David Clarence Hilger May 26, 1942 - September 8, 2025

David C Hilger (Lt. Col Ret.) died on September 8, 2025 of Alzheimer's disease. He was raised in Dillon, Montana. Dave was both an outstanding student and athlete, participating in football, basketball and track at Beaverhead County High School. After graduation from the University of Montana, he married Dianne Pendergast. He then began a twenty seven year career in the Air Force, and eventually retired as a Lt. Colonel in Colorado Springs. Additionally he had a second career in government contracting.

Dave was preceded in death by his parents Edith and Edwin Hilger, and by his brother Pete of Billings, Montana.

He is survived by his children Eddy Hilger and Mari Hilger Skura, by his wife Sherry Hilger, by his former wife Dianne Hilger, and by seven grandchildren.

Dave was a loving husband and a loving, hands-on father. He was also an avid game hunter, bringing home game for the family table and sharing game with families in need. Dave was known for his generosity and kindness, and his memory is treasured by his family and friends.

A memorial service will be held on Sunday, October 5th at The Elks Lodge in Butte, Montana at 3:00 pm.

The interment, with military honors, will be held at 8:30 a.m. on Monday, October 6th at the Mountain View Cemetery in Dillon, Montana.

Women's Resource Center Launches Its "Double Your Impact" Fundraising Campaign

As the holiday season approaches, the Women's Resource Center (WRC) extends heartfelt thanks to our community partners for helping us provide another successful year of free, confidential services to survivors of domestic and sexual violence in Beaverhead and Madison Counties.

To close 2025 strong, WRC has launched the "Double Your Impact" campaign, with a goal of raising $150,000 to fund our essential services. These funds will directly support individuals in crisis - women, men, and children - helping them find safe environments and access crucial support for navigating legal, financial, and housing challenges as they move toward safer, healthier lives.

Thanks to the generosity of a lead donor, the first $20,000 will be matched dollar-for-dollar, doubling the impact of early contributions and building strong momentum toward the campaign goal.

Depending on your contribution, you can help cover the direct costs of services provided to our clients. Here's how your donation can make a difference:

- $25 provides a gas card to help a survivor reach safety or attend essential appointments.
- $50 sets up phone service so survivors can stay connected and access help.
- $100 buys a bus ticket for a survivor to escape to a safe location.
- $200 covers a month's worth of groceries for a survivor and their family.
- $300 funds a weekend stay in a safe shelter for a survivor in crisis.
- $500 supports moving expenses, helping survivors transition to independent living.
- $1,000 covers vehicle repairs, ensuring survivors have safe, reliable transportation.

One recent client reflected, "The Women's Resource Center didn't just give us a place to stay - they gave us the chance to heal together as a family, pets and all. Their compassion made it possible for my children and me to start rebuilding our lives with hope and dignity."

From July through September 2025, WRC has served nearly 72 clients across Beaverhead and Madison Counties, providing over 410 nights of emergency shelter, 990 essential support services, and supported 292 hotline calls. No one is turned away.

Be a part of this impact. Donate online at givebutter.com/WpgYKG. Checks can be mailed to WRC, P.O. Box 888, Dillon, MT 59725 (memo: "Double Your Impact Campaign"). All donations are tax-deductible.

Nursing Scholars Edge Direct Entry Program gives Boulder nursing student advantage

From the time she was a young child, Jesse Harris always knew she wanted to pursue a career in health care. Her grandmother was a nurse who recommended going into the profession, and the rest is history.

Now a junior at Montana Technological University, Harris is in her second semester of the university's nursing program and says the Nursing Scholars Edge Direct Entry Program has made all the difference in helping her reach her lifelong dream.

"I'm so glad I applied because it saved me a lot of time and stress a year ago when everyone was worried about the TEAS test," Harris said. "I could just focus on my classes instead of stressing about getting into the program. Knowing I already had a spot was such a relief."

The Nursing Scholars Edge Direct Entry Program selects 25 top Montana high school seniors every year from a pool of qualified applicants. Additionally, applicants will be considered for a $500 scholarship. All incoming freshmen selected for the Nursing Scholars Edge Direct Entry Program secure clinical spots in the Sherry Lesar School of Nursing. The Sherry Lesar School of Nursing is ranked the top nursing school in Montana on Niche.com's 2026 Best Colleges for Nursing in America. The school's excellent reputation helps draw applicants from across the United States.

By applying and being selected for one of the Nursing Scholars Edge Direct Entry Program spots, the student needs to maintain a 3.5 grade point average in pre-nursing coursework in order to enroll in the clinical portion of the nursing program, after taking prerequisites. Program participants get to bypass one of the major hurdles to clinical selection: the Test of Essential Academic Skills (TEAS) exam.

The TEAS exam is a test administered to gain admission into the clinical portion of nursing school. At Montana Tech for students in the traditional nursing track, the exam score is factored into the application, along with one's overall GPA, and grades in certain prerequisites.

Director of Nursing Janet Coe, calls the program a tremendous opportunity.

"The ability to have direct entry into the clinical portion of a nursing program is a tremendous opportunity for our Montana students," Coe said. "It awards a prestigious honor for students with a clear understanding of the professional nurse role and who demonstrate high academic performance along with strong work ethic and leadership. Selection criteria gives students from all Montana communities, large and small, an opportunity to be honored."

Harris first learned about the Nursing Scholars Edge Direct Entry Program while completing the CNA program through Highlands College in high school.

"I saw it on Montana Tech's website, and it seemed like a great opportunity," she said. Harris sees herself working somewhere in Montana in the future.

"I've just always loved kids, so right now I'm leaning toward pediatrics or labor and delivery," she said.

Like many nursing students, Harris is finding balance to be the most difficult part of the program. "It's tough figuring out how much to study without overdoing it, while also trying to have a life outside of school," she said. Still, she stays motivated by focusing on her long-term goal.

For Harris, the Nursing Scholar's Edge Program has provided the confidence and peace of mind to keep her focused on her path. "It's competitive, but if you can do it, it's worth it," she said.

Applications to the Nursing Scholars Edge Program are open now. The deadline to submit is 4 p.m. on January 15, 2026. Questions? Email nursing@mtech.edu. Click here to view the Nursing Scholars Edge website.

Veteran's Corner Update #328

By Mike Lawson

Veteran News Updates:

• After our summer vacations/activities, our Veteran and Civic Organizations are meeting again with better member attendance. The American Legions and other Veteran Organizations, here in Butte and across the country, are planning for the different events they conduct or are part of. Some of these are Veteran's Day, Halloween events for the kids, etc.. For the Marines it's their Toys For Tot's Campaigns, the 250th Birthday Ball in November, SOS Breakfasts, etc.. The American Legion Post #1, here in Butte, has a dinner on the 3rd Wednesday of the month that is open to the public. Tickets are inexpensive at $10.00 dollars apiece. Join us as you are all welcome.

• The suicide rate in Montana is right at the top in the United States. Most of us have experienced the loss of a friend or family member due to suicide. The VA has and is seriously addressing this because of the high number of Veterans who end their lives in this way. One way they are doing this is to ask if you are ok. Many times the answer is "I'm fine." But are you really. If one is facing challenges, sharing how you feel could save your life. The VA lists areas in addressing suicide: 1) Recognizing the warning signs, 2) Veteran Self-Check Assessment: First step, 3) The Safety Plan: Be Prepared, just in case, 4) Don't stay silent.. The VA has a VA Safety Plan app, which is a personalized guide for when things feel like they're spiraling. Check it out and also look for this article by Dr Matthew Miller, Executive Director, VA Suicide Prevention. It's well written and can make the difference for someone going through these thoughts and possibly save their life. Many Veterans on VA disability have their wives/children on the Civilian Health and Medical Program of VA (CHAMPVA). They may be able to get affordable, private dental care through the VA Dental Insurance Program. (VADIP) The VA has contracts with two companies to offer this insurance —Delta Dental and MetLife. You can call Delta Dental at 855-370-3303 or MetLife at 888-310-1681.

• For Veterans that have a severe hearing disability or handicap that can't be properly assisted by other available options such as hearing aids or cochlear implants, there is a newly developed option called caption glasses. These glasses use augmented reality to display real-time captions in the field of view of the wearer. It's an amazing option and a proactive approach to improving the health and well being of veterans who have no other options because of the severity of their hearing loss.

Angling brings more than $1 billion to Montana's economy, study shows
Montana is famous around the world for its rivers and lakes, and it turns out that angling in the Big Sky state has a sizable economic impact.
A recent study from the University of Montana, Bureau of Business and Economic Research (BBER) and Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks shows that in 2024 more than 450,000 resident and nonresident anglers spent a combined $1.27 billion on fishing trips in Montana.
"Montana's amazing angling opportunities are no secret, but this research shows just how important fishing is to communities and businesses around Montana," said FWP Director Christy Clark.
The BBER study found that cold water fishing (primarily for trout) accounted for most economic activity, which was generated primarily from nonresidents. Cold-water fishing generated about $1.1 billion in trip-related expenditures. More than 70 percent of the cold-water fishing expenditures came from nonresident anglers.
While the total economic output was lower for warm-water fishing, it still supports steady economic activity on a more local level. Warm-water species include northern pike, walleye and bass. Angling for these species generated more than $170 million in expenditures, with two-thirds of that coming from Montana residents. These trips are typically more frequent and localized, making them an important economic driver for rural communities that may not see other tourism activities.

The survey was administered to a sample of adults (18 years of age or older) who purchased a Montana fishing license during the 2024 season.

The Bureau of Business and Economic Research is a research center located in UM's College of Business. BBER researchers engage in a wide range of applied research projects that address different aspects of the state economy, including survey research, economic analysis, health care research, forecasting, wood products research and energy research.
