Bulldog Men's Basketball Comes Back from 10-Down to Defeat Westcliff, 83-75

The Montana Western men's basketball program (3-1) overcame a 10-point first-half deficit to beat Westcliff (0-3) 83-75 Saturday evening on day two of the Best Western Tipoff Classic.

"Proud of the guys for finding a way to win," head coach JC Isakson said. "Credit to Westcliff, that's a good team who fought hard today. We need to learn from this fame and keep getting better.

The two sides traded buckets to start the game, but Westcliff was able to slowly stretch its lead to as many as 10, 31-21, with six minutes remaining in the opening period. The Bulldogs finished the half on a 17-5 run to take a two point lead, 38-36, into the locker room. UMW shot 48.3 percent (14-29) from the floor, 30.0 percent (3-10) from three, and 63.6 percent (7-11) from the foul line over the first 20 minutes. A quick three to start the second half put the Warriors back up by one, but it would be their only lead for the remainder of the contest. Western increased its lead to as many as 13 twice in the second half, but Westcliff battled back to within a few points each time. Made free throws down the stretch helped seal the eight-point victory for the Bulldogs.

Montana Western football (4-6, 2-4 FC) took down Arizona Christian (0-9, 0/5 FC) 34-23 Saturday afternoon in the final regular season contest of 2026.

STAT BREAKDOWN - Western tallied 385 yards of total offense, 249 passing yards, 136 rushing yards, and scored four touchdowns and two field goals. The Bulldogs scored on all four red chances and posted 20 first downs. Kaden LaPlaunt led the game with 241 passing yards and two touchdowns on 14 completions, including a long of 75. Jakob Humphrey rushed for a game-best 64 yards on a game-high 16 carries with one touchdown. Santana Luna had nine carries for 57 yards. Rashard Boone ran for a career-high tying 31 yards and one rushing TD. Eli Nourse caught for a game-best 126 yards and one touchdown on 10 receptions. Seth Shook also got in on the action with one touchdown catch on one 75-yard reception. Colton Cornwell had two receptions for 43 yards. Defensively, Connor Dunlea, Bryson LeCoure, and Thomas Avery tied for the game-high with nine tackles each. Eliandry Ozuna led the team with five solo takedowns. Drew Humphrey, Isaac Tolan, and Manuel Variz IV all posted 1.0 tackles-for-loss while Humphrey also posted 1.0 sack in the contest. Dunlea and Aedan Baker both snagged interceptions for Western. UMW Volleyball Falls to Providence 3-1 Friday Evening

The Montana Western volleyball team (14.14, 13-8 FC) was clipped by Providence (20-8, 14-7 FC) 3-1 Friday evening in Great Falls.

NOTABLES - Savana Warburton posted 10+ digs for the third-straight match. Kennedy Lingenfelter put up more that 5.0 blocks for the fourth match in a row. Dani Brown reached double digits in kills for the third time in the last four outings.

The Bulldogs tallied 10.0 kills for the ninth match this season.

The hosts punched first in the match, going up 1-0 with a 25-17 win in set one.

The Bulldogs responded in the second frame, leading for the majority of the set to win 25-21 and make it 1-1. The third period swung back in favor of the Argos, with Providence wining 25-21.

The final frame was back and forth through the middle of the set, but UP gained a 6-point advantage down the stretch. The Bulldogs held off two match points, but the Argos ultimately prevailed 25-20 for the four-set win.

Strong Start to Second Half Lifts Western Over LC State

The Montana Western men's basketball program (2-1) took down (RV) LC State (2-2) 69-60 Friday evening in the opening match of the Best Western Tipoff Classic, hosted by Montana Tech.

The Bulldogs led by as many as 21 in the second half, and the Warriors could not climb out of the hole before time expired.

The start of the contest was a battle between the two sides, though the Bulldogs led for most of the half.

The Warriors took a one-point lead, 14-13, with 12 minutes remaining in the first. It would be their only lead of the game.

Western quickly regained the advantage and led by four, 35-31, at the break.

UMW shot 39.4 percent (13-33) from the field, 27.3 percent (3-11) from three, and 75.0 percent (6-8) from the foul line over the first 20 minutes.

The Bulldogs were firing on all cylinders after the half, going on a 26-9 run to start second half.

They led by 21, 61-40, with less than 10 minutes remaining in regulation.

The Warriors picked it up offensively over the final eight minutes, but it was too little, too late and Western ran out the clock for the nine-point victory.

Savana Warburton led the field with 11 kills, followed by Kennedy Lingenfelter with 10. Lingenfelter hit a blistering .429 clip to lead all players while Averi Look hit .400. Jayda Ward and Sophie Worden combined for 38 assists (19 apiece). Warburton and Madisyn Frazier tied for the game-high with three aces each. Lingenfelter and Olivia Rosborough shared the game lead with 4.0 blocks apiece. Frazier led all players with 30 digs.

It was a business trip for the Bulldogs, and they made it known from the first serve. They started the opening set on a 5-1 run, and ended it on a 11-3 streak. They took the 1-0 advantage with a 25-13 win.

The Skylights fought hard in the second set, coming back from down six points to first tie the set and then take a one-point lead late in the frame. UMW kept its cool and closed the set 25-22 to go up 2-0.

It was all Western in the final set. The Bulldogs started the period on a 9-2 run, and later stranded MSUN at seven points for a further nine points. They sealed the sweep 25-10.

Reminder: Take precautions when handling sick-looking wildlife

Highly pathogenic avian influenza (HPAI) continues to be a concern in Montana. While Fish, Wildlife & Parks staff have received several calls from bird hunters and other outdoor recreationists about sick-looking wildlife, it's important to keep in mind that animals infected with HPAI don't always show symptoms.

HPAI is a naturally occurring virus that is extremely infectious and fatal to poultry and some species of wild birds and mammals. It was first detected in wild birds and domestic poultry in Montana in spring 2022. Symptoms include respiratory distress, weakness, lack of coordination, seizures and death, but affected birds are often simply found dead. People should take precautions when handling harvested game birds or any sick or dead bird they find. Whenever possible, avoid contact with sick or dead wildlife. Even if a contagious disease is not suspected, gloves should always be worn if a dead animal must be handled for disposal.

Poultry owners should maintain separation between wild birds and domestic poultry. Bird feeders should not be kept near poultry and should be cleaned regularly with a 10 percent bleach solution. Disposable gloves should be worn when cleaning bird feeders.

For more information on poultry biosecurity, visit www.aphis.usda.gov/aphis/ourfocus/animalhealth/animal-disease-information/avian/defend-the-flock-program/dtf-resources/dtf-resources.

For more information on HPAI in wild birds, visit fwp.mt.gov/conservation/diseases/avian-influenza, or visit the USGS website at www.usgs.gov/centers/nwhc/science/avian-influenza-surveillance.

For information on HPAI in humans, visit the CDC website at www.cdc.gov/bird-flu/prevention/hpai-interim-recommendations.html.
