Montana Western and Bank of Commerce Performing Arts Series Presents "After the Quiet: Reflections on Domestic Violence"

The University of Montana Western's Theatre Program and the Bank of Commerce Performing Arts Series will present "After the Quiet: Reflections on Domestic Violence," a series of monologues based on real life stories, in partnership with the Women's Resource Center. Performances will be held on November 2 and 3 at 7:00 p.m. in UMW's Beier Auditorium.

A tapestry of voices woven from anonymous stories of survival gathered from across the state of Montana, this original theatrical production explores life beyond trauma. Through intimate monologues, survivors share stories of resilience, healing, and the courage to reclaim their lives after domestic violence. Performed by University of Montana Western students and local artists, with a featured cameo by Christina Scruggs, a former Virginia City Player and Brewery Follies member, the production unfolds through fabric and movement, creating a powerful meditation on strength, connection, and hope.

"After the Quiet is about creating space for survivor voices to be heard," said Izzi Simonsen, Programs Manager at the Women's Resource Center. "By sharing their experiences, survivors can help educate our community, reduce stigma, and remind others that they are not alone."

The University of Montana Western and the Women's Resource Center hope the production will inspire greater understanding of domestic violence while recognizing the courage and resilience of survivors as they rebuild their lives.

The production is facilitated by Adryan Miller-Gorder, Stephen Alan Seder, Izzi Simonsen, Natalie Paulbeck, and Ella Wanamaker. It is produced by students in THTR 276: Introduction to Producing and THTR 120: Introduction to Acting.

Rated R, this production is intended for mature audiences. Viewer discretion is advised.

To purchase tickets, please visit the BOC Performing Arts Series Box Office webpage. Admission is $16 for general seating, $12 for seniors (65+), youth (18 and under), and military personnel, $10 for UMW faculty and staff, and free for UMW students with a valid student ID.

Flex Passes, which include admission to five performances throughout the year, are also available for the BOC Season. Choose any production from either the Mainstage or Youth Season for maximum flexibility. Flex Passes are $48 for adults, $36 for seniors (65+), youth (18 and under), and military personnel, and $30 for UMW faculty and staff. UMW faculty and staff can purchase passes for their immediate family members at the discounted rate.

For tickets or more information, contact the BOC Performing Arts Series Box Office at box.office@umwestern.edu or 406-865-0465. Learn more about UMW Theatre and upcoming performances.

TOWN PUMP MATCH HELPING THE FOOD PANTRY

It is that time of year again, and the Town Pump has graciously offered to provide a match up to $20,000.

As we're sure you know, the cost of food keeps climbing and we are helping more families. We also know this if affecting each and every one of us.

Here at the Food Pantry, we have dedicated volunteers who work tirelessly to keep the Pantry running. We are a totally volunteer staff. We also have valuable organizations in town that when we need assistance with a forklift or they have milk to donate, they step right up and help us.

We would truly appreciate you helping us reach our goal of $20,000 in cash donations. This is what we can bring in from September 1 - November 30, 2026. If we reach the $20,000, Town Pump will match that amount.

We use these funds to purchase milk, produce, eggs, yogurt, cheese, canned goods, and meat. We are a non-profit 501(c)3 business. We will send out receipts for tax purposes in January 2027.

Please make checks out to Beaverhead Community Food Pantry, or BHC Food Pantry, and send to P.O. Box 1356, Dillon, MT, 59725. Thank you very much,

The Beaverhead Community Food Pantry

Montana Auditor James Brown Joins $4.4M Multistate Settlement With Wells Fargo, Merrill Lynch

Montana Auditor James Brown joined securities regulators from several other states in securing a $4.4 million settlement agreement in principle with Wells Fargo and Merrill Lynch after the firms were caught charging unreasonable commissions to retail customers.

The State Auditor's Office participated in a multistate investigation that determined Wells Fargo and Merrill Lynch charged unreasonable commissions on more than 256,000 equity transactions and trades over the past five years.

The investigation was spearheaded by Massachusetts and supported by Montana, Alabama, Iowa, Missouri, New Jersey, Texas, Washington, and the North American Securities Administrators Association (NASAA).

From September 30, 2020, to October 1, 2025, Wells Fargo charged unreasonable commissions on approximately 228,243 transactions, totaling nearly $3.9 million. In the same timeframe, Merrill Lynch charged unreasonable commissions on approximately 28,162 small-dollar transactions, totaling nearly $549,000 in excessive commissions.

Impacted customers in the participating states, including those in Montana, will receive restitution plus interest. Wells Fargo and Merrill Lynch must also pay administrative fines and costs associated with the investigation.

Without admitting or denying the findings of the investigation, Wells Fargo and Merrill Lynch agreed to the following terms: • Restitution, • Fines, • Policy Changes, • Cease and Desist & Censure.

In 2025, Auditor Brown successfully negotiated and secured similar settlement agreements with TD Ameritrade (formerly Charles Schwab), Edward Jones, LPL Financial, RBC Capital Markets, and Stifel, Nicolaus & Co. As a result of the settlement agreements, over the past two years Auditor Brown has secured significant fines, millions of dollars in restitution for investors, and corrective actions from firms to ensure Montana consumers are not taken advantage of in the future.

As Montana's chief securities regulator, Auditor Brown is committed to protecting Montanans against illegal practices in the industry and pursuing accountability for wrongdoing. For more information on Auditor Brown's work, visit the agency website at csimt.gov.

Roundup mule deer management hunt scheduled to begin late November

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks and the City of Roundup scheduled an archery-only mule deer management hunt in and around Roundup to reduce the number of urban deer.

Fifty either-sex mule deer licenses for this hunt will go on sale Wednesday, Nov. 4, and will be limited to two per person. Online sales will begin at 5 a.m. and in-person sales will begin at regular business hours. These Roundup management deer B licenses will be available for residents and non-residents and do not count toward an individual hunter's limit of deer B licenses.

Roundup city officials and the Musselshell County Sheriff's Office have observed fewer conflicts with deer and vehicle-deer collisions since the management hunt began.

Upcoming Event at Montana Western: On the Rocks Featuring Rachel Howard

On the Rocks: Applications of Geology, Hydrology, and Law:
Utah Water Rights in an Evolving Landscape

Presenter: Rachel Howard, University of Montana Western alumna

Date/Time: Wednesday, October 28 at 3:30 p.m.

Location: Lucy Carson Library, University of Montana Western

The University of Montana Western's Environmental Science Department welcomes alumna Rachel Howard for a presentation exploring Utah water rights and the evolving landscape of water management. Howard graduated from Montana Western in 2025 with a bachelor's degree in Environmental Science, emphasizing Geology. She currently works as a Hydrologic Scientist with the Division of Water Rights in Cedar City, Utah, and has experience presenting geological research and serving as an interpretive park ranger for Utah State Parks.

This event is part of Montana Western's "On the Rocks" lecture series and is free and open to the public. A social gathering with light refreshments and snacks will precede the presentation at 3:30 p.m.

For more information, visit: <https://www.umwestern.edu/article/umws-on-the-rocks-series-to-host-alumna-rachel-howard/>

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

It is foolish to think that, even in a state as great as ours, where we put high value on honesty and integrity, a judge can't be bought or "encouraged" to tow a party line. Montanans should want our judges to be accountable to our Constitution, nothing else.

Article II, Section 24 of our Constitution entitled "Rights of the Accused" states that 'the accused shall have the right to ... trial by impartial jury'. It is the right and just thing to make sure that our judges uphold the same standard of impartiality.

Please vote YES on CI-132 and keep politics out of our courtrooms.

Letter to the Editor

The Beaverhead County Local Government Study Commission was established in 2024 by voter mandate to review the structure, powers, and procedures of Beaverhead County's local government. The commission's charge, as defined by Montana state law, was to compare the existing county government, which is a Commission Form of Government, with alternative forms available under state statutes and, if warranted, propose changes to the electorate.

The elected commission of Brooke Erb, Rebecca Jones, and Taylor Rose conducted a review through public surveys, public meetings held in Dillon, Lima, and Wisdom, and received opinion from county commissioners, county department managers, and elected county employees. Comparative data was obtained from various Montana counties, as well.

After extensive review and public consultation, the Study Commission concluded that there is public interest in commissioner's expanded ability to exercise more flexibility and make decisions with more efficiency and responsiveness locally. We concluded that a Self-Government Charter would best facilitate these objectives.

For example, an ordinance for building codes could be enforced, requiring construction projects to adhere to state building codes. Fireworks could be restricted in fire prone areas when drought conditions are present. Situations that require expediency in decision making would produce timely results.

To support the recommended change in local government to "A Self-Government Charter", a ballot would be marked: [X] For adoption of the commission form of government with a self-government charter proposed for Beaverhead County proposed by the Beaverhead County Local Government Study Commission.

Thank you for entrusting this elected Study Commission to review existing local government and recommend this proposed change to the citizens of Beaverhead County.
