Letter to the Editor

Vote—and make up your own mind!

A recent letter to the editor urged voters to reject every initiative on the ballot. We are not lemmings; we can make informed decisions by considering all sides. A recently mailed booklet presents arguments for and against each initiative. Read it, weigh both perspectives, and decide for yourself.

CI-194 seeks to ensure that only individual people—not corporations—can financially influence political campaigns and that donors and contribution amounts are disclosed. I do not expect it to eliminate outside influence from either side, but it would set boundaries and reveal who is funding each race. Ranchers and other individuals could still contribute to candidates they support, but they could not conceal those donations through difficult-to-trace corporations. Does this sidestep the Supreme Court's decision? Yes—it is an exercise of states' rights.

CI-132 would enshrine nonpartisan judicial elections in Montana's Constitution. Mr. Maness writes, "Many Montanans are frustrated with what we see coming out of the courts in their rulings and decisions." This ballot gives us an opportunity to choose who serves on the Montana Supreme Court. Research the candidates instead of relying solely on campaign mailers, and vote for the justice you believe will be fair and impartial. Courts should apply the law without regard to whether a candidate has an R, D, L, or I after their name.

CI-133 seeks to preserve citizens' role in the initiative process. Without that right, we might not have had the opportunity to vote on any of these measures. Although many politicians and organizations oppose citizen initiatives, the process keeps power in the hands of the people—that is how democracy should work. We must ensure that initiatives comply with the law and that signatures are collected properly, while protecting our right to propose and vote on them.

We are intelligent people, we don't need someone to tell us how to vote. Use your freedom and vote like your future and freedom depend on it: they do.

PUBLIC FORUM

Tuesday, October 20th

7 p.m.

Beaverhead County Courthouse Commissioners Room

Beaverhead County Comparison of Specific Government Form Duties

CHARACTERISTIC	PRESENT FORM OF GOVERNMENT	PROPOSED FORM OF GOVERNMENT	EVALUATIVE COMMENTS
FORM OF GOVERNMENT	COMMISSION FORM Merges legislative, administrative and executive functions in commission	CHARTER-COMMISSION Charter is a local constitution and describes a commission form of government.	Commission form is written into the Charter. Basic change is that county gains self-governing powers and flexibility to respond to the citizens' concerns.
POWERS	GENERAL GOVERNMENT POWERS State Law defines what government may do and specifically how it shall do it. Very limited local power to pass ordinances.	SELF-GOVERNMENT POWERS County government shall exercise any power which the state does not deny. Local government gains more ordinance-making authority. Brings the power of government back local vs. at the State level.	Self-government powers bring to the county the power to act in its own best interest, and flexibility in shaping government structure.
FLEXIBILITY TO ADDRESS CITIZENS' CONCERNS	Limited form of government to address citizens' concerns with regards to ordinances, etc.	Self-Governing Power form of Government.	Commissioners will have more power to: • Provide services not permitted by the legislature. • Lawfully acquire and operate utilities (gas, electric) within and outside of boundaries of the county. (solar farm?) • Greater authority to dispose of public lands. • Authority to provide more ordinances that address citizens' concerns.

There are no changes to the following: Governing Body size, Election, Term Presiding Officer, Duties, Other Elected Officials, Chief Administrative Officer, Appointment Powers, Budget Preparation, or Service Delivery.

A SELF-GOVERNMENT CHARTER IS A LOCAL GOVERNMENT EQUIVALENT OF A STATE OR NATIONAL CONSTITUTION. IT PUTS THE POWER INTO THE HANDS OF THE VOTERS ON THE LOCAL LEVEL.
