SEPTEMBER 5, 1988

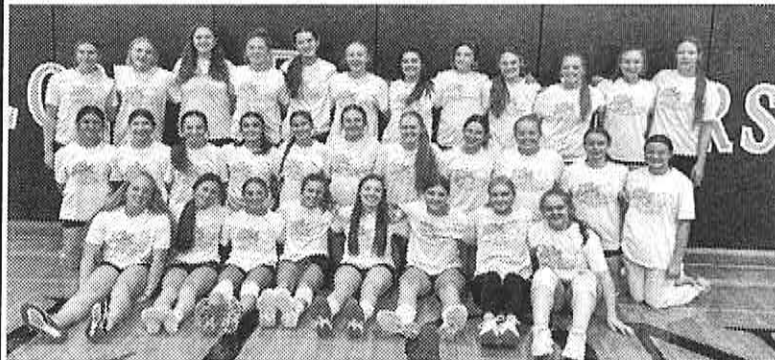

Do you know what the old traditions of this country are? Do you ever stop to remember what this country is? Do you sometimes forget that this is the United States Of America? When I was growing up, I would find myself standing at attention, even if I were in my bed. When the Star Spangled Banner would play at the end of each day. I began saluting the American Flag each time I was given the opportunity. I find it hard to not salute when I see someone who does not find that the flag requires a special respect. I do think that it may be very hard for others to understand just what it means to pledge allegiance to the flag and the country we live in. A few years ago, I almost lost my life as perhaps I was given the choice to disavow that I was an American. I choose then, and I choose now, this is the land in which I was born. The flag of the United States represents a very special symbol that under death, no-one should ever forget.

George was born in Helena Montana 1935. Died in Dillon, MT 2024

Bozeman Symphony Celebrates the Season with Holiday Spectacular Concert

The Bozeman Symphony rings in the holiday season with its annual Holiday Spectacular concerts from December 12 to 14 at the Willson Auditorium in downtown Bozeman. The annual tradition promises a festive celebration filled with timeless classics, holiday favorites, and a joyful sing-along, guaranteed to delight audiences of all ages.

Under the direction of Maestro Norman Huynh, the Symphony will be joined by the warm, expressive voice of tenor Terrence Chin-Loy, along with the Bozeman Symphonic Choir. Together they will present an unforgettable holiday experience that captures the warmth and wonder of the season.

American Chin-Loy, praised by Opera News for his "beautiful lyric tenor voice," is recognized for his passionate artistry, expressive musicality, and full, sweet sound. This past season, Chin-Loy made his European debut singing Gualtiero in Vivaldi's Griselda with the Danish National Opera, return to the Lyric Opera of Chicago for Cop 1 in Blue, Ferrando in Così fan tutte with Virginia Opera, Don Ottavio in Don Giovanni with Opera Omaha and in concert, and Graf Albert in Die tote Stadt with Andris Nelsons and the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

"There's no finer way to get into the holiday spirit than gathering together to experience the joy of live symphonic music," said Huynh. "Our Holiday Spectacular promises to bring you everything you love about the season—music, memories, and a sense of community."

The holiday program will feature a delightful mix of holiday favorites, including A Christmas Festival, I Saw Three Ships, Sleigh Ride, and Waltz of the Flowers from the Nutcracker. Chin-Loy will enchant with Ave Maria, Che gelida manina from La Bohème, and Ev'ry Valley Shall be Exalted from Messiah. The Bozeman Symphonic Choir will captivate with O, Holy Night, Christmas Day, We Need a Little Christmas, and the Hallelujah Chorus.

To meet the popular demand for this annual tradition, the Bozeman Symphony will offer four Holiday Spectacular performances to experience the joy of the season. Performances are Friday, Dec. 12, at 7:30 p.m.; Saturday, Dec. 13, at 2:30 and 7:30 p.m.; and Sunday, Dec. 14, at 2:30 p.m. at the Willson Auditorium, 404 West Main Street.

O. Alan Weltzien Writers Series Hosts Author Jon Keller

The University of Montana Western English Department is pleased to announce an upcoming reading and conversation with author Jon Keller on Thursday, December 4, from 7:00-8:30 p.m. in the Bulldog Lounge, as part of the O. Alan Weltzien Writers Series.

The O. Alan Weltzien Writers Series is a literary event that brings authors, poets, and writers to campus for readings and discussions. Named after Weltzien, a longtime professor and writer, the series highlights both emerging and established authors, often with a focus on literature connected to Montana and the West.

This event will feature Jon Keller, a commercial fisherman, licensed sailboat captain, carpenter, and part-time teacher. After more than a decade as a backcountry guide and mule packer in Montana, he now lives in an off-grid cabin on the coast of Downeast Maine. He holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Montana and an MFA from Boise State University. In addition to his novel Of Sea and Cloud, his writing has appeared in several hunting and sailing magazines.

"Keller's unique life experiences and his range of publishing make him a dynamic addition to our speaker series," said UMW Associate Professor of English Laura Wright. "His first novel has been praised by authors like Debra Magpie Earling and Anthony Doerr. His newest project is a series of crime novels set on both the Maine coast and in Montana's Rocky Mountains."

This event is free and open to the public and will include light refreshments. We hope you'll join us for a great evening. For more information, please contact Dr. Wright at laura.wright@umwestern.edu.

Firefighters Respond to Crystal Lane House Fire Thursday Morning

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

Firefighters and first responders were called to a house fire on Crystal Lane Thursday morning. Quick action by the homeowner helped limit damage until crews arrived to extinguish the blaze.

With colder weather approaching, officials remind residents to have furnaces serviced and to inspect and clean chimneys or wood stoves to help prevent winter fire hazards.
