Huckins was born Sarah Margery Cardwell on May 3, 1939, to Ed & Florence Cardwell in Billings, Montana, the younger sister to the late Julia Cardwell Pasentino. She grew up in a difficult home, with her parents divorcing when she was a teenager. She lived with her father, a longtime cattle buyer who settled in Dillon, after the split was final.

An honors student in high school, Sallie went to Montana State University in Bozeman to become a K-8 teacher. There she met D Huckins in a Native American History course after the professor recommended he get notes from her for material missed during D's absence from class. They graduated together, Sallie with a bachelor's degree in education and D one in accounting.

They wed at the chapel in Jackson Hole, Wyoming, on June 30, 1960. Their union was to last nearly 59 years, until the "death do us part" of D in 2019 at 84.

The couple moved to Miles City, then California, the latter where Sallie began her teaching career instructing migrant farmworkers' children. She said they put the most effort into her classes of any students she ever had. D and Sallie then moved to Hawaii just after statehood where she taught at the prestigious Punaho School in Honolulu and he was an accountant for Del Monte.

Hawaii was too laid-back for the young couple, so they returned to the mainland when D got a job at United Airlines in the San Francisco Bay Area. Sallie taught locally until her two sons, Scott and Kyle, were born. Seeing the moral decline in the Bay, the family went to Greater Chicago in 1973 as D secured a position at United headquarters. Sallie was a homemaker until the 1980s, when she once again taught in elementary school, then became an investment assistant.

Mrs. Huckins became a born-again Christian in 1987, and her faith in Jesus was a major influence in her life for her last four decades, helping her deal with transverse myelitis, heart

Two-Vehicle Crash at Ramshorn and Montana Street Leads to Arrest

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

First responders were called out Sunday afternoon to a two-vehicle accident at the intersection of Ramshorn Street and Montana Street.

The crash involved an older Ford pickup and a white Subaru. According to information from the scene, the Subaru was traveling through the intersection when the Ford pickup allegedly ran a red light and collided with the vehicle.

Creighton Homers Early, But Frenchtown Pulls Away from Lady Beavers

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

The Beaverhead County Lady Beavers struck first Friday, but a big third inning from Frenchtown proved to be the difference as the Broncos pulled away for the win.

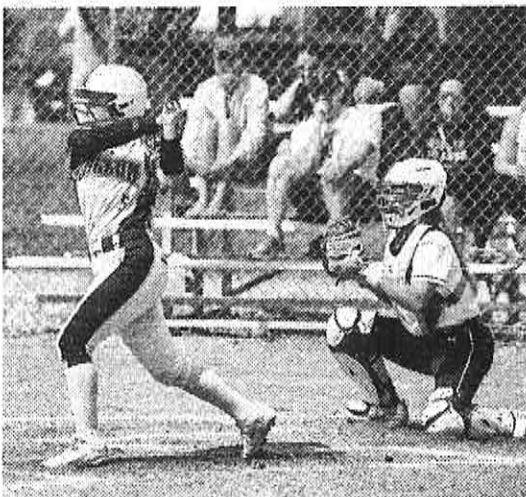

Mya Creighton gave the Lady Beavers an early spark in the bottom of the first, blasting a solo home run to left field to put Beaverhead County on top.

Frenchtown answered in the top of the third, stringing together hits and capitalizing on opportunities to take control of the game. Aspen Courtney and Jezzy Palmer each singled to get things started, while Brooklyn Smith and Sophie Lebsock drove in runs on groundouts. Makenzie Brush added an RBI single, and a Beaverhead County error allowed another run to cross as the Broncos surged ahead.

Dizzle Smith earned the win for Frenchtown, going the distance in the circle. Smith allowed five hits and two runs (one earned) over seven innings while striking out 10 and walking two.

Tymer Barnes took the loss for the Lady Beavers, surrendering six runs (four earned) on seven hits over three innings, striking out four. Creighton came on in relief and pitched four solid innings, allowing just one run on four hits while striking out two.

At the plate, Creighton led Beaverhead County, going 2-for-3 with an RBI, while Reese Jensen also drove in a run.

Frenchtown tallied 11 hits in the game, with Aspen Courtney, Delanie Magnuson, and Jezzy Palmer each recording two hits. The Broncos were aggressive on the base paths, swiping nine bases, with Magnuson and Miley Lieshman each recording multiple steals.

Beaverhead County will look to bounce back in their next outing.

Beavers Explode for 10-Run Inning
in 12-1 Win Over Frenchtown
Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

The Beaverhead County Varsity Beavers continued their strong start to the season Saturday, rolling to a 10-0 win over the East Helena Vigilantes to remain undefeated with one tie.

Beaverhead County wasted no time getting on the board in the first inning. Trenton Moreni drew a walk and later scored, while Levi Stonebraker added an RBI on a groundout to make it 2-0 early. The Beavers extended their lead in the second when Cohen Hartman drove in another run with a groundout.

An East Helena error helped Beaverhead County tack on another run in the third, before the Beavers broke things open in the fifth. Beaverhead County plated five runs in the inning, capitalizing on timely hitting and defensive miscues. Kanin Engelhardt and Sawyer Tackett each drove in runs on fielder's choices, Hartman added a sacrifice fly, and Andrew Bartlome delivered an RBI single to cap the scoring.

Logan Fox was dominant on the mound, earning the win after tossing five shutout innings. The right-hander allowed just two hits while striking out seven and walking four.

The Beavers finished with nine hits on the day, led by Jase Alvarez, who went a perfect 3-for-3 at the plate. Trenton Moreni and Garrett Tackett each recorded multiple hits, while Hartman drove in a team-high three runs. On the base paths, Beaverhead County stayed aggressive, swiping seven bases, including two from Sawyer Tackett.

For East Helena, Breydon Adams and Kash Walker each recorded a hit in the loss.

Beaverhead County will look to keep the momentum going Monday when they take on the Broadwater Bulldogs.
