozemannsymphony.org/bohemian-fire>, or call (406) 585-9774. Tickets will also be available at the door, subject to availability.

KOBI CRADDOCK

STATE REPRESENTATIVE | HOUSE DISTRICT 70 DEMOCRAT

STRONG AG. STRONG MONTANA.

BACKGROUND

Fifth-generation Montanan from the Ramsay area. Small cattle producer. Journeyman plumber and pipefitter. UA Local 41 member. I have worked in the trades and as a foreman. I believe good decisions start by listening to the people doing the work, understanding the problem, and finding a practical way forward.

WHAT I WANT TO WORK ON

AGRICULTURE & LOCAL FOOD

Strengthen the connection between Montana producers and consumers. Expand direct-to-consumer opportunities, pursue practical in-state meat inspection, put more Montana food in schools and public institutions, and improve help during drought and wildfire.

WORKFORCE & THE TRADES

Protect Montana's skilled workforce, prevailing wages and the right to organize. Oppose Right-to-Work and expand apprenticeships and career and technical education, including opportunities for students in smaller communities.

WATER, FORESTS & WILDFIRE

Respect senior water rights and keep agriculture at the table. Support responsible forest management that protects watersheds, reduces dangerous fuel loads and supports Montana jobs.

AFFORDABILITY & PROPERTY TAXES

Work toward lasting property-tax solutions instead of shifting the burden. Working families, retirees, farmers and ranchers should be able to afford to stay in the communities they helped build.

COMMON GROUND & GOOD GOVERNMENT

Good ideas can come from either side. Build relationships across the aisle, strengthen rural Montana's voice, and judge legislation by what it actually does for the people of House District 70.

PUBLIC LANDS, ACCESS & CONSERVATION

Keep public lands in public hands. Protect access while respecting private property. Bring landowners, sportsmen, producers and conservation groups together on workable solutions, including corner crossing.

CONSTITUENTS FIRST

Listen before voting, stay accessible outside election season and explain where I stand. I will disagree with my own party when I believe the district is better served by another course.
