He married Nancy Dyson in 1956 and Bob did many different jobs but mining was his passion. He worked in mines in New Mexico, Colorado, Ohio, Washington, and Montana.

After he could no longer physically work in mining, he taught MSHA classes at various companies. When he wasn't working, he enjoyed hunting, four-wheeling, gold panning, and reading.

In 1981, Bob married Frida King. This union added five step-sons to the family. They were married for 42 years.

Bob was preceded in death by his wife Frida, his step daughter in law Arlin, his brother Melvin, and his mother & father. He is survived by his sons: Bob (Jodi) Decker Jr., Ron (Cindy) Decker, and Roger (Sara) Decker; his daughters: Linda (Joe) Nottingham, Brenda (Curt) Green, and Martha (Ty) Cummins; his stepchildren
David King (Linda Johnson), James King, Carl (Maureen) King, John (Jennifer) King and Steve (Cindy) Baril. He is also survived by fifteen grandchildren, twenty-two step grandchildren, nineteen great grandchildren, sixty-four step great grandchildren, one younger brother Arthur (Art) and sister Laura.

Marie grew up surrounded by a loving extended family and a neighborhood of kind, caring people. Her mother, Juanita; her grandfather, Robert Lee Campbell; and her aunts, Barbara Brown and Patricia Kern, all played important roles in her upbringing.

Marie shared her life with her husband, David Hamilton, building a marriage rich in family, adventure, and lasting memories. David introduced her to camping, fishing, and skiing, and together they enjoyed horseback riding, construction projects, and the satisfaction of building a life with their own hands. Marie was as capable with horses as she was with a worm-drive saw and tape measure. Together, she and David built their home along the Jefferson River west of Three Forks, Montana, where they lived for 27 years. They also worked together to restore a log building on a homestead west of Butte.

The birth of their son, Mathew, brought Marie a new understanding of unconditional love. She was smitten from the moment she first saw him and remained forever grateful for a son whose character, generosity, and strength made her so proud. She also cherished Mathew's wife, Tana, admiring her kindness, strength, and devotion to family.

In 2017, Marie and David followed Mathew to Dillon, beginning a new chapter together. Through the many seasons of their marriage, Marie treasured the life they built, the lessons in love and commitment, and the blessings they found along the way.

On October 5, 2026, Marie welcomed her grandson, Miles Mathew Hamilton, into the world. His arrival brought her tremendous joy, and in the final weeks of her life, she treasured the precious opportunity to meet and hold him.

Marie graduated from Central Texas College in 1981 with an associate degree in nursing. She went on to devote more than four decades to her career as a registered nurse, working in hospitals throughout Montana. Her final position was as a care coordinator at Barrett Clinic in Dillon, where she worked before retiring in 2022. Nursing was an important part of her life's work and reflected her enduring commitment to caring for others.

Marie and her younger sister Laura shared a bond that only sisters can understand. They played together, fought as sisters do, and fiercely defended one another when life got tough. Through all the years and seasons of life, Laura remained the person who truly knew Marie and loved her no matter what.

That devotion to family extended to her nephews, Jacek and Adam Barelski. Though Marie lived in Montana and the boys grew up in New York, she and Laura made a remarkable commitment to keeping their families close. Yearly visits, vacations, and shared adventures bridged the distance and created relationships that endured into adulthood. Marie remained a cherished presence in their lives and delighted in becoming a great-aunt to Sofia, Theodore, and Weston Barelski, the children of her nephew Adam and his wife, Alexis. As her great-niece Sofia would often say, "Aunt Marie is the best!"

Marie's sense of humor, quick wit, and joyful spirit brought laughter to those around her. She had a wonderful way of finding humor in the unexpected and making the people she loved smile.

Faith was central to Marie's life. At age 35, she renewed her relationship with God and committed herself to living each day in a way that would glorify Him. She was active in the Methodist Church before moving to Dillon, where she found a welcoming church family at First Presbyterian Church. Her faith was a source of strength, purpose, and gratitude throughout her life.

Even after her cancer diagnosis, Marie was determined to keep living fully. She did not think of herself as battling cancer, but rather as living life with cancer. She embraced each day with gratitude for the people she loved and the life she had been given.

Marie was preceded in death by her mother, Juanita Walker-Riley, and her brothers, Daniel (Danny) and Arthur (Art) Walker.

Marie is survived by her husband, David Hamilton; her son, Mathew Hamilton, and daughter-in-law, Tana; her grandson, Miles Mathew Hamilton; her sister, Laura Rodolakis, and brother-in-law, Anthony; her niece, Rachael Maney, and nephews, Travis Walker, Jacek Barelski, and Adam Barelski (Alexis); her great-niece, Sofia Barelski, and great-nephews, Theodore and Weston Barelski; and members of her extended family.

Health Minute: Meet the Magic Behind Kombucha

Every batch of kombucha starts with a SCOBY, which stands for Symbiotic Culture of Bacteria and Yeast. It's a living culture, often a rubbery, pancake-like disc, that floats in freshly brewed sweet tea. That might not sound very appetizing, but keep reading. I promise it gets better! The sugar isn't there to sweeten your drink. It's food for the culture. The yeast eat the sugar first, turning it into natural carbonation and a small amount of alcohol. The bacteria then turn that alcohol into organic acids, which give kombucha its tangy, refreshing bite. By the end of fermentation, most of the sugar has been used up. What's left is a lightly sweet, naturally fizzy tea full of live probiotics and organic acids that support healthy digestion and a happy gut.

This season we're carrying two limited small-batch flavors. Yuzu Kombucha is sunshine in a can. It's made with 100% pure Japanese yuzu, a treasured citrus fruit that tastes like mandarin, lemon, and grapefruit rolled into one. It's tart, bright, and naturally rich in vitamin C, perfect for lifting spirits on gray, cold winter days. Apple Chai Kombucha is our cozy seasonal. It pairs crisp organic Honeycrisp apples with a warming chai blend of cinnamon, cardamom, clove, and fresh ginger, finished with a soft touch of vanilla. Picture sweater weather and wholesomeness in a glass, with spices long valued for digestive comfort. Both are AMAZING!

Elevate your senses with Yuzu or Apple Chai while supplies last! Enjoy them chilled on their own, over ice with fresh mint or a cinnamon stick, or as a sparkling mocktail. Once they're gone, they're gone, so grab yours while you can. Mighty Oak Mercantile | 34 N Idaho, Suite 1, Dillon

Shannon Maness: A True Citizen Legislator

Shannon Maness embodies the qualities of a true citizen legislator. He is a man of God, a devoted husband and father, and a small business owner. He has a relentless work ethic and the courage to make tough decisions, even when those decisions aren't easy or politically convenient.

Serving in the Legislature was never intended to be a full-time job or a stepping stone to becoming a career politician. Unfortunately, that's increasingly what we're seeing in Helena. But not with Shannon. He approaches his legislative responsibilities the same way he runs his business: with hard work, honesty, integrity, and a genuine commitment to putting the needs of his fellow Montanans above his own.

Too often today, public service seems to be more about what government can do for those holding office, or what personal gain they can achieve, rather than what they can do to make life more affordable for Montana families and protect the God-given rights of the people they serve.

Shannon understands the difference. Regardless of your political affiliation, you can be confident that he will put the people of Montana first, stand firm in his convictions, and work tirelessly to protect the freedoms we hold dear.

I thank my friend Shannon for his selfless commitment to public service and the personal sacrifices that come with it. His dedication to the people of Montana is something I deeply respect, and I will continue striving to match his commitment and devotion to this great state we all love.

Senator Tony Tezak, Montana SD 35
