Gary Lynn Gneiting, 80

Gary Lynn Gneiting, 80 of Melrose passed away peacefully at his home Nov. 15, 2025.

Gary was a gentle soul
who loved his Lord, family, and the community. He spent his life on the ranch helping in any way he could. He was proud of his irrigation abilities and worked long and hard to keep the fields green.
Gary never met a person he didn't like, he saw good in everyone and always had a smile on his face. Gary loved spending time with his loyal friends, Dennis and Jackie

Decken who often took him to fair, parades, music festivals and family gatherings. He did love a good meal and often spoke of how his mother was an excellent cook.

Family was a big part of Gary's life- He leaves behind his brother Robert (Bobbi) Gneiting, sister Karen (Jim) Baltazar, niece Heather (Chad) Latino, nephew Jeremy (Laura) Gneiting, great niece Gabbriella Latino, great nephew Turin Latino.

Heaven gained a sweet gentle man who will be missed by all that knew him.

A memorial service will be held at the Melrose Presbyterian Church on Monday November 24, at 11:00am.

FWP seeking applicants to Region 3 Citizen
Advisory CouncilApplication deadline is Dec. 19*

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks is seeking applicants to the Region 3 Citizen Advisory Council in southwestern Montana.

The council meets several times per year and operates in an advisory capacity to help FWP be responsive and effective resource managers within the constraints of the law. Citizen advisors help identify emerging trends and potential conflicts, and they act as FWP ambassadors to various interest groups and geographic communities.

FWP employees benefit from having a deeper understanding of public priorities and expectations with help from citizen advisors, who can function as a trusted sounding board for ideas and initiatives. People who volunteer in this capacity benefit from understanding FWP programs, priorities, administrative processes and limitations in a broader context.

FWP is seeking applicants representing a variety of interests from communities across southwestern Montana within Region 3. Applications must be submitted by 5 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 19.

UMW Students Place 3rd at Montana Section of the American Water Resources Association

University of Montana Western students Dakota Willis, John Fitzpatrick, Taylor Williams, and Landon 'Bird' Hayes recently placed third in the student competition at the Montana Section of the American Water Resources Association (MT AWRA) annual meeting in Great Falls. Their research project, conducted as part of UMW's Applied Environmental Geophysics class, focused on mapping buried river channels in the Medicine Lake area of northeast Montana.

The project was led by Dr. Neil Foley, Associate Professor of Geophysics, in collaboration with the Montana Bureau of Mines and Geology (MBMG). The Bureau is studying former river channels that were filled with sediment during the last glacial period. Before glaciation, northern Montana had an extensive river network, including the ancestral Missouri River. When the Laurentide Ice Sheet advanced, these channels were filled with glacial till, leaving them buried beneath today's flat landscape.

"MBMG is working to identify and map these buried channels because they may contain perched aquifers—shallow, isolated pockets of groundwater that can be easier to access and may contain fresher water," said Dr. Foley. "Understanding where these features are located is valuable for agriculture and water management in the region."

Using equipment from UMW and Montana Tech, the students collected geophysical data to image below the surface and interpret subsurface structures. Their primary tool, an Electrical Resistivity Tomography (ERT) system, measures how easily electrical current flows through the ground to produce two-dimensional images that reveal variations in subsurface resistivity. By comparing these results with well log data, the team identified zones that likely represent ancient sand and gravel river deposits—signatures of buried channels.

The students' work in the field required persistence and adaptability. "We had a finite number of days to collect a lot of data, and the students worked hard to get it all in," said Dr. Foley. "Fieldwork always comes with challenges—equipment failures, weather, long days—but they stayed professional and disciplined throughout."

The students also created their research poster for the MT AWR conference while managing other coursework. "It's a lot of extra effort to prepare for a conference presentation, and they did it on their own time," Dr. Foley added.

Beyond earning recognition at the competition, the project offered valuable real-world experience. "UMW strives to immerse students in authentic practice within their disciplines," said Dr. Foley. "This project allowed them to partner with professionals, define a problem of local importance, and execute a field-based investigation. Those are exactly the kinds of skills they'll use in their careers."

UMW's small class sizes and emphasis on field experience give students hands-on access to professional-grade geophysical equipment. Combined with the university's block scheduling system, which allows students to focus on one class at a time, these experiences prepare them for meaningful work after graduation.

The research partnership between UMW and MBMG will continue next year, with plans already underway for a third field campaign in northeast Montana.

For more information and this project, contact Dr. Neil Foley at neil.foley@umwestern.edu.

American Education Week

American Education Week is now celebrated the week before Thanksgiving. It was started by the American Legion and National Education Association in 1919, and celebrated December 4th- 10th. It was started due to the need of literacy among WWI draftees. Their aim was to highlight the importance of public education and to honor those who contribute to ensuring students receive quality education. The Office of Public Education and Parent Teacher Association soon joined the American Legion and National Education Association to further bind the significance of quality education.

This week is to remind us of the collective effort required to nurture and maintain quality education in our system. It reminds us of the importance of public education and the need for community support in order to meet educational needs. The concern for literacy in education has instilled a tradition that emphasizes students learning and educators dedication to teaching.

American Education Week reminds us of the combined effort needed to nurture and maintain quality education for our public education system. Even though American Education Week was last week, please take time this week to thank and honor our teachers, administrators, students and all educational community members in order to confirm our commitment to quality education for every student in the nation.

Southwest Montana Retired Educators thank all in our community who have contributed and supported our public schools and for the support of quality education in Montana.

Upcoming 'Fall Into Leadership' 4H Workshop and Dance

By Ralston Yurko

Vice President Ellie Weldon of the Sagebrush and Snowdrifts 4H club will host her annual Leadership Workshop for all Junior and Senior 4H members in Beaverhead County on November 21st from 4-6pm in the 4H building at the fairgrounds. This year there will be a hypothetical "shark tank" competition where members will compete by presenting their business ideas to a panel of "sharks" for a sponsor.

Afterwards, there will be a dance open to all 4H members and their friends starting at 7pm and ending at 9:30pm in the 4H building. It will be $5 per couple, and the money raised will be used to help the Valley Victors 4H club get back on their feet after being out of commission for several years.

UMW Presents Shakespeare in the Schools' Richard III

The University of Montana Western's Theatre Program is proud to welcome Shakespeare in the Schools (SIS) for a one-day showing of Richard III on Tuesday, December 10, 2025, in Beier Auditorium. Performances will take place at 9:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m., with a free workshop offered at 11:30 a.m. between shows.

Now in its 33rd season, SIS presents Richard III to middle and high school students in an engaging live format, accompanied by interactive workshops and post-show talkbacks designed to deepen students' understanding of Shakespeare's work. This production marks the first time SIS will stage one of Shakespeare's histories for school audiences.

Directed by Riley O'Toole, Associate Artistic Director of Montana Shakespeare in the Parks (MSIP), this performance marks his directorial debut with SIS. O'Toole brings a fresh perspective to the play, emphasizing its emotional depth, moral complexity, and historical significance in a way that resonates with younger audiences.

Student and school group pricing is available. Please contact Assistant Professor of Theatre Stephen Seder at stephen.seder@umwestern.edu or 406-683-7038 to reserve seats, as space is limited.

Tickets can be purchased through the University of Montana Western box office webpage: umwestern.edu/bank-of-commerce-performing-arts-series/box-office. Tickets are $16 for general admission, $12 for seniors (65+), youth (18 & under), and military, $10 for UMW faculty/staff, and free for UMW students with a student ID.

Dillon Middle School News for the week of November 24-25

There will be NO SCHOOL on Wednesday, November 26th through Sunday, November 30th for Thanksgiving break. We will be back to school on Monday, December 1st.

The lunch menu for the week is as follows:

- Monday: Fish Sticks with Tartar Sauce or Chicken Salad Bar
- Tuesday: Oven Roasted Turkey, Mashed potatoes, Stuffing and a Pumpkin Cookie or Taco Salad Bar
- NO LUNCH for Wednesday-Friday for Thanksgiving break

Students, make sure to stop at the DMS Lost and Found to pick up any items, jackets, etc. that you may have lost before you leave for Thanksgiving Break!

As the aroma of turkey and pumpkin pie fills the air, it's the perfect time to pause and reflect. What are we truly thankful for this Thanksgiving? Be sure to give a special call to your family and friends to thank them for being there through tears and laughter, and encourage us to be our best.

Students and Teachers and their families, we hope you have a wonderful break and we'll see you on Monday!

Why should Beaverhead County parents learn about Adverse Childhood Experiences? Because knowing about ACEs helps to build resilience to buffer the impact of toxic stress on you and your child. It helps your child live a happier life and break free from cycles of trauma. Healthy families build strong communities.

Senior Commodity boxes

Beaverhead Senior Commodity boxes will be available for pick up Saturday November 29th at 761 Kentucky Ave. Dillon from 9:00-10:00. Questions contact Russ Schwandt at 406.498.1753

My dog Jake has been diagnosed with allergies to everything except VENISON, BEEF LIVER and RICE. Beef liver can cause copper poisoning in dogs. Rice is ok as a supplement but it can contribute to inflammation for dogs with allergies. With this very unusual diagnosis I am struggling to keep my dog alive . If you have any venison, elk or moose in your freezer that you don't want I sure could use it. I will pick it up. Call me - Catherine Cain 406-498-6198 Jake thanks you!

Join Beaverhead County Museum in spreading Christmas cheer!

Nativity Set Display

- Share your Nativity Set of any size, age, or origin with the community.
- Set up from November 24th to December 4th, drop off Monday through Friday from 10 am to 4 pm.

The museum is open for viewing beginning with the Christmas Stroll Dec. 5th and continues through Dec. 17th.

Participate in our first Cookie Jar display and Cookie tasting event during the Christmas Stroll!

People will cast their votes for the best cookie, and a prize will be awarded to the winner.

Drop off your cookie Jar when you drop off your Nativity Set. Both will be on display from December 5th through December 17th.

- Cookie Drop-off: Bring your cookie jar along with your nativity scene and/or bring the cookie jar with your cookies from December 3rd to December 5th.
- The contest will take place during the Christmas Stroll.

We cannot wait to see what delicious delicacies you bring!

Christmas Caroling Event

- Churches and groups are invited to sing carols outside the museum.
- Caroling will begin at 6 pm
- Each group has 15 minutes to perform; no sound equipment provided.
- Caroling sign-ups before the Christmas Stroll.
- Call Candi 406-683-5027 or Mark 406-865-0119 to secure your spot.
